Ed Komoszewski, M. James Sawyer, Daniel B. Wallace, Reinventing Jesus cuts through the rhetoric of extreme doubt to reveal the profound credibility of historic Christianity Meticulously researched yet eminently readable this book invites a wide audience to take a firsthand look at the primary evidence for Christianity s origins Reinventing American Protestantism Donald E. Miller, 2023-04-28 During the past thirty years the American religious landscape has undergone a dramatic change More and more churches meet in converted warehouses many have ministers who ve never attended a seminary and congregations are singing songs whose melodies might be heard in bars or nightclubs Donald E Miller s provocative examination of these new paradigm churches sometimes called megachurches or postdenominational churches shows how they are reinventing

the way Christianity is experienced in the United States today Drawing on over five years of research and hundreds of interviews Miller explores three of the movements that have created new paradigm churches Calvary Chapel Vineyard Christian Fellowship and Hope Chapel Together these groups have over one thousand congregations and are growing rapidly attracting large numbers of worshipers who have felt alienated from institutional religion While attempting to reconnect with first century Christianity these churches meet in nonreligious structures and use the medium of contemporary twentieth century America to spread their message through contemporary forms of worship Christian rock music and a variety of support and interest groups In the first book to examine postdenominational churches in depth Miller argues that these churches are involved in a second Reformation one that challenges the bureaucracy and rigidity of mainstream Christianity The religion of the new millennium says Miller will connect people to the sacred by reinventing traditional worship and redefining the institutional forms associated with denominational Christian churches Nothing less than a transformation of religion in the United States may be taking place and Miller convincingly demonstrates how postmodern traditionalists are at the forefront of this change This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1997 During the past thirty years the American religious landscape has undergone a dramatic change More and more churches meet in converted warehouses many have ministers who ve never attended a seminary and congregations are singing songs whose melodies mi

Christianity, Patriotism, and Nationhood Julia Stapleton, 2009-01-01 This study links the concepts of patriotism Christianity and English national identity in the journalistic writings of G K Chesterton It is the first work on Chesterton to explore in full the English attachments that were central to his political and spiritual persona and their roots in a wider movement of English national consciousness in the early twentieth century

An Introduction to Theology in Africa and the Kpelelogical Foundations of Christian Theology Charles Amarkwei, 2021-10-12 In this book African Christian theology is introduced as a Kpelelogical reflection about life in the context of Africa which exists in the context of the cosmos Kpelelogy is the ontological mode of being grasped by the agape of God in Christ by grace through faith in the power of the Holy Spirit By this mode African theology is introduced by way of a definition a principle of paradox and a description as well as a critical view of the works of African theologians It examines the issues of method criteria and sources of doing theology in Africa and introduces the method of Kpelelogy as an African theological method This is explored further as a holistic theological method that is conscious of its being in existence and its life in history that is driven by faith in the triune God in a pneumatic experience that has been termed in this book as the Kpelelogical ontological mode The book is ecumenical in view of its engagement with Christian tradition It presents a Kpelelogical theology that is concretely African and universally Christian in the Okpelejen Wulormor the cosmic Jesus Christ who is and was but beyond the munus triplex Priest King and Prophet threefold office of Jesus Christ that is to come Hence it is a theology which embraces elements of Reformed Lutheran Methodist Pentecostal Charismatic Roman Catholic and Eastern Orthodox theological insights in the African context Great Reset Christianity Andrew N. Woodard,2023-06-27 This is what God requires of you do justice love your neighbor submit to the government These Biblical texts and many others have become widely used by the modern social justice movement to advance a woke political agenda Words have been redefined by evangelical leaders in the broader movement known as Big Eva in order to advance a global political conspiracy known as The Great Reset This book addresses the connection between woke evangelicalism and the World Economic Forum s Great Reset while explaining several of the passages of Scripture that have been redefined to support this conspiracy

