Politics Of Writing Centers:

The Politics of Writing Centers Jane V. Nelson, Kathy Evertz, 2001 This book explores the terrain of power in which writing centers are located

Radical Writing Center Praxis Laura Greenfield, 2019-04-15 In Radical Writing Center Praxis Laura Greenfield calls for a paradigm change in writing centers imagining a field whose very reason for being is to facilitate justice and peace The book calls on readers to more critically examine power and agency in writing centers and to imagine new possibilities for the field's theories and practices Large intersecting systems of oppression manifest in the everyday practices of institutions classrooms and writing centers Local practices in turn influence the surrounding world Radical Writing Center Praxis therefore challenges the writing center field to resist assumptions of political neutrality and instead to redefine itself in terms of more explicit ethical commitments In this paradigm it is clear that to engage in anti oppression work is not merely a special interest but rather a vital interest to all Introducing the concepts and vocabulary of radical politics Radical Writing Center Praxis examines the tensions between the field's professed beliefs and everyday practices and offers a process by which the writing center discipline as a whole might rebuild itself anew It will be invaluable to writing center directors tutors scholars and students as well as to administrators and compositionists

Writing Centers and the New Racism Laura Greenfield, Karen Rowan, 2011-12-16 Noting a lack of sustained and productive dialogue about race in university writing center scholarship the editors of this volume have created a rich resource for writing center tutors administrators and scholars Motivated by a scholarly interest in race and whiteness studies and by an ethical commitment to anti racism work contributors address a series of related questions How does institutionalized racism in American education shape the culture of literacy and language education in the writing center How does racism operate in the discourses of writing center scholarship lore and how may writing centers be unwittingly complicit in racist practices How can they meaningfully operationalize anti racist work How do they persevere through the difficulty and messiness of negotiating race and racism in their daily practice The conscientious nuanced attention to race in this volume is meant to model what it means to be bold in engagement with these hard questions and to spur the kind of sustained productive multi vocal and challenging dialogue that with a few significant exceptions has been absent from the field

The Writing Center Director's Resource Book Christina Murphy, Byron Stay, 2012-11-12 The Writing Center Director's Resource Book has been developed to serve as a guide to writing center professionals in carrying out their various roles duties and responsibilities It is a resource for those whose jobs not only encompass a wide range of tasks but also require a broad knowledge of multiple issues The volume provides information on the most significant areas of writing center work that writing center professionals both new and seasoned are likely to encounter It is structured for use in diverse institutional settings providing both current knowledge as well as case studies of specific settings that represent the types of challenges and possible outcomes writing center professionals may experience This blend of theory with actual practice provides a multi dimensional view of writing center work In the end this book serves not only as a resource but also as a guide to future directions for the writing center which will continue to evolve in response to a myriad of new challenges that will lie ahead A Guide to Creating Student-staffed Writing Centers, Grades 6-12 Richard Kent, 2006 Writing centers are places where writers work with each other in an effort to develop ideas discover a thesis overcome procrastination create an outline or revise a draft Ultimately writing centers help students become more effective writers Visit any college or university in the United States and chances are there is a writing center available to students staff and community members A Guide to Creating Student Staffed Writing Centers Grades 6 12 is a how to and ultimately a why to book for middle school and high school educators as well as for English language arts teacher candidates and their methods instructors Writing centers support students and their busy teachers while emphasizing and supporting writing across the curriculum

