Politics Of War Australia At War 1939 45 From Churchill To Macarthur:

Australia's Forgotten Soldiers in the Empire, 1939-1947 Lee Rippon, 2024-08-02 This book explores how Australia managed the prisoner of war issue throughout the Second World War and the immediate post war period It examines how the Australian government responded to the captivity of thousands of Australians in Italy and the detention of an even greater number of Italians in Australia The war it finds created a series of diplomatic and political challenges for belligerent governments including Australia The author contends that Australia s response was guided not only by other pragmatic considerations such as reciprocity the practicalities of war and importantly national interest The Australian government was not the only one to manage its prisoner of war policy in this way By exploring the Australian government s relationship with Britain as part of the British Empire this book clarifies under what circumstances and to what extent Australia sought to assert a level of independence in pursuing its national interest even when that approach did not align with British policy

Churchill and Australia Graham Freudenberg,2008-11-01 Australia seemed to bring out the worst in Winston Churchill Often enough to form a discernible pattern Australia found itself on the wrong side of the very qualities his strength of will singleness of purpose his refusal to give way in things great or small large or petty the power of his imagination to set grim reality at defiance his mastery of the English language that made Winston Churchill as the philosopher Isaiah Berlin described him the saviour of his country the largest human being of his time Winston Churchill was a titan of the 20th Century universally acknowledged as one of the greatest leaders of his age Yet his relationship with Australia was a fraught one tainted by the military failure of the Gallipoli campaign in the First War and the disaster of Singapore in the Second Churchill the patrician descendant of dukes could not appreciate Australia s dearly held egalitarianism while Churchill the imperial statesman was impatient and at times intolerant of Australia s growing urge towards independence The relationship between the two would span the first 50 tumultuous years of the 20th Century from the Boer War through to opening salvoes of the Cold War and act as a fascinating backdrop to Australia s maturity from a collection of autonomous colonies to full nationhood Written with extraordinary narrative verve and relying on exhaustive research and a true insider s knowledge of the political world this is history written at its compelling best Winner of the Walkley Award for Non fiction 2008

Retaking Kokoda David W. Cameron,2022-11-30 Japanese Major General Horii Tomitar commanding the South Seas Force had the Australians on the back foot Australia was holding the last defendable ridge in the Owen Stanley ranges Imita Ridge Horii to his distress was then given orders from Imperial Headquarters in Tokyo that he was to fall back across the mountains to the Japanese beachheads at Gona Sanananda and Buna leaving a force between Templeton's Crossing and Eora Creek to stop any Australian advance through the mountains The Japanese unknown to the Australians evacuated Ioribaiwa Ridge just before they launched their attacks and to their amazement on storming the heights the Australians encountered no resistance the Japanese had gone This however did not mean the fighting on the Kokoda Track was over far from it Three more desperate actions would be fought by the Australians and Japanese before the decisive battles for the Japanese beachheads could be decided the battles for Templeton's Crossing Eora Creek and finally the Oivi Gorari positions on the northern lowland plains Just 15 kilometres east lay the Kumusi River the last geographical barrier before reaching the strongly fortified Japanese beachheads themselves Sword and Baton Volume 1: 1900 to 1939 Justin Chadwick, 2017-02-05 Sword and Baton is a collection of 86 biographies representing every Australian Army officer to reach the rank of major general from Federation to the outbreak of World War II This is the first of two volumes and its scope is broad including chaplains general surgeons general and British Army officers who served with the AIF or the permanent forces Author Justin Chadwick portrayal of these officers careers provides a lens through which he examines trends such as the development of military skills which ensured that by the commencement of hostilities in 1914 Australia boasted a pool of well trained albeit inexperienced officers The effects of command under pressure of war and the enormous physical impact of combat are likewise portrayed in these comprehensive biographies By the end of hostilities Australian officers had garnered immense experience and were among the best in the Allied forces Ironically this hard won skill base was to be all but lost in the interwar period Sword and Baton offers its readers more than a series of biographies Rather it describes a crucial period in Australian military history through the lives of the extraordinary men at its head Fighting Monsters Richard Wallace Braithwaite, 2016 Only six escapees survived the Sandakan death marches of 1945 in North Borneo the worst atrocity ever inflicted on Australian soldiers 1787 Australian and 641 British POWs perished Previous descriptions of the numerous violent acts have yielded little understanding of a situation where the real struggle was to keep one s humanity when so many were losing theirs whether Allied POWs local residents of Borneo Javanese slave labourers or Japanese soldiers Understanding this extraordinary story is aided by reference to a wide range of sources in different countries and disciplines