Christianity as a World Religion Sebastian Kim,Kirsteen Kim,2016-11-03 Now in its second edition Christianity as a World Religion locates Christianity within its global context Structured by geographical region it covers Asia Africa Europe Latin America and the Caribbean North America and Oceania It deals with four dimensions of Christianity in each context Christian history churches and society interreligious relations and distinctive worship and theology Study questions and further reading suggestions are provided in each chapter Fully updated throughout this second edition now includes A new chapter covering Christianity in Oceania Further analysis of the early growth of Christianity in Asia and Africa Coverage of research trends in migration theologies of prosperity and the role of local agents in evangelization Coverage of global interconnections and networks new movements global Catholicism Christian political engagement and persecution of Christian communities A thorough revision of the conclusion including reflection on the discipline of world Christianity and its implications for theology 40 images and maps Chapter summaries Extra resources online including a timeline and weblinks New text design and layout making the text more student friendly and accessible Christianity as a World Religion is ideal for courses on World Christianity Christianity as a Global Religion the History of Christianity and contemporary Christian theology Re-enchanting Christianity Dave Tomlinson,2013-02-12 Dave Tomlinson is author of The Post Evangelical a seminal book which acknowledged the disenchantment with simplistic approaches to faith experienced by many evangelicals Many locked into interpretations of Christianity that they can no longer accept have given up on the Church altogether But is re enchantment possible in our post modern post Christian age Re enchantment is not a return to credulity or an attempt to recapture lost innocence but it is finding a realistic faith that reconciles heart and head that offers a positive engaging spirituality that is unafraid of grappling honestly with difficult questions Christianity and Empire Revisited ,2025-09-25 Were missionaries simply religious agents of imperialism If you have ever asked or been asked this question then this book is for you Bringing together historians literary specialists and mission scholars it explores the complexities of the subject highlighting its many nuances Figures like Henry Havelock deeply involved in Britain s suppression of the 1857 Indian Rebellion were undoubtedly tied to imperial power Yet missionaries and their supporters were also the moral absolutists of their time sincerely if at times naively committed to ideas of human liberation At the same time Christianity's commitment to translation played a role in preserving indigenous languages and literary traditions adding another layer to this thought provoking discussion Contributors are Brian Stanley Alec Ryrie Michael Snape Nicholas J Wood Ashish Alexander Julian Thompson Emily Burgoyne Kyama Mugambi Kirsteen Kim and Kang San Tan Christianity and the Culture of Relativism in the Anthropologies of Joseph Ratzinger and Stanley Hauerwas Charles Ssenyondo STL

STD,2012-12-17 Joseph Ratzinger rates relativism as the greatest challenge of the Church today What he describes is not a new phenomenon but his theology highlights its origins and magnitude Stanley Hauerwas fights the same battle on the Protestant side This book attempts to discover and streamline their deliberations showing their meeting points and where they differ and remedies they offer to combat the crisis It seeks to argue out the best response to relativism that can most appropriately benefit both Western and African Christendom Despite being a Western phenomenon relativism is no longer an exclusively Western problem It is rather imposing itself as the new world culture depicting all other cultures and perspectives as inferior Ratzinger christened this the Dictatorship of Relativism while Hauerwas calls it Policing of Christian Values While Ratzingers greatest worry is relativisms denial of Truth mostly from outside the ekklesia for Hauerwas relativism is not a force from without of the Church but part and parcel of the peoples modern ways of life in which Christian values are persecuted in the name of peaceful existence Both perspectives point at a crisis of cultures where the past is rejected and the future disconnected from the present which trend inevitably leads to disintegration a leap into the dark While the pre Modern world sought God the Modern world sought knowledge The contemporary world seeks relativism But all is not lost The truth can still be found through the word of God and Christian culture Christian Pilgrimage,

Landscape and Heritage Avril Maddrell,Veronica della Dora,Alessandro Scafi,Heather Walton,2014-12-05 This volume provides a theoretically and empirically grounded study of the significance of landscape in the experience of Christian pilgrimage across different denominations and its intersection with cultural heritage and tourism The book focuses on pilgrimages to Meteora Greece Subiaco Italy and the Isle of Man These are each sites of scenic beauty that boast a rich heritage associated respectively to Greek Orthodox Roman Catholic and Ecumenical Protestant denominations The study discusses different Christian theologies practices and perspectives on the nature and the purpose of pilgrimage in these traditions It draws on participant experiential accounts archival research and interviews with clergy laity and local stakeholders Special attention is paid to the themes of sacred space and practice aesthetics mobilities embodiment and performance emotional geographies theology cultural heritage consumption and commodification and the pilgrim tourist continuum Kwame Bediako and African Christian Scholarship Sara J. Fretheim,2018-04-17 In a departure from current theologically focused scholarship on Ghanaian theologian Kwame Bediako this book places him within the wider historical continuum of twentieth century Ghana and reads him as a leading Christian scholar within the African study of

