Politics Of Islamic Reassertion:

The Politics of Islamic Reassertion (RLE Politics of Islam) Mohammed Ayoob, 2014-03-26 The Iranian Revolution has catalysed the preconceptions holding sway in the Western World about the character of Islam and its politics based as they are on a mixture of imagined cultural superiority and a latent fear of a resurgence similar to the Arab conquests of the seventh and eighth centuries of the long Ottoman domination of Eastern Europe This book constitutes a counterweight to such monolithic perceptions of Islam It surveys the nature of opinion and of government in the larger Muslim regions of the world and the position of Muslims in states where they are not the dominant population Each contributor expresses his own assessment of the regional data and the editor's concluding chapter draws together the threads of a work which will form an important contribution to international understanding and a first breach in the Green Curtain dividing East and West First published in 1981

The Politics of Islamic Reassertion Mohammed Ayoob, 1982 The Politics of Islamic Reassertion Neil John Funston, 1985 Islam in the Modern World \(RLE Politics of Islam\) Denis MacEoin, Ahmed Al-Shahi, 2013-07-24 In recent years events in the Islamic world have captured the attention of the West to an unprecedented degree However much of the media coverage of events like the Islamic revolution in Iran has merely reinforced current prejudices and misconceptions about Islam This collection of essays by specialists in a variety of disciplines gives an impressionistic overview of contemporary Islam Different areas of Islamic life are singled out for special attention these include the problem of relations between Islam and the West the role of the Sufi orders and the revival of religious fundamentalism Islam and the feminine Islamic economics and Islamic architecture Geographically the essays cover a wide area ranging over Sudan Turkey Iran Egypt and Saudi Arabia Each discussion should appeal to the layman and specialist alike and collectively they bring together a comprehensive range of material not often covered in one volume Above all they cut across the stereotypes of Islam found in the popular media to reveal facets of a complex living tradition often unsuspected in the West First published in 1983

Politics of Islamic Finance Clement Henry, 2019-07-30 Can the contemporary Islamic finance movement be shown to meet the requirements of modern commerce In the wake of the terrorist attacks on America the UN Security Council passed a resolution targeting transnational sources of terrorist funds The United States and the International Monetary Fund are encouraging the governments of the Middle East to adopt policies of economic liberalism and a new type of capitalism based on Islamic values and beliefs is emerging The aims of the book are to explore the political implications of the slow but steady accumulation of Islamic capital to analyse the connections between Islamic finance and Islamic political movements in Middle Eastern and North African countries to show that the commonly perceived connection between Islamic finance and money laundering and terrorism is by no means the complete picture Readers will learn to appreciate the various political contexts in which Islamic finance operates in the Middle East and North Africa and will acquire some understanding of its political as well as economic constraints Hopefully possible misunderstandings about Islamic banking and finance will be corrected The book is divided into two parts part one is thematic and lays the ground for the country specific case studies in part two covering the Sudan Kuwait Jordan Turkey Tunisia and Egypt The contributors include political scientists economists and historians Key Features A major topical issue Written by the world s leading experts on Islamic Political Economy Explores the connections between Islamic finance and Islamic political movements Includes country specific case studies

The Islamization of the Law in Pakistan (RLE Politics of Islam) Rubya Mehdi,2013-06-03 This is a detailed critical study of the reforms which have been made in recent years to the law in the State of Pakistan with the ostensible objective of bringing it into accord with the requirements of Islam Special emphasis is given to the period from 1977 when General Zia ul Haque adopted a period of Islamization This is a field of investigation of considerable importance both for the advancement of legal and political theory and for practical purposes especially as regards human rights The author trained both in Pakistan law and the concepts and practice of Islamic law has been able to advance significantly our understanding of the doctrinal developments documented in this book First published in 1994 Islamic Reassertion: Hasan-Askari Rizvi,1981

Islam and Politics John L. Esposito,1998-08-01 Muslim Laws, Politics and Society in Modern Nation States Ihsan Yilmaz,2016-12-05 Drawing on theories of legal pluralism this book tests whether and to what extent claims of the modern nation state laws to exclusive dominance over other spheres are tenable and reassesses the operation of law in society Incorporating a combination of legal theory post modern critique and socio legal analysis of three current jurisdictions in which Muslims play an important role the volume identifies Muslims current socio legal situation and attitudes from different perspectives and reconciles them with modern legal systems in three key countries It analyzes the conflict between the assumptions of modern legal systems and plural legal realities and also examines attempts by modern legal systems to impose official laws in the face of resistance from unofficial Muslim laws and discusses possible responses to the challenge of dynamic Muslim legal pluralism A valuable resource for students researchers and academics with an interest in the areas of Islamic law and politics and the interplay between secular law and religious cultural traditions

