Falola,2017-10-10 This handbook constitutes a single collection of well researched articles and essays on African politics governance and development from the pre colonial through colonial to the post colonial eras Over the course of these interconnected periods African politics have evolved with varied experiences across different parts of the continent As politics is embedded both in the economy and the society Africa has witnessed some changes in politics economics demography and its relations with the world in ways that requires in depth analysis This work provides an opportunity for old and new scholars to engage in the universe of the debate around African politics governance and development and will serve as a ready reference material for students researchers policy makers and investors that are concerned with these issues

Remapping Global Politics Yale H. Ferguson, Richard W. Mansbach, 2004-11-11 This book seeks to redraw our mental maps of global politics and to explain the shifting and accelerating forces that are shaping those maps The authors build on the concept of post internationalism focusing primarily on political space and political identity which they argue are the new frontiers of global political theory They suggest that the state is losing capacity legitimacy and authority to remain the primary actor in world affairs and is giving way to a more complex post international universe characterized by diverse and overlapping polities This book is the result of the authors long standing joint research into the nature and dynamics of global politics a collaboration that has spanned over three decades It makes an important contribution to the literatures on globalization and the future of international relations theory Africa Air University (U.S.). Library, 1994 Coloniality of Power in Postcolonial Africa Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni, 2013 In this book the author examines the current state of postcolonial Africa with a focus on the liberation predicament and the crisis of epistemological cultural economic and political dependence created by colonialism and coloniality Africana Social Stratification James L. Conyers Jr., 2017-11-30 This study seeks to critically examine the field and function of social stratification with emphasis on Africana phenomena Phrased another way this edited volume attempts to study and focus on who gets what and why with regard to resources and structural application of support The John Henrik Clarke query is who made this arrangement of leadership in America Moreover serving as a reference this study will assist researchers in contextualizing and thematically examining the structural and resource allocation of disparity exhibited toward Africana people This manuscript of essays is the first its kind This study incorporates an interdisciplinary scope to examine the concept of Africana Social Stratification in the subject areas of history political science economics Africana Studies and social policy Explorations in African Political

Thought Teodros Kiros, 2013-10-23 This rich collection brings together many of the leading authorities on African political philosophy to present a variety of perspectives on this rapidly growing field They seek to show that African philosophy can serve African people as a moral activity guided by the principles of practical reason in addressing problems of the basic structures of social political and economic institutions Knowledge Matters Diana Rhoten, Craig Calhoun, 2011-02-21

Higher education can be a vital public good providing opportunities for students informed citizens for democracy and knowledge to improve the human condition Yet public investment in universities is widely being cut often because public purposes are neglected while private benefits dominate In this collection international scholars confront the realities of higher education and the future of its public and private agenda Their perspectives illuminate the trajectory of education in the twenty first century and the continuing importance of the university s public mission Reporting from Asia Africa Europe Latin America and North America these scholars look at the different ways universities struggle to serve public and private agendas Contributors examine the implications of changes in funding sources as well as amounts different administrative and policy decisions and the significance of various approaches to assessment and evaluation They ask whether wider student access has in fact resulted in social mobility whether more scientific research can be treated as an open access resource how changes in academic publishing change access to knowledge and whether universities get full value from research sold to private corporations At the same time these chapters capture the confusion in the university sector over explaining academic work to a broader public and prioritizing its multiple purposes Authors examine these practical challenges and the implications of different approaches in different contexts

Peace, Security and Post-conflict Reconstruction in the Great Lakes Region of Africa Lumumba-Kasongo, Tukumbi, 2017-11-28 The Great Lakes region of Africa is characterized by protest politics partial democratization political illegitimacy and unstable economic growth Many of the countries that are members of the International Conference on the Great Lakes Region ICGLR which are Burundi Angola Central African Republic Democratic Republic of the Congo Republic of the Congo Kenya Uganda Rwanda Sudan South Sudan Tanzania and Zambia have experienced political violence and bloodshed at one time or another While a few states have been advancing electoral democracy environmental protection and peaceful state building the overall intensity of violence in the region has led to civil wars invasion genocide dictatorships political instability and underdevelopment Efforts to establish sustainable peace meaningful socio economic development and participatory democracy have not been quite successful Using various methodologies and paradigms this book interrogates the complexity of the causes of these conflicts and examines their impact and implications for socio economic development of the region The non consensual actions related to these conflicts and imperatives of power struggles supported by the agents of savage capitalism have paralysed efforts toward progress The book therefore recommends new policy frameworks within regionalist lenses and neo realist politics to bring about sustainable peace in the region

Dreams of Power K. van Walraven, 2019-01-04 Originally published in 1999 this book was the first study to provide a systematic reconstruction of the OAU s ideological ground work It is based on OAU documents a corpus of African perceptions of OAU functioning collected from governmental and non governmental newspapers and publications from more than thirty African countries and on interviews held with African diplomats and OAU officials It was also the first study to pay attention to the OAU s role in the political psychology of state elites which comes to the fore in the areas of OAU co operation discussed in this book the OAU s internal functioning the former struggle against apartheid and colonialism conflict management and the OAU's role in representing collective African viewpoints in global fora This study was originally a Ph D thesis which was considered to be among the best three dissertations in political science in The Netherlands in 1997

A New Paradigm of the African State M. Muiu, G. Martin, 2009-01-05 Offers a historical multidisciplinary perspective on African political systems and institutions ranging from Antiquity Egypt Kush and Axum to the present with particular focus on their destruction through successive exogenous processes including the Atlantic slave trade imperialism colonialism and neo colonialism or globalization