Writing Centers and Learning Commons Steven J. Corbett, Teagan E. Decker, Maria L. Soriano Young, 2023-04-01 Writing Centers and Learning Commons presents program administrators directors staff and tutors with theoretical rationales experiential journeys and go to practical designs and strategies for the many questions involved when writing centers find themselves operating in shared environments The chapters comprehensively examine the ways writing centers make the most of sharing common ground Directors coordinators administrators and stakeholders draw on past and present attention to writing center studies to help shape the future of the learning commons and narrate their substantial collective experience with collaborative efforts to stay centered while empowering colleagues and student writers at their institutions The contributors explore what is gained and lost by affiliating writing centers with learning commons how to create sound pedagogical foundations that include writing center philosophies how writing center practices evolved or have been altered by learning center affiliations and more Writing Centers and Learning Commons is for all stakeholders of writing in and across campuses collaborating on by choice or edict or wishing to explore the possibilities of a learning commons enterprise Contributors Alice Batt Cassandra Book Charles A Braman Elizabeth Busekrus Blackmon Virginia Crank Celeste Del Russo Patricia Egbert Christopher Giroux Alexis Hart Suzanne Julian Kristen Miller Robby Nadler Michele Ostrow Helen Raica Klotz Kathleen Richards Robyn Rohde Nathalie Singh Corcoran David Stock undergraduate and graduate students in composition and education as well as writing center staff and directors The Writing Program Administrator's Resource Stuart C. Brown, Theresa Jarnagi Enos, 2005-04-11 This handbook offers wisdom and guidance from experienced college writing program administrators It is intended for WPAs at all levels of experience Writing Centers at the Center of Change Joe Essid, Brian McTague, 2019-09-09 Writing Centers at the Center of Change looks at how eleven centers internationally adapted to change at their institutions during a decade when their very success has become a valued commodity in a larger struggle for resources on many campuses Bringing together both US and international perspectives this volume offers solutions for adapting to change in the world of writing centers ranging from the logistical to the pedagogical and even to the existential Each author discusses the origins appropriate responses and partners to seek when change comes from within a school or outside it Chapters document new programs being formed under changing circumstances and suggest ways to navigate professional or pedagogical changes that may undermine the hard work of more than four decades of writing center professionals The book's audience includes writing center and learning commons administrators university librarians deans department chairs affiliated with writing centers It will also be useful for graduate students in composition rhetoric and academic writing Out in the Center Harry C. Denny, Robert Mundy, Liliana M. Naydan, Richard Sévère, Anna Sicari, 2019-03-01 Out in the Center explores the personal struggles of tutors faculty and administrators in writing center communities as they negotiate the interplay between public controversies and features of their own intersectional identities These essays address how race ethnicity gender sexuality class faith multilingualism and learning differences along with their intersections challenge those who inhabit writing centers and engage in their conversations A diverse group of contributors interweaves personal experience with writing center theory and critical race theory as well as theories on the politics and performance of identity In doing so Out in the Center extends upon the writing center corpus to disrupt and reimagine conventional approaches to writing center theory and practice Out in the Center proposes that practitioners benefit from engaging in dialogue about identity to better navigate writing center work work that informs the local and carries forth a social and cultural impact that stretches well beyond academic institutions Contributors Allia Abdullah Matta Nancy Alvarez Hadi Banat Tammy S Conard Salvo Michele Eodice Rochell Isaac Sami Korgan Ella Leviyeva Alexandria Lockett Talisha Haltiwanger Morrison Anna Rita Napoleone Beth A Towle Elizabeth Weaver Tim Zmudka Landmark Essays on Writing Centers Christina Murphy, Joe Law, 2013-10-18 This collection introduces the reader to the ideas that have shaped writing center theory and practice The essays have been selected not only for the insight they offer into issues but also for their contributions to writing center scholarship These papers help to chart the legitimization of writing centers by providing both a history and an examination of the philosophies praxis and politics that have defined this emerging field They demonstrate the ways a clearer profile of the discipline has emerged from the research and reflection of writers like those represented here This volume charts the emergence of writing centers and the growing recognition of their contributions roles and importance As a nascent discipline writing centers reflect the concerns with marginality and with finding a respected place in the academy that characterize any new field of academic inquiry practice and research Concomitantly professionals in these fields seek standing within the academy and a way of defining and validating their contributions to the educational process Contemporary writing center theorists look to interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary investigations to interpret the work they do and to clarify their aims to the academy at large Their work employs a variety of philosophical perspectives ranging from sociolinguistics to psychoanalytic theory to show the complex nature and potential of writing center interactions The idea has now become the multidimensional realities of the writing center within the academy and within society as a whole What its role will be in future redefinitions of the educational process how that role will be negotiated and evaluated and how professionals will shape educational values will constitute the future landmark directions and essays on writing center theory and practice

CounterStories from the Writing Center Frankie Condon, Wonderful Faison, 2022-04-15 CounterStories from the Writing Center gathers emerging scholars of colour and their white accomplices to challenge some of the most cherished lore about the work of writing centres Writing within an intersectional feminist frame this volume s contributors name and critique the dominant role that white straight cis gendered women have played in writing centre administration as well as in the field of writing centre studies This work will shake the field s core assumptions about itself Practicing what Derrick Bell has termed creative truth telling these writers are not concerned with individual white women in writing centres but with the social political and cultural capital that is the historical birthright of white straight cis gendered women particularly in writing centre studies The essays collected in this volume test defy and overflow the bounds of traditional academic discourse in the service of powerful testimony witness and counterstory CounterStories from the Writing Center is a must read for writing centre directors scholars and tutors who are committed to antiracist pedagogy and offers a robust intersectional analysis to those who seek to understand the relationship between the work of writing centres and the problem of racism Accessible and usable for both graduate and undergraduate students of writing centre theory and practice this work troubles the field s commonplaces and offers a rich envisioning of what writing centres materially committed to inclusion and equity might be and do Contributors Dianna Baldwin Nicole Caswell Mitzi Ceballos Romeo Garcia Neisha Anne Green Doug Kern T Haltiwanger Morrison Bernice Olivas Moira Ozias Trixie Smith Willow Trevino The Writing Center as Cultural and Interdisciplinary Contact Zone Randall W. Monty, 2016-05-05 Writing centers are complex They are places of scholarly work spaces of interdisciplinary interaction and programs of service among other things With this complexity in mind this book theorizes writing center studies as a function of its own rhetorical and discursive practices In other words the things we do and make define who we are and what we value Through a comprehensive methodological framework grounded in critical discourse analysis this book takes a closer look at prominent writing center discourses by temporarily shifting attention away from the stakeholders work locations and scholarship of the discipline and onto things the artifacts and networks that make up the discipline Through this approach we can see the ways the discipline reinforces challenges reproduces and subverts structures of institutional power As a result writing center studies can be seen a vast ecosystem of interconnectivity and intertextuality
