Bradley,2016-07-12 The Pony Express was the first rapid transit and the first fast mail line across the continent from the Missouri River to the Pacific Coast It was a system by means of which messages were carried swiftly on horseback across the plains and deserts and over the mountains of the far West It brought the Atlantic coast and the Pacific slope ten days nearer to each other It had a brief existence of only sixteen months and was supplanted by the transcontinental telegraph Yet it was of the greatest importance in binding the East and West together at a time when overland travel was slow and cumbersome and when a great national crisis made the rapid communication of news between these sections an imperative necessity