and by examining the perspectives of all players in this terrible game of survival An unusual and extreme POW story the Sandakan tragedy had four stages active resistance in 1942 3 stubborn endurance in 1943 4 the collapse of civilized existence in 1945 and finally the postwar decades of torment for the six damaged survivors the gradual assimilation of the story the healing of the damage and the commemoration of the tragedy by the families and communities involved Richard Wallace Braithwaite's father was one of the six survivors of the Sandakan death marches of 1945 He died in 1986 still wanting the story to be properly told This led to a project that has lasted for much of the last forty years of the author's life culminating in this book With a scientific background Richard worked for many years with CSIRO and universities in the biological and social sciences and in historical research His extensive and diverse research history and lifelong personal immersion in the story has given him a unique perspective in exploring the complexities of the Sandakan tragedy The Battle for Isurava David W. Cameron, 2022-03-01 Within 24 hours of the Japanese invasion of northern New Guinea at Gona in July 1942 the Australian militiamen of B Company 39th Battalion spent four weeks fighting a delaying action against a crack Japanese force outnumbered by three to one By mid August the rest of the battalion had arrived and these men took up a position at Isurava in the heart of the cloud covered mountains and jungles of the Owen Stanley Range At Isurava this small militia force of the 39th Battalion now numbering around 300 men was determined to make a stand against a crack Japanese force of the 144th Regiment and supporting elements numbering at least 1500 Then on the day the Japanese launched their attack to the great relief of these militiamen reinforcements from the 2nd AIF who had fought with great distinction in the Middle East began to arrive in the afternoon having spent days struggling up the track from Port Moresby Even so the Australians were still outnumbered as the Japanese also received reinforcements and unlike the Japanese the Australians had no supporting artillery or medium machineguns The battle for Isurava would be the defining battle of the Kokoda Campaign and has rightfully been described as Australia s Thermopylae It was here that Australia s first Victoria Cross in the Pacific war was awarded when the Japanese conducted several ferocious attacks against the Australian perimetre Private Bruce Kingsbury led an Australian counterattack rushing forward sweeping the Japanese positions with his Bren gun saving he situation when all seemed lost he was killed leading the charge Another two men were also nominated for the VC during the fighting at Isurava The outnumbered and poorly equipped Australians managed to hold back the Japanese advance for almost a week only then did these battle scared and weary men begin a month long fighting withdraw towards Ioribaiwa Ridge just north of Port Morsby However their sacrifice provided time for the Australian 25th Brigade to be brought forward finally forcing the Japanese to withdrawal just as they glimpsed the lights of Port Morseby Bloody Buna David W. Cameron, 2024-01-03 With the Australian troops crossing of the Kumusi River in mid November after pushing the Japanese back along the Kokoda Track the time had come to face the entrenched Japanese at their beachhead at Gona Sanananda and Buna The end of the Kokoda Campaign in mid November 1942 marked a turning point for the Australians but the fighting was far from over Within days the battles for the three Japanese beachheads would commence These battles where the first combined large scale operation between Australian and American troops against the Japanese and would prove to be among the fiercest of the Pacific War At Buna the final battles to take New and Old air strips by the Australians along with the ongoing American attacks to take the infamous Triangle proved to be a brutal and deadly bloodbath for all concerned Amidst the crocodile infested swamps and lowland jungle with dozens of Japanese bunkers and pillboxes with supporting artillery the Australians who fought at all three beachheads faced an unprecedented toll suffering more killed or wounded than in any other campaign of the Pacific war In the face of relentless combat the Allied forces at Buna suffered staggering casualties with 2817 men lost at Buna The American 32nd Division sustained 1954 casualties including 353 killed 18% 1508 wounded and 93 missing amounting to around 40 per cent casualties over a six week period The Australian 18th Infantry Brigade and supporting elements suffered 863 casualties with 267 killed 31% 557 wounded and 39 missing amounting to around 60 per cent casualties over just three weeks of fighting As the battle raged on the Japanese suffered significant losses with a minimum of

1390 men killed at Buna The true number of their dead lost in history is likely much higher with conservative estimates suggesting around 3000 fatalities Bloody Buna sheds light on the untold sacrifices and heroism displayed by the Australian and American troops as they clashed with the Japanese in one of the most vicious chapters of the Pacific War Traitors Frank Walker,2017-07-25 In October 1943 Winston Churchill Franklin D Roosevelt and Josef Stalin signed a solemn pact that once their enemies were defeated the Allied powers would pursue them to the uttermost ends of the earth and will deliver them to their accusers in order that justice may be done Nowhere did they say that justice would be selective But it would prove to be TRAITORS outlines the treachery of the British American and Australian governments who turned a blind eye to those who experimented on Australian prisoners of war Journalist and bestselling author Frank Walker details how Nazis hired by ASIO were encouraged to settle in Australia and how the Catholic Church CIA and MI6 helped the worst Nazi war criminals escape justice While our soldiers were asked to risk their lives for King and country Allied corporations traded with the enemy Nazi and Japanese scientists were enticed to work for Australia the US and UK and Australia s own Hollywood hero Errol Flynn was associating with Nazi spies The extraordinary revelations in TRAITORS detail the ugly side of war and power and the many betrayals of our ANZACs After reading this book you can t help but wonder what else did they hide