Politics and Cultures of Islamization in Southeast Asia Georg Stauth,2015-07-15 This book is about cultural and political figures institutions and ideas in a period of transition in two Muslim countries in Southeast Asia Malaysia and Indonesia It also addresses some of the permutations of civilizing processes in Singapore and the city state s image moving across its borders into the region and representing a miracle of modernity beyond ideas The central theme is the way in which Islam was re constructed as an intellectual and socio political tradition in Southeast Asia in the nineteen nineties Scholars who approach Islam both as a textual and local tradition students who take the heartlands of Islam as imaginative landscapes for cultural transformation and politicians and institutions which have been concerned with transmitting the idea of Islamization are the subjects of this inquiry into different patterns of modernity in a tropical region still bearing the signature of a colonial past

Islam & Politics Afghanistan N Asta Olesen,2013-01-11 The years 1978 and 1979 were dramatic throughout south and western Asia In Iran the Pahlavi dynasty was toppled by an Islamic revolution In Pakistan Zulfikar Ali Bhutto was hanged by the military regime that toppled him and which then proceeded to implement an Islamization programme Between the two lay Afghanistan whose Saur Revolution of April 1978 soon developed into a full scale civil war and Soviet intervention The military struggle that followed was largely influenced by Soviet US rivalry but the ideological struggle followed a dynamic of its own Drawing on a wide range of sources including such previously unused archival material as British Intelligence reports this is a detailed study of the Afghan debate on the role of Islam in politics from the formation of the modern Afghan state around 1800 to the present day

Muslim Politics Dale F. Eickelman, James Piscatori, 2018-06-05 In this updated paperback edition Dale Eickelman and James Piscatori explore how the politics of Islam play out in the lives of Muslims throughout the world They discuss how recent events such as September 11 and the 2003 war in Iraq have contributed to reshaping the political and religious landscape of Muslim majority countries and Muslim communities elsewhere As they examine the role of women in public life and Islamic perspectives on modernization and free speech the authors probe the diversity of the contemporary Islamic experience suggesting general trends and challenging popular Western notions of Islam as a monolithic movement In so doing they clarify concepts such as tradition authority ethnicity protest and symbolic space notions that are crucial to an in depth understanding of ongoing political events This book poses questions about ideological politics in a variety of transnational and regional settings throughout the Muslim world Europe and North America for example have become active Muslim centers profoundly influencing trends in the Middle East Africa Central Asia and South and Southeast Asia The authors examine the long term cultural and political implications of this transnational shift as an emerging generation of Muslims often the products of secular schooling begin to reshape politics and society sometimes in defiance of state authorities Scholars mothers government leaders and musicians are a few of the protagonists who invoking shared Islamic symbols try to reconfigure the boundaries of civic debate and public life These symbolic politics explain why political actions are recognizably Muslim and why Islam makes a difference in determining the politics of a broad swath of the world

Islam in World Politics Nelly Lahoud, A.H. Johns, 2012-10-12 This book examines the influence of Islamist movements in national and international power politics in the equilibrium of the world of finance and the articulation of gender issues in Islamic and non Islamic countries alike

Islam and the Political Economy of Meaning (RLE Economy of Middle East) William Roff, 2015-05-08 To be a Muslim is to be a part of a culture with distinct beliefs ideas institutional forms and prescriptive roles Yet there is a complex inter relationship between a system of knowledge and belief such as Islam and the immediate political economic and social context of its adherents This book aims to improve understanding of Muslim social and political action by examining a broad spectrum of Muslim discourse both written and spoken to see how meaning is formed by context It is a broad comparative study and examines discourses produced in opposition to government as well as those produced in Iran or Pakistan for example under an authoritarian Islamic state

