Imbroscio, 1997-02-03 Almost two decades of research in U S city politics has produced a compelling empirical account of the nature of urban governance revolving around the alliance of business interests and local public officials In Reconstructing City Politics author David L Imbroscio urges that urban political economy must now move forward beyond the question of what is to a consideration of what might be He systematically poses the possibilities for reconstructing the nature of contemporary city politics while integrating a wealth of innovative urban analysis To bring about this reconstruction Imbroscio explores three comprehensive alternative urban economic development strategies entrepreneurial mercantilism community based economic development and municipal enterprise He considers whether these three strategies are likely to be effective for bringing about urban economic vitality and whether it is feasible for cities to pursue these efforts in the current political economic context By addressing these questions Imbroscio is able to reach conclusions about the possibilities for a successful and sustainable reconstruction of U S city politics This important volume will be vital for professionals and and researchers in urban planning urban studies urban and regional economics as well as urban politics

Negative Political Advertising Karen S. Johnson-Cartee, Gary Copeland, 2013-12-16 This volume provides a unique synthesis of the relevant literature from academic studies in the fields of political science marketing advertising speech communication telecommunication and public relations combined with the practical wisdom of professional consultants Offering the reader both the theory and practical applications associated with negative political advertising this is the first book devoted exclusively to the various forms of negative campaigning in the United States After developing a typology of negative political spots for greater clarity in explaining and evaluating them the book addresses effectiveness questions such as What works When Why and How

Subordination Or Empowerment? Richard A. Keiser,1997 Why have Blacks won political empowerment in some cities and remained subordinated in others Through case studies of Chicago Gary Philadelphia and Atlanta Keiser argues that electoral competition among White factions has created opportunities for Black leaders to win political empowerment and avoid subordination In the absence of electoral competiion Black votes become superfluous and separatist and messianic appeals from leaders like Louis Farakhan gain resonance

Alaska Politics and Public Policy Clive S. Thomas,Laura Savatgy,Kristina Klimovich,2016-06-15 Politics in Alaska have changed significantly since the last major book on the subject was published more than twenty years ago with the rise and fall of Sarah Palin and the rise and fall of oil prices being but two of the many developments to alter the political landscape This book the most comprehensive on the subject to date focuses on the question of how beliefs institutions personalities and power interact to shape Alaska politics and public policy Drawing on these interactions the contributors explain how and why certain issues get dealt with successfully and others unsuccessfully and why some issues are taken up quickly while others are not addressed at all This comprehensive guide to the political climate of Alaska will be essential to anyone studying the politics of America s largest and in some ways most unusual state

The Politics of Nuclear Energy in the European Union Pamela Mary Barnes,Ian Barnes,2018-04-23 For the foreseeable future the overall use of nuclear electricity in the European Union is unlikely to change significantly despite the controversies surrounding its use amongst the EU s nation states The author questions the role that nuclear electricity plays in meeting the challenges of providing secure competitive and sustainable energy to support the development of the low carbon economy in the EU Analysis presented focuses on the evolution of the discourse on nuclear energy amongst policy makers at European and national levels as well as amongst the public

Plant Closings Dena Targ,2020-04-29 PLANT CLOSED A sign of the times These two words have had profound meaning for workers in every factory and office across the country Millions of workers who have already been displaced by closings have had to pick up the pieces of shattered lives and get on with the business of living Those who are still working are faced with the insecurity of wondering whether they might find the gates closed some morning when they arrive at work The number of plant closings and the threat of future closings have raised many questions What has been happening to the American economy that has resulted in major companies closing their doors What forces within the international and national political economies are converging to reshape the labor force eliminating jobs in manufacturing and expanding employment in the lower wage insecure manufacturing sector What happens to displaced workers their families and the community in which they work In Plant Closings the authors examine the reasons plants close and the social economic and psychological consequences A variety of causes are identified including capital flight decreasing profit rates and the pursuit of lower labor costs Through the analysis of a case study the authors examine the changing health patterns political attitudes and financial stability of displaced workers There is also discussion of the impact on the community at large and on the individual institutions within the community Finally the authors analyze legislation that addresses the human and social costs of unemployment Carolyn C Perrucci is professor of sociology in the Department of Sociology and Anthropology at Purdue University Robert Perrucci is professor of sociology in the Department of Sociology and Anthropology at Purdue University Dena B Targ is professor in the Department of Child Development and Family Studies at Purdue University Harry R Targ is professor in the Department of Political Science at Purdue University Encyclopedia of Policy Studies, Second Edition Stuart Nagel, 2020-08-18 This entirely updated and enlarged Second Edition of a landmark reference text continues to provide comprehensive coverage of every important aspect of policy studies discussing concepts methods utilization formation and implementation both internationally and across each level of government Reagan and the Cities George E. Peterson, Carol Weiss Lewis, 1986 Political Science Abstracts IFI/Plenum Data Company staff, 2013-11-11 Political Science Abstracts is an annual supplement to the Political Science Government and Public Policy Series of The Universal Reference System which was first published in 1967 All back issues are still available The Political Economy of Protection Arye L. Hillman, 2013-10-15 This book examines how trade policy is determined in democratic countries and illustrates how protectionist policies are engendered by political processes that allow groups to pursue their own interests Organized Labor and American Politics, 1894-1994 Kevin Boyle, 1998-10-15 Organized Labor and American Politics 1894 1994 traces the rise and fall of labor's power over the course of the twentieth century It does so through provocative and engaging essays written by distinguished scholars of the modern labor movement The essays focus on different times and places from turn of the century steel mills to the streets of 1930s Detroit to the halls of Congress in the 1990s Drawing on a broad range of primary sources the authors adopt a variety of approaches from broad syntheses to careful case studies Altogether the essays tell a single story of workers struggling to find a voice for themselves and their unions within the nation they helped to build It is a story of victories won and of defeats endured Hegel's Dialectical Political Economy Paul Diesing, 2019-03-01 This book demonstrates how Hegel's dialectic can be used in empirical research and shows how one can do dialectical research in economics It also shows how one can use dialectical thinking to interpret some personal or social or political problem and devise a possible solution