Struggling for Self Reliance Bob Breen, 2008-10-01 Military force projection is the self reliant capacity to strike from mainland ports bases and airfields to protect Australia's sovereignty as well as more distant national interests Force projection is not just a flex of military muscle in times of emergency or the act of dispatching forces It is a cycle of force preparation command deployment protection employment sustainment rotation redeployment and reconstitution If the Australian Defence Force consistently gets this cycle wrong then there is something wrong with Australia s defence This monograph is a force projection audit of four Australian regional force projections in the late 1980s and the 1990s valid measures of competence It concludes that Australia is running out of luck and time The Rudd Government has commissioned a new Defence White paper This monograph is Exhibit A for change Australians Thomas Keneally, 2017-11-14 The third volume of Thomas Keneally's history of the Australian people Australians Flappers to Vietnam chronicles the lives and deeds of Australians both known and unknown during the 20th century Entering an age of consumerism media and communism Australia underwent radical change in the hands of two less remembered prime ministers the stoic Stanley Melbourne Bruce of the Melbourne Establishment and the humbler Irishman Jim Scullin of the Labor Party Keneally examines the Great Crash the rise of fascism the reasons why Australia entered the Second World War through the massive unemployment that arrived later in the century With a compassionate lens and rich storytelling Flappers to Vietnam presents history in a fresh and vivid Give the Bastards Hell David W. Cameron, 2025-03-05 In New Guinea s jungles a fierce battle turned the tide of the way Pacific War the first major land defeat for the unstoppable Japanese forces By mid August 1942 Imperial Japanese forces dominated the Southeast Asian and Pacific theatres seemingly unstoppable in their advance While the Japanese South Seas

Force pushed north toward Port Moresby along the Kokoda Track they launched an operation against Milne Bay at the eastern tip of New Guinea Their objective to seize the crucial Allied airfields under construction which would pave the way for capturing Port Moresby and consolidating their hold on the region For two intense weeks Japanese marines supported by tanks and naval bombardments battled through the jungle covered strip of land between the beaches and mountains Facing them was a determined and diverse Allied force Australian militia 2nd AIF troops American engineers and critically Australian fighter pilots who fought the Japanese to a standstill near the partially completed Air Strip No 3 Despite desperate human wave attacks by the Japanese the Allies held their ground When the smoke cleared the Japanese had suffered their first significant land defeat since Pearl Harbor The Battle of Milne Bay marked a turning point in the Pacific War signalling the beginning of the end for the Imperial Japanese Empire Australia Kenneth Morgan, 2012-05-31 In this Very Short Introduction Kenneth Morgan provides a wide ranging and thematic introduction to modern Australia He examines the main features of its history geography and culture since the beginning of the white settlement in New South Wales in 1788 Drawing attention to the distinctive features of Australian life he places contemporary developments in a historical perspective highlighting the importance of Australia s indigenous culture and making connections between Australia and the wider word Balancing the successful growth of Australian institutions and democratic traditions he considers the struggles that occurred in the making of modern Australia ABOUT THE SERIES The Very Short Introductions series from Oxford University Press contains hundreds of titles in almost every subject area These pocket sized books are the perfect way to get ahead in a new subject quickly Our expert authors combine facts analysis perspective new ideas and enthusiasm to make interesting and challenging topics highly readable Australia's War 1939-45 Joan Beaumont, 2020-09-10 The Second World War was a dominant experience in Australian history For the first time the country faced the threat of invasion The economy and society were mobilised to an unprecedented degree with 550 000 men and women or one in twelve of a population of over 7 million serving in the armed forces overseas Social patterns and family life were disrupted Politically the war gave a new legitimacy to the Australian Labor Party which had been confined to the wilderness of the Opposition at the Federal level for most of the inter war years The powers of the Federal government increased and a new momentum for social reform was generated at the popular and governmental level In the international sphere the war fundamentally shook Australian confidence in the power on which it had relied for generations Great Britain It generated a sense of independence in Australian foreign policy and initiated a new if halting and problematic realignment towards the United States In this accessible book Joan Beaumont Kate Darian