Politics Of Old Age In Europe:

The Politics of Old Age in Europe Alan Walker, Gerhard Naeyegele, 1999 This collection of essays by leading authorities examines the new politics of old age from the perspectives of individual countries and the European Union as a whole

The politics of old age Martha Doyle, 2015-02-01 The politics of old age in the twenty first century is contentious encompassing ideological debates about the rights and welfare entitlements of individuals in later life An important aspect is the manner in which older people and their representative groups are given the opportunity to articulate their interests in the policy making process Drawing upon key literature in political science social gerontology and cultural sociology The politics of old age explores the relationship between ageing politics and representation It reveals the complexity of older people s representation and how the power the organisations exercise their legitimacy and existence remain highly contingent on government policy design political opportunity structures and the prevailing cultural and socioeconomic milieu This book is essential reading for policymakers and organisations interested in ageing policy and the political process and for students of ageing social policy and political sociology Politics and Old Age: Older Citizens and Political Processes in Britain John A. Vincent, Guy Patterson, Karen Wale, 2024-11-01 This title was first published in 2001 Older people have been characterized by two mutually contradictory stereotypes One the one hand they have been portrayed as a powerful lobby growing demographically and able to demand large redistributions of the nation s income in their direction On the other hand they have been typified as a marginalized group at high risk of poverty and exclusion and in a political context largely powerless This book examines using original research conducted by the Older People and Politics Project OPPOL within Exeter University s Sociology Department the reality of the impact of the increasing number of older people on the British political process The project had three main investigative concerns how effective are pressure groups and lobbyists for older people how is the power and influence of older people perceived by older people themselves and the general public and how are politicians responding to older people and their needs The Political Participation of Older People in Europe A.

Goerres, 2009-03-26 The first comparative analysis of the political behaviour of older people using evidence from 20 European democracies In contrast to younger people across European societies older people do not behave uniformly For political participation in later life it matters where and when individuals have grown up and in which country they become old

The New Politics of Old Age Policy Robert B. Hudson, 2014-09-22 A comprehensive overview of current aging policies As the average age of the U S population continues to increase age related policies have come under intense scrutiny sparking heated debates In the past older people were seen as a frail dependent population but major policies enacted or expanded on their behalf have made them major players in electoral and interest group politics This thoroughly revised and updated edition of Robert B Hudson s The New Politics of Old Age Policy not only explains the politics behind the country s age based programs and describes how those programs work but also assesses how well or poorly they meet the growing and changing needs of older Americans Essays by leading experts in political science sociology law social work and gerontology address among other things theoretical approaches to age based policy population dynamics and the impact of growing diversity within the older population and national state and local issues associated with major age based programs More than any other source this book presents the most current information on growing older in the United States including in depth analyses of Social Security Medicare Medicaid housing initiatives the Older Americans Act the Age Discrimination in Employment Act and tax policy Detailed new chapters focus on financial security and retirement in the context of the Great Recession diversity and inequality in aging populations and implications of the Affordable Care Act Scholars students and policymakers will appreciate the volume s timely overview of the evolution of aging policy The Oxford Handbook of British Politics Matthew Flinders,2009-07-16 The Oxford Handbook of British Politics provides the most sophisticated and up to date analysis of British politics to date Essential for all those working in the area New Dynamics in Old Age Hans-Werner Wahl,Clemens Tesch-Romer,Dr. Andreas Hoff,Jon Hendricks,2017-07-05 Based on the hypothesis that the new dynamics of old age is best observed in a range of everyday aging contexts that have been undergoing major change since the second half of the 20th century This book is aimed at scholarly community of gerontology in a variety of disciplines sociology psychology demography epidemiology and others Handbook of Aging and the Social Sciences Robert H. Binstock,Linda K. George,Stephen J. Cutler,Jon Hendricks,James H. Schulz,2011-05-05 The Handbook of Aging and the Social Sciences Sixth Edition provides a comprehensive summary and evaluation of recent research on the social aspects of aging The 25 chapters are divided into four sections discussing Aging and Time Aging and Social Structure Social Factors and Social Institutions and Aging and Society Within this context aging is examined from the perspectives of many disciplines and professions including anthropology bioethics demography economics epidemiology law political science psychology and sociology The Sixth Edition of the Handbook is virtually 100% new material Seventeen chapters are on subjects not carried in the previous edition Seven topics were carried over from the previous edition but written by new authors with fresh perspectives and brought up to date Some of the exciting new topics include social relationships in late life technological change and aging religion and aging lifestyle and aging perceived quality of life economic security in retirement and aging and the law There is also a greater emphasis on international perspectives particularly in chapters on aging and politics diversity and aging and immigration The Handbook will be of use to researchers and professional practitioners working with the aged It is also suitable for use as a course text for graduate and advanced undergraduate courses on aging and the social sciences Social Theory, Social Policy And Ageing: A Critical Introduction Biggs, Simon,Estes, Carroll,Phillipson, Chris,2003-11-01 This work covers theoretical developments and issues influencing the study of adult ageing It explores contemporary trends in social policy drawing on the experience of ageing in the USA Europe and an increasingly global environment Feminist perspectives on ageing are also covered The Encyclopedia of Aging Linda S. Handbook of Theories of Aging, Second Edition Merrill Silverstein PhD, Vern L. Bengtson PhD, Norella Putney PhD, Daphna Gans PhD, 2008-10-27 The field of gerontology has often been criticized for being data rich but theory poor The editors of this book address this issue by stressing the importance of theory in gerontology While the previous edition focused on multidisciplinary approaches to aging theory this new edition provides cross disciplinary integrative explanations of aging theory The contributors of this text have reached beyond traditional disciplinary boundaries to partner with researchers in adjacent fields in studying aging and age related phenomena This edition of the Handbook consists of 39 chapters written by 67 internationally recognized experts in the field of aging It is organized in seven sections reflecting the major theoretical developments in gerontology over the past 10 years Special Features Comprehensive coverage of aging theory focusing on the biological psychological and social aspects of aging A section dedicated to discussing how aging theory informs public policy A concluding chapter summarizing the major themes of aging and offering predictions about the future of theory development Required reading for graduate students and post doctoral fellows this textbook represents the current status of theoretical development in the study of aging