Empire, Global Coloniality and African Subjectivity Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni, 2013-06-01 Global imperial designs which have been in place since conquest by western powers did not suddenly evaporate after decolonization Global coloniality as a leitmotif of the empire became the order of the day with its invisible technologies of subjugation continuing to reproduce Africa's subaltern position a position characterized by perceived deficits ranging from a lack of civilization a lack of writing and a lack of history to a lack of development a lack of human rights and a lack of democracy The author's sharply critical perspective reveals how this epistemology of alterity has kept Africa ensnared within colonial matrices of power serving to justify external interventions in African affairs including the interference with liberation struggles and disregard for African positions Evaluating the quality of African responses and available options the author opens up a new horizon that includes cognitive justice and new humanism

The ^AOxford Handbook of Peaceful Change in International Relations T. V. Paul, Deborah Welch Larson, Harold A. Trinkunas, Anders Wivel, Ralf Emmers, 2021-08-05 This work provides a thorough examination of research on the problem of change in the international arena and the reasons why change happens peacefully at times and at others violently It contains over forty chapters which examine the historical theoretical global regional and national foreign policy dimensions of peaceful change As the world enters a new round of power transition conflict involving a rapidly rising China and a relatively declining United States this Handbook provides a necessary resource for decisionmakers and scholars engaged in this vital area of research

Civic Agency in Africa Ebenezer Obadare, Wendy Willems, 2014 Examines the variety of mostly unorganized and informal ways in which Africans exercise agency and resist state power in the 21st century through citizen action and popular culture and how the relationship between ruler and ruled is being reframed The recent eruption of popular protests across North Africa and the Middle East has reopened academic debate on the meaning and strategies of resistance in the 21st century This book argues that Western notions of state and civil society provide only a limited understanding of how power and resistance operate in the African context where informality is central to the way both state officials and citizens exercise agency With the principle of informality as a template the chapters in this volume collectively examine the various modes organised and unorganised formal and informal urban and rural embodied and discursive serious and ludic online and offline successful and failing through which Africans contend with power Resistance takes place against the backdrop of deep fractures in state sovereignty the remnants of colonial rule and the constraints of a

An Anthology of African Cultural Studies, Volume II Handel Kashope Wright, Keyan G. Tomaselli, 2024-10-04

This volume focuses on the directions that African cultural studies has taken over the years and covers the following central themes contemporary issues in African cultural studies Gender and the making of identity the dual discourses of Afropessimism and Afrofuturism problematizing the African diaspora and methodology and African cultural studies The second of two volumes the book predominantly pulls together a rich reservoir of previously published articles from Critical Arts South North Cultural and Media Studies Taken together the two volumes re expose for international readers sets of theories methodologies and studies that not only have been influenced by global trends but which themselves have contributed to shaping those trends While the first volume addressed foundational themes and issues in African cultural studies this second volume focuses on the directions that African cultural studies is taking the complex ways in which gender can be seen at work in the making of identity the juxtaposition of two relatively new themes in African cultural studies namely Afropessimism and Afrofuturism the ways in which the presence of continental Africans in the diaspora problematize taken for granted conceptions of diaspora and diasporic identity identifying some of the methodological issues and approaches that have been taken up in African cultural studies work This book will be a key resource for academics researchers and advanced students of African cultural studies media and cultural studies African studies history politics sociology and social and cultural anthropology while also being of interest to those seeking an introduction to the sub field of African cultural studies

Against the Odds Mary Ndlovu, 2013-05-13 1978 In Rhodesia the Internal Settlement led to the creation of a coalition government Smith had however neither capitulated nor abandoned his belief in white superiority and thousands of people fled across the countrys borders In England a group of missionaries supported by the Catholic Institute for International Relations formed a steering group that was to become the Zimbabwe Project Originally an educational fund to support exiled young Zimbabweans it shifted focus toward humanitarian assistance to refugees in the region 1981 The Zimbabwe Project Trust a child of the war This lively book interrogates the African postcolonial condition with a focus on the thematics of liberation predicament and the long standing crisis of dependence epistemological cultural economic and political created by colonialism and coloniality A sophisticated deployment of historical philosophical and political knowledge in combination with the equi primordial concepts of coloniality of power coloniality of being and coloniality of knowledge yields a comprehensive and truly refreshing understanding of African realities of subalternity How global imperial designs and coloniality of power shaped the architecture of African social formations and disciplined the social forces towards a convoluted postcolonial neocolonized paralysis dominated by myths of decolonization and illusions of freedom emerges poignantly in this important book What distinguishes this book is its decolonial entry that enables a critical examination of the grammar of decolonization that is often wrongly conflated with that of emancipation bold engagement with the intractable question of what and who is an African systematic explication of the role of coloniality in sustaining Euro American hegemony and unmasking of how the postcolonial is interlocked with the neocolonial paradoxically It is within this context that the postcolonial African state emerges as a leviathan and the postcolonial reality becomes a terrain of contradictions mediated by the logic of violence No doubt Sabelo Ndlovu Gatsheni's handling of complex concepts and difficult questions of the day is remarkable particularly the decoding and mixing of complex theoretical interventions from Africa and Latin America to enlighten the present without losing historical perspicacity To buttress the theoretical arguments detailed empirical case studies of South Africa Zimbabwe DRC and Namibia completes this timely contribution to African Studies