Smith David Lee David Lowe Marnie Haig Muir Roy Hay and David Walker consider the range of Australia s experience of this conflict In a single volume they draw together the many aspects of the war and distil the current state of historical scholarship Australia s War 1939 45 will be invaluable to tertiary students and of enormous interest to the reader concerned with the social political and military history of Australia A companion volume on the First World War is also available Invading Australia Peter Stanley, 2008-06-03 1942 was a key year in Australia s history As its people had so long feared White Australia an outpost of empire seemed about to be invaded by the Japanese In that one year Darwin was bombed submarines torpedoed ships in Sydney Harbour and Australian Militiamen died on the Kokoda Trail Each year more and more Australians celebrate Anzac Day and honour the lives of those who fought for their country There is even a push to create a new public holiday in remembrance and celebration of the Battle for Australia But was there ever really such a battle and how close did Australia actually come to being invaded Invading Australia provides a comprehensive thorough and well argued examination of these and other pertinent questions Peter Stanley writes compellingly about Australian attitudes to Japan before during and after World War II and uses archival sources to discuss Japan's war plans early in 1942 He also shows that rather than a Battle for Australia there was a worldwide fight for freedom and democracy that has allowed the West to enjoy great prosperity in the decades since 1945 Crisis Policymaking David Connery, 2010-07-01 East Timor's violent transition to independence which began early in 1999 presented the Australian Government with a significant foreign policy crisis This crisis was not sudden totally unexpected or ultimately threatening to Australia s survival But the crisis consumed the attention of Australian leaders saw significant national and international resources employed and led to the largest operational deployment for the Australian Defence Force since the Vietnam War This crisis also created a significant rupture in the hitherto carefully managed relationships between Australia and its important neighbor Indonesia The events of September 1999 ultimately led to the birth of a new nation and the deaths of many people who might have otherwise expected to enjoy that independence In this major study David Connery examines how the Australian Government at the political and bureaucratic levels developed and managed national security policy in the face of this crisis. The events and the policymaking processes that both led and followed are reconstructed using sixty interviews with key participants This study identifies certain characteristics of crisis policymaking in Australia that include a dominant executive secrecy external actors and complexity War, Strategy and History Daniel Marston, Tamara Leahy, 2016-05-31 This is a collection of essays in honour of eminent Professor Robert O Neill Each chapter was written by prominent academics and practitioners who have had a professional connection with Professor O Neill during his long and distinguished career The overarching themes running throughout the book are war strategy and history All the essays are shaped by the role that Professor O Neill has played over the last 50 years in the debates in Australia Europe and the US This book covers not only Professor O Neill's impressive career but also the evolution of strategy in practice and of strategic studies as an internationally recognised academic discipline MacArthur's Coalition Peter J. Dean, 2018-04-03 From 1942 1945 the Allies war in the Southwest Pacific was effectively a bilateral coalition between the United States and Australia under the command of General Douglas MacArthur By charting the evolution of the military effectiveness of the US Australian alliance MacArthur's Coalition puts the relationship between the United States and Australia at the center of the war against Japan Drawing on new primary source material Peter J Dean has written the first substantial book length treatment of the coalition as a combined military force This expansive and ambitious book provides a fresh perspective on the Pacific War by providing a close up in depth account of operations in the Southwest Pacific from the Kokoda Trail campaign to the reconquest of the Philippines and Borneo Dean's work takes the reader deep into the key military headquarters in the Southwest Pacific and reveals the discussions debates and arguments between key commanders and staff officers during the course of planning and waging a monumental conflict Drawing upon archival records across three continents Dean brings the qualities of these senior officers to life by exploring the critical importance of personalities and leadership in overcoming cultural doctrinal and organizational divides in the largely unequal alliance Set against the practicalities of fighting a fanatical enemy in some of the most inhospitable terrain in the war his book shows how despite these divides and MacArthur s difficult personality the US Australian coalition was able to forge a highly effective and ultimately triumphant fighting machine With its unprecedented view of the joint nature of operations in the Southwest Pacific and its focus on frontline commanders and units in forging a successful fighting force MacArthur's Coalition illuminates a critical aspect of the Allied victory in World War II Australia in the War of 1939-1945, 1968 Crisis Policymaking David Connery, 2010 Royal Marines and the War at Sea 1939-45 Martin Watts, 2018-02-15 Combining a personal narrative with tactical and technical analysis this book casts new light on the Royal Marines during the Second World War
