Globalisation and the Politics of Forgetting Yong-Sook Lee,Brenda S.A. Yeoh,2018-10-24 In both academic scholarship and the popular imagination the globality of modern society has been represented by global cities as the corporate and financial epicentres for capital accumulation cosmopolitan cultures and innovative change This has created an image of the globalised world as empty beyond cities which make it into the global league as paradigmatic celebrity cities As a counterpoint this book give interpretive weight elsewhere in other places cities and regions drawing on a range of examples from both the developed and developing worlds This book was previously published as a special issue of the journal

Urban Studies Singapore Politics Under the People's Action Party Diane K. Mauzy, Robert Stephen Milne, 2002 The party has coped successfully with the needs of a multiethnic population claims for more extensive human rights the nascent development of a civil society and the problems of defending a small country in a turbulent region Nations, National Narratives and Communities in the Asia-Pacific Norman Vasu, Yolanda Chin, Kam-ye Law, 2013-09-05 Many states in the Asia Pacific region are not built around a single homogenous people but rather include many large varied different national groups This book explores how states in the region attempt to develop commonality and a nation and the difficulties that arise It discusses the consequences which ensue when competing narratives clash and examines the nature of resistance to dominant narratives which arise It considers the problems in a wide range of countries in the region including Indonesia Malaysia Singapore Hong Kong Korea Australia and New Zealand Understanding Singapore Politics Bilveer Singh, 2017-03-23 Understanding Singapore Politics is written to address the dearth of a succinct overview on Singapore politics This introductory text looks at the factors that shape the island republic s domestic politics the key institutions and issues in the city state electoral power as well as the political direction Singapore is likely to take in a post Lee Kuan Yew era The specific institutions covered for discussion include the mass media trade unions civil service and grassroots organisations The role of civil and civic society including pressures for democratisation is also examined In addition various new political issues the importance of race income equality and migration and their implications are discussed Finally the linkage between Singapore s domestic and foreign policy is analysed This foundational guide to Singapore politics is recommended for anyone who has an interest or a stake in the island republic Education and the Nation State S. Gopinathan, 2013-02-11 In the World Library of Educationalists series international experts themselves compile career long collections of what they judge to be their finest pieces extracts from books key articles salient research findings major theoretical and practical contributions so the world can read them in a single manageable volume In a career spanning four decades S Gopinathan is considered by many to be a pillar of teacher education in Singapore He has played a key role in the establishment and transformation of Singapore s education system pioneering many programmes and advising on policy both nationally and internationally In the process he has contributed over 25 books authored co authored and edited and 115 articles and book chapters to the field and continues to inspire and empower younger colleagues in the region to challenge the cause for excellence in education and education reform In Education and the Nation State S Gopinathan brings together 14 of his key writings in one volume Starting with a specially written introduction which gives an overview of Gopinathan s career and contextualises his selection the essays are then arranged thematically providing an overview not just of his own career but also reflecting the development and key concerns of education in the nation state that is Singapore Straight nation Pavan Mano, 2025-03-04 Straight nation dissects the intricacies of nationalism in postcolonial Singapore and its entanglements with the governance of sexuality Rejecting the romanticization of the nation as a pure bastion of belonging

the book theorizes nationalism as a force obsessed with continually generating threats and excavates the alliance it has struck up with heteronormativity to produce a series of minoritized figures that contemporary identity claims can neither handle nor dispel Through an elegant exploration of a vast array of texts and cultural artifacts the book argues that the relationship between sexuality and nation is instrumental in producing multiple queered figures who are displaced from the national imaginary Dwelling on what is often taken as conventional wisdom Straight nation demonstrates how queerness can be xenologized under the sign of the postcolonial nation and turned into a technology of race gender and class in the right contexts The book delivers a sharp riposte to narrow identity politics and outlines in detail how the governance of sexual expression functions as a powerful mechanism to shape the lives of many including as unlikely as it may seem heterosexual people In the face of the far reaching effects of heteronormativity coupled with nationalism Straight nation presents a compelling argument for an expansive non identarian political critique capable of dismantling the deeply entrenched force of heteronormativity in postcolonial Singapore and the detritus of nationalism along with it Citizens in Motion Elaine Lynn-Ee Ho, 2018-12-18 More than 35 million Chinese people live outside China but this population is far from homogenous and its multifaceted national affiliations require careful theorization This book unravels the multiple shifting paths of global migration in Chinese society today challenging a unilinear view of migration by presenting emigration immigration and re migration trajectories that are occurring continually and simultaneously Drawing on interviews and ethnographic observations conducted in China Canada Singapore and the China Myanmar border Elaine Lynn Ee Ho takes the geographical space of China as the starting point from which to consider complex patterns of migration that shape nation building and citizenship both in origin and destination countries She uniquely brings together various migration experiences and national contexts under the same analytical framework to create a rich portrait of the diversity of contemporary Chinese migration processes By examining the convergence of multiple migration pathways across one geographical region over time Ho offers alternative approaches to studying migration migrant experience and citizenship thus setting the stage for future scholarship Dictionary of the Modern Politics of Southeast Asia Joseph Chinyong Liow, 2022-07-21 The past three decades since the end of the Cold War have been a time of remarkable change for Southeast Asia Long seen as an arena for superpower rivalry Southeast Asia is increasingly coming into its own by locating itself at the forefront of regional integration initiatives that involve not only the states of the region but major external powers such as the United States China India Japan and Australia Extensively updated and revised in light of these changes and developments this fifth edition of Dictionary of the Modern Politics of Southeast Asia remains indispensable This new edition starts with profiles of each Southeast Asian country before providing over 500 alphabetically arranged individual entries each containing detailed accounts and analyses of major episodes and treaties political parties and institutions civil society movements and regional and international organizations Biographies of significant political leaders and personalities both past and present are also provided Entries are comprehensively cross referenced and an index by country directs readers to all entries concerning a particular country The Dictionary concludes with an extensive bibliography that serves as a guide to further reading An essential one stop reference book this book is an indispensable tool for all scholars and students of Asian politics and international affairs and a vital resource for journalists diplomats policy makers and others with an interest in the region