Through cogent analyses of socio historical contexts and textual materials from East Java Nigeria Iran Pakistan Indonesia Malaysia the Maghreb and Egypt this book shows how to read a familiar Islamic movement period of change or textual source in a newer and better light First published in 1987 Islam in Malaysian Foreign Policy Shanti Nair,2013-01-11 A case study of a multi ethnic Muslim state and a contribution to the study of the domestic functions of foreign policy The book also addresses the real and imagined significance of Islam as a force in contemporary global politics A Quest for True Islam Rifki Rosyad,2007-07-01 This study presents the contemporary Islamic resurgence movement among young people in Bandung Indonesia focusing on its emergence development and routinisation It traces various factors and conditions that contributed to the emergence of the movement It also tries to explain how and why young people students in particular turn to Islam and how the movement is organised and developed among students Finally it examines internal changes among various Islamic groups as responses to social political and cultural changes Identity and Politics in Central Asia and the Caucasus Mohammed Ayoob,Murad Ismayilov,2015-02-20 The multicultural region of Central Eurasia is living through its early post independence years and as such serves as an ideal case to study and analyse theories of identity and foreign policy in a non European context Looking to re introduce identity as a multidimensional factor informing state behaviour this book analyses the experiences of the different Central Eurasian states in their post independence pursuits The book is structured into two broadly defined sections with the first half examining the different ways in which the combination of domestic regional international and trans national forces worked to advance one national identity over the others in the states that comprise the region of post Soviet Central Eurasia In the second half chapters analyse the many ways in which identity once shaped affected foreign policy behaviours of the regional states as well as the overall security dynamics in the region The book also looks at the ways in which identity by doing so enjoys an intricate mutually constitutive relationship with the strategic context in which it bears its effects on the state and the region Finally given the special role Russia has historically played in defining the evolutionary trajectory of the regional states the book discusses the ways in which Russia itself and its post cold war policies towards its former colonies have been conditioned by factors associated with Russia s evolving post Soviet identity Placing the region firmly within existing theories of identity and state practices the book will be of interest to students and scholars of Central Asian Politics Security Studies Foreign Policy and International Relations

Nationalism and Internationalism in Liberalism, Marxism and Islam Tahir Amin,1991-01-01 The Western World is moving beyond the confines of nation states and towards the formation of a supra national community The Marxist World threatened by ethno national movements with disintegration is going through a basic transformation and is in process of liberating itself from its intellectual legacy The Muslim World is caught up between two trends loyalty to the nation state and to the wider loyalty of the ummah The cold war is over and yet thanks to the clash of ideas and the conflict of ethnic and national loyalties the world might be heading for a major re shaping of its political map This study seeks to come into grips with the dilemma of nationalism versus internationalism in three major traditions of the world liberalism Marxism and Islam The work underscores the necessity of a genuine international understanding and dialogue as a necessary step towards building a more peaceful world order

A Muslim Archipelago Max L. Gross, 2007 Southeast Asia continues to beckon policymakers and scholars alike to revisit its history in spite of the tomes of appraisals already written deconstructive or otherwise Because of a significant presence of Muslims in the region and particularly in the wake of 9 11 it invariably attracts the attention of foreign powers drawn by the specter of terrorism and focused on rooting out radical Islamist groups said to be working with al Qaeda Dr Max Gross has written an impressive account of the role of Islam in the politics of Southeast Asia anchored by a strong historical perspective and a comprehensive treatment of current affairs The result is very much a post 9 11 book The origins of Jemaah Islamiyah and its connections with al Qaeda are carefully detailed Yet unlike much of the post 9 11 analysis of the Muslim world Dr Gross's research has been successful in placing the phenomenon of terrorism within a larger perspective While recognizing that al Qaeda's influence on regional terror networks remains unclear it behooves us to be reminded that regardless of the nature and extent of the linkages to dismiss terrorism as a serious threat to security would be naive to the point of recklessness The Muslim Archipelago is a profoundly Islamic region and Jemaah Islamiyah is only a small portion of this reality The attention Dr Gross pays to ABIM in Malaysia of which I was a part and the civil Islam movement in Indonesia of which the late Nurcholish Madjid was a principal spokesman is greatly appreciated Those unfamiliar with the background and role of the traditional Islamic PAS party in Malaysia as well as the Darul Islam movement in Indonesia will find the author's account highly beneficial The MNLF the MILF and Abu Sayyaf in the Philippines as well as the various Islamic movements in southern Thailand are also carefully explained

Religion and Politics in South Asia Ali Riaz, 2010-02-26 Religion and religious political forces have become potent influences in the domestic politics of many countries irrespective of geographical location stages of economic growth and systems of governance The growing importance of religion as a marker of identity and a tool of political mobilization is reshaping the political landscape in an unprecedented manner and South Asia which contains the world's largest populations of Muslims and Hindus with significant number of Buddhists is no exception to this fact This book presents a comprehensive analysis of the interaction of religion and politics in Afghanistan Bangladesh India Nepal Pakistan and Sri Lanka Although the specific circumstances of each country are different in recent decades religion religious political parties and religious rhetoric have become dominant features of the political scenes in all six countries The contributors offer a thorough examination of these developments by presenting each country's political system and the socio economic environment within which the interactions are taking place The analysis of the various factors influencing the process of the interactions between religion and politics and their impact on the lives of the people of the region and global politics constitute the core of the chapters
