Regulating Tobacco, Alcohol and Unhealthy Foods Tania Voon, Andrew Mitchell, Jonathan Liberman, 2014-07-25 The need to reduce disability and premature deaths from non communicable diseases NCDs is increasingly engaging international organisations and national and sub national governments In this book experts from a range of backgrounds provide insights into the legal implications of regulating tobacco alcohol and unhealthy foods all of which are risk factors for NCDs As individual countries and the international community move to increase targeting of these risk factors affected industries are turning to national and international law to challenge the resulting regulations This book explores how the effective regulation of tobacco alcohol and unhealthy foods can be achieved within the context of international health law international trade and investment law international human rights law international intellectual property law and domestic laws on constitutional and other matters Its contributors consider the various tensions that arise in regulating NCD risk factors as well as offering an original analysis of the relationship between evidence and health regulation Covering a range of geographical areas including the Americas the European Union Africa and Oceania the book offers lessons for health and policy practitioners and scholars in navigating the complex legal fields in which the regulation of tobacco alcohol and unhealthy foods takes place

FDA Tobacco Regulation C. Stephen Redhead, 2009-11 The 111th Congress is considering legislation that would give the FDA broad new statutory authority to regulate the manufacture and marketing of cigarettes and smokeless tobacco products This report provides a detailed summary of the proposed legislation and discusses the public health and legal issues it raises Contents 1 Views on FDA Tobacco Regulation Public Health Viewpoint Industry Viewpoint 2 Proposed Tobacco Product Regulation Reduced Risk Tobacco Products Tobacco Product Design and Characteristics Menthol Cigarettes 3 Legal Issues Restrictions on Ads and Promotion First Amend Issues Preemption of State and Local Regulation Re Labeling Ads and Promotion 4 Tobacco Master Settlement Agreement

FDA Regulation of Tobacco Products Victoria C. Lockwood, 2009 Last year lawmakers reintroduced bipartisan bicameral legislation H R 1108 S 625 to give the Food and Drug Administration FDA broad new authority to regulate the manufacture distribution advertising promotion sale and use of cigarettes and smokeless tobacco products Amended versions of both bills have been reported out of committee and await floor action in their respective chambers The Secretary of Health and Human Services has stated in a July 21 2008 letter that the Bush Administration would strongly oppose this legislation The Family Smoking Prevention and Tobacco Control Act was first introduced in the 108th Congress the product of lengthy negotiations in which lawmakers sought to balance the competing interests of public health groups and Philip Morris the nation's leading cigarette company While these organisations support the legislation the FDA Commissioner other tobacco manufacturers and tobacco industry and convenience store associations have expressed concerns about the bills which would create a new Chapter IX in the Federal Food Drug and Cosmetic Act FFDCa solely for the regulation of tobacco products Among their many provisions the measures would authorise FDA to restrict tobacco advertising and promotions especially to children develop standards that require changes in tobacco product composition and design such as the reduction or elimination of toxic chemicals and require manufacturers to obtain agency approval in order to make reduced risk and reduced exposure claims for their products In the mid 1990s FDA claimed authority under the FFDCa to regulate cigarettes and smokeless tobacco products as delivery devices for nicotine an addictive drug The agency's 1996 tobacco regulation was invalidated by the U S Supreme Court in March 2000 The Court concluded that Congress had clearly intended to preclude FDA from regulating tobacco products It found that because the FFDCa prohibits the marketing of products that have not been found to be safe and effective the statute would have required FDA to ban such manifestly harmful products as cigarettes and smokeless tobacco if the agency had jurisdiction over them Such a ban argued the Court would plainly contradict congressional intent The Supreme Court's decision made it clear the Congress would have to enact legislation giving FDA statutory authority over tobacco products in order for the agency to assert jurisdiction Lawmakers first drafted such language in the 105th Congress as part of legislation to implement the 1997 proposed national tobacco settlement The Need for FDA Regulation of Tobacco United States Congress. Regulation and Public Interests Steven P. Croley, 2009-01-10 Not since the 1960s have U S politicians Republican or Democrat campaigned on platforms defending big government much less the use of regulation to help solve social ills And since the late 1970s deregulation has become perhaps the most ubiquitous political catchword of all This book takes on the critics of government regulation Providing the first major alternative to conventional arguments grounded in public choice theory it demonstrates that regulatory government can and on important occasions does advance general interests Unlike previous accounts Regulation and Public Interests takes agencies decision making rules rather than legislative incentives as a central determinant of regulatory outcomes Drawing from both political science and law Steven Croley argues that such rules together with agencies larger decision making environments enhance agency autonomy Agency personnel inclined to undertake regulatory initiatives that generate large but diffuse benefits while imposing smaller but more concentrated costs can use decision making rules to develop socially beneficial regulations even over the objections of Congress and influential interest groups This book thus provides a qualified defense of regulatory government Its illustrative case studies include the development of tobacco rulemaking by the Food and Drug Administration ozone and particulate matter rules by the Environmental Protection Agency the Forest Service s roadless policy for national forests and regulatory initiatives by the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Federal Trade Commission