Migration and Integration in Singapore Yap Mui Teng, Gillian Koh, Debbie Soon, 2014-10-30 Between 2000 and 2010 Singapore witnessed a huge influx of foreign migrants The proportion of permanent residents in the total population increased from 7% to 11% while the share of non resident foreigners has risen from 19% to 25% This was as much the result of the spontaneous movement of labour to economic opportunities as it was of active policy direction by the Singapore government The social impact both beneficial and disruptive of this movement was felt at all levels of society and brought other attending public policy issues to the fore Taking a multi disciplinary approach with a focus on policy and practice this book examines the social economic and political issues that have arisen with the influx of foreigners in Singapore since the turn of the 21st century Drawing on empirical research it documents the impact of increasing levels of immigration and provides an analysis of the longer term implications of these trends with each chapter covering a different aspect of socio cultural political or economic outcome arising from intercultural contact and adaptation The contributors also provide policy suggestions to ensure Singapore continues to be a harmonious nation and a cosmopolitan and vibrant global city Migration and Integration in Singapore Policies and Practice will appeal to students and scholars of Southeast Asian studies migration and social policy as well as to practitioners and policy makers with an interest in migration in the region

Discourses of Neoliberalism in Singapore's Higher Education Context Marissa K. L. E, 2022-11-30 E explores using textual words and visual image data from the corporate newsletters of two prominent Asian universities how particular discourses and their associated discursive representations of neoliberal logic and subjectivity occur in higher education In particular she looks at the expression of both institutional priorities and state imperatives that lend themselves to a complementarity built upon two contradictory perspectives individualism and communitarianism She argues that the ever increasing demand for and utility of higher education in neoliberal society means that it no longer functions merely to provide knowledge and skills but has implications for society the individual and the state with regard to their ways of thinking doing and being Contributing to a growing corpus of literature on how higher education around the world is being shaped by neoliberal policies E's research is based on work done in the city state of Singapore a less well represented context in current literature While both higher education institutions possess significantly different institutional identities and backgrounds the alignment of their varied representations of neoliberal logic and subjectivity with state sanctioned imperatives that indirectly impose demands and constraints shows how neoliberalism as ideology adapts to the socio political socio cultural and socio economic dimensions that make up the Singapore context The discursive representations of context dependent neoliberal logics and subjectivity are discussed in terms of their ideological implications focusing primarily on the complementarity between seemingly contradictory ideological positions. Es work uses an innovative framework that integrates aspects of Discourse Theory with Critical Discourse Analysis and demonstrates the use of this framework through empirical linguistic and image analysis. Appealing to academics and graduate students in linguistics especially those with an interest in critical multimodal discourse analysis audiences from the domains of higher education research critical geography sociology and political science will also find this a useful book.

Globalization and the Singapore Curriculum Zongyi Deng, S Gopinathan, Christine Kim-Eng Lee, 2013-11-27 This volume provides a multi faceted and critical analysis of the Singapore curriculum in relation to globalization. First it details reform initiatives established by the Singapore government to meet the challenges posed by globalization. Next Globalization and the Singapore Curriculum presents how these reforms have been translated into programs school subjects and operational frameworks and then examines in turn how well these have been implemented in schools and classrooms across the country. Through this examination the book reveals how the initiatives together with their curricular translation and classroom enactment reflect on the one hand global features and tendencies and on the other distinct national traditions concerns and practices. It brings to light a set of issues problems and challenges that not only concern policymakers educators and reformers in Singapore but also those in other countries as well. Written by curriculum scholars policy analysts researchers and teacher educators Globalization and the Singapore Curriculum offers an up to date reference for postgraduate students scholars and researchers in the areas of curriculum and instruction comparative education educational sociology educational policy and leadership in Singapore the Asia Pacific region and beyond. It also offers a vital contribution to the story of modern education around the globe providing international students scholars and researchers valuable insights into curriculum and curriculum reform for the 21st century.