Comparative Politics: Western Europe and the United States: foundations of comparative politics, 2005 The Handbook of West European Pension Politics Ellen, M.

Immergut, Karen, M. Anderson, Isabelle Schulze, 2007-01-04 Comparative analysis of pension systems in the EU 15 countries and Switzerland Gives an overview of the political institutions and party systems and traces the proposed and enacted pension reforms since the 1980s Age-Friendly Cities and Communities in International Comparison Thibault

Moulaert, Suzanne Garon, 2015-12-01 The supportive role of urban spaces in active aging is explored on a world scale in this unique resource using the WHO's Age Friendly Cities and Community model Case studies from the U S Canada Australia Hong Kong and elsewhere demonstrate how the model translates to fit diverse social political and economic realities across cultures and continents ways age friendly programs promote senior empowerment and how their value can be effectively assessed Age friendly criteria for communities are defined and critiqued while extensive empirical data describe challenges as they affect elders globally and how environmental support can help meet them These chapters offer age friendly cities as a corrective to the overemphasis on the medical aspects of elders lives and should inspire new research practice and public policy Included in the coverage A critical review of the WHO Age Friendly Cities Methodology and its implementation Seniors perspectives on age friendly communities The implementation of age friendly cities in three districts of Argentina Age friendly New York City a case study Toward an age friendly European Union Age friendliness childhood and dementia toward generationally intelligent environments With its balance of attention to universal and culture specific concerns Age Friendly Cities and Communities in International Comparison will be of particular interest to sociologists gerontologists and policymakers Given the rapid adoption of the age friendly perspective following its development by the World Health Organization the critical assessment offered in this volume is especially welcome Professor Chris Phillipson University of Manchester Aging, Globalization and Inequality Jan Baars,Dale Dannefer,Chris Phillipson,Alan Walker,2016-11-03

This book is a major reassessment of work in the field of critical gerontology providing a comprehensive survey of issues by a team of contributors drawn from Europe and North America The book focuses on the variety of ways in which age and ageing are socially constructed and the extent to which growing old is being transformed through processes associated with globalisation The collection offers a range of alternative views and visions about the nature of social ageing making a major contribution to theory building within the discipline of gerontology The different sections of the book give an overview of the key issues and concerns underlying the development of critical gerontology These include first the impact of globalisation and of multinational organizations and agencies on the lives of older people second the factors contributing to the social construction of later life and third issues associated with diversity and inequality in old age arising through the effects of cumulative advantage and disadvantage over the life course These different themes are analysed using a variety of theoretical perspectives drawn from sociology social policy political science and social anthropology Aging Globalization and Inequality brings together key contributors to critical perspectives on aging and is unique in the range of themes and concerns covered in a single volume The study moves forward an important area of debate in studies of aging and thus provides the basis for a new type of critical gerontology relevant to the twenty first century Active Ageing in Asia Alan Walker,Christian Aspalter,2014-12-17 East Asian societies are changing rapidly and one of the most important facets of this transformation is population the ageing of society Active ageing is one of the few concepts available today to effectively address the problems arising from a highly aged and particularly in East Asia fast ageing society offering a new social policy paradigm to redirect and innovate new social policies particularly social services social transfers social regulations and laws towards more investment in and support of the fast rising number of olderelderly citizens This book focuses on the experiences of East Asian societies where active ageing has been implemented It presents a thorough analysis of the concept of active ageing and its potential and problems of implementations in different stages of development in East Asia whilst providing theoretical clarity to and broadening the concept of active ageing Further the country focused case studies explore how to design pursue measure and evaluate social policies highlight the problems related to the implementation of the concept of active ageing in social policy and outline the practical implications of active ageing theory forin policy making Active Ageing in Asia will appeal to students and scholars of social and public policy social work gerontology and health and social administration as well as to policy makers working in the field
