Animal Farm Nelson S. Bond, 1964 George Orwell's biting satire adapted by Nelson Bond Animal Farm is a fable with a sting Millions of words have been written about the threat of Totalitarianism but it remained to the late George Orwell farsighted British author of the brilliant and frightening 1984 to expose the Russian experiment for what it really is an idealist's dream converted by realists into a nightmare In Nelson Bond's simple staged dramatic reading version of this timely allegory you will meet beasts whose prototypes have dominated news headlines for a half hundred fearful years Opening on a note of joyous triumph for the creatures who have emancipated themselves from the cruel mastery of a human owner the reading mounts inexorably to a climax of disillusionment in which the other animals discover themselves now subject to the rule of even more ruthless autocrats the greedy cunning pigs Publisher's description