Education in the Global City Aaron Koh, Terence Chong, 2017-10-02 Education in the Global City examines education in Singapore through the critical lens of manufacturing. The book brings together two disparate fields which inform each other education and the global city and the book's contributors analyse and critique the manufacturing of Singapore education and Singapore's global city formation. The collection covers vocational education language policies Higher Education English education critical thinking sex education creativity and critical feminist scholarship. Collectively the book pries open the ideology of the manufacturing education system and points out the tension between the nation and its ideologies and the global city aspirations. It also asks how education contributes to and is shaped by the market realities of Singapore's global city ambitions which are at odds with the nationalistic local agenda and priorities of nation building. In interrupting and speaking against the prevailing and narrow manufacturing of education for a teleological end in spite of Singapore's successful nation building this book is an important contribution to critical education scholarship. This book was originally published as a special issue of Discourse Studies in the Cultural Politics of Education.

Multilingual Singapore Ritu Jain, 2021-05-25 This volume brings together researchers whose analysis and insights provide a comprehensive and up to date account of Singapore's rich linguistic diversity. Applying a combination of descriptive empirical and theoretical approaches the authors investigate not only official languages such as English, Mandarin, Malay and Tamil but also minority languages such as the Chinese vernaculars and South Asian and Austronesian languages. The chapters in this volume trace the historical development, contemporary status and functions of these languages as well as potential scenarios for the future. Exploring the tension between language policies and linguistic realities in Singapore, the contributions in this volume capture the shifting educational, political and societal priorities of the community through its past and contemporary present.

Routledge Handbook of Islam in Southeast Asia Syed Muhammad Khairudin Aljunied, 2022-03-03. This handbook explores the ways in which Islam, as one of the fastest growing religions, has become a global faith for both Muslims and non-Muslims in Southeast Asia, with its universality, inclusivity and shared features with other Islamic expressions and manifestations. It offers an up to date, wide ranging, comprehensive, concise and readable introduction to the field of Islam in Southeast Asia. With specific themes of pertinent contemporary relevance, the contributions by experts in the field provide fresh insights into the roles of states, societies, scholars, social movements, political parties, economic institutions, sacred sites and other forces that structured the faith over many centuries. The handbook is structured in three parts: Muslim Global Circulations, Marginal Narratives, Refashioning Pieties. This handbook stands out as a single and synergistic reference work that explores the ebb and flow of Islam, seeking to decenter many existing assumptions about it in Southeast Asia. It will be an indispensable resource for scholars, students and policymakers working on Islam, Muslims and their interactions with other communities in a plural setting.

Asianism and the Politics of Regional Consciousness in Singapore Leong Yew, 2013-11-20. Over the last two decades, Singapore has undergone a substantial degree of Asianization. Apart from participating in the Asian values debate of the 1990s, re-visioning itself as New Asia and a global Asian hub and establishing Asian identities for the commodities it consumes and produces, Singapore has also repurposed its modernity, cultures and ethos along similar regionalist precepts. However, even in recent times, Singapore continues to vacillate ambivalently between identifying with and differentiating itself from Asia. Responding to the challenges Singapore faces in coming to terms with its Asian identity, this book examines the complex cultural, social and political underpinnings that have shaped Singapore's mainstream discourse on Asia. Indeed, it argues that its legacy as a colonial port city, the exigencies of managing the post-independence nation-state and the larger forces of imperialism and capitalism all contribute to its politics of Asianism. Taking a thoroughly interdisciplinary approach that spans history, cultural studies, postcolonialism and cultural geography, Leong Yew reveals how Asia has been used to narrate Singapore's beginnings, revalidate Singaporean ethnic culture and to consolidate its practices of consumption and commodification. This book will be welcomed by students and scholars working across a range of fields including Asian culture and society, Asian politics, cultural theory and postcolonial studies.

The Business of Politics and Ethnicity Sikko

Visscher, 2007 This book describes the Singapore Chinese Chamber of Commerce's changing relationship with the state and with businesses in the region. Some of the wealthiest and most influential businessmen in Singapore and Malaysia have served as leaders of the Chamber. Drawing on archival materials and extensive interviews, Visscher provides lively biographical sketches that highlight the circumstances and personal values that propelled these and other leading Chinese businessmen to success and to prominence. He also examines Chinese business practices considering cultural elements as well as state and market forces and highlights unique features of the Chinese experience in Singapore. By viewing Singapore from the perspective of a well-established non-governmental organisation as it struggled, negotiated and cooperated with the state, this book offers an alternative to conventional political histories.