African religions The book traces a variety of influences and figures within this emerging African discourse in Ghana including aspects of missions and colonial history and the voices of poets politicians prophets and priests Locating Bediako within this complex twentieth century matrix this intellectual history draws upon his published and key unpublished works including his first masters and doctoral dissertations on Ngrit literature an abiding influence on his later Christian thought and an essential foundation for interpreting this scholar This book also reads the Akrofi Christaller Institute of Theology Mission and Culture as text by Bediako revealing essential components of his intellectual and spiritual itinerary revealed in the Institute's community and curriculum This approach challenges narrowly focused theological scholarship on Bediako while highlighting critical methodological divisions between African Western confessional and non confessional approaches to the study of religion in Africa In doing so it highlights the rich complexity of this emerging African discourse and identifies Bediako as a pioneering African Christian intellectual within this wider field The Doctrine of God Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen, 2004-08 A global survey of interpretations of God in Scripture Christian history and contemporary theology with a focus on key God talk issues of the day Conflict and the Practice of the Christian Faith Bruce N Kaye, 2011-07-28 Anglicans around the world have responded to the gospel in many different cultural contexts This has produced different customs and different ways of thinking about church issues In the process of enculturation Anglicans have found themselves encountering social and political realities as malign forces against which they have had to struggle As a consequence the personal and local dynamic in Anglicanism has created not just diversity of custom and mental habits but it has done so at points that have been vital to the way Anglicans have been committed to the gospel Conflict and the Practice of Christian Faith looks at the process by which local traditions developed in Christianity and how these traditions have related to other sub traditions of the universal church It assesses some specifics of the Anglican experience and argues for a significant re casting of some prominent elements of that tradition at the same time clarifying some of the distinctive elements in the Anglican tradition This leads to a more nuanced appreciation of the force of the social and political framework within which Anglicans have had to work out their salvation and of the different forms of secular society and different understandings of plurality and diversity It also entails showing how the imperial route to catholicity took no firm root in Anglicanism Going global has been a significant experiment in Anglican ecclesiology that is by no means over yet The terms of that experiment lie at the heart of the current Anglican debates The book will be of interest to Christians generally who belong to faith traditions spread across different cultures It is also a case study of the issues of global reach and local tradition Critical Readings in the History of Christian Mission Martha Frederiks, Dorottya Nagy, 2021-06-22 This selection of texts introduces students and researchers to the multi and interdisciplinary field of mission history It apprises them with current discussions insights and theories The four parts of this book acquaint the readers with methodological considerations and recurring themes in the academic study of the history of mission Part one revolves around methods part two documents approaches

while parts three and four consist of thematic clusters such as mission and language medical mission mission and education women and mission mission and politics and mission and art The text selection represents a wide variety of disciplines authors and backgrounds The texts were chosen because they address the complexities involved in studying the history of Christian mission Critical Readings in the History of Christian Mission is suitable for course work and other educational purposes

Christian Spirituality Gordon Mursell, 2020-02-21 There is a growing interest today in the context and history of Christian spirituality In this book a team of expert authors from the East and West present a full and fascinating picture of humanity's desire for the divine across the centuries Highlighting the contribution of significant figures through history authors explore the ways in which Christians from the earliest times onwards have sought to express and live out the deepest truth of their faith The Bible and the life of Jesus Christ are the starting point for the story The reader is then guided through the development of spirituality starting an exploration of the significance of the early church fathers and culminating in a survey of the explosion of expressions of Christian divinity across the world in the twentieth century Interspersed with boxed features that provide more detail on key individuals and groups and timelines that put events into their chronological contexts Christian Spirituality is an ideal overview for scholars and interested readers alike

Jesus Christ as Ancestor Reuben Turbi Luka, 2019-08-31 In this critical study Dr Turbi Luka uses historical theological methodology to engage in detail with Christologies of key African theologians and conventional theological sources for Christology including the church fathers Tertullian and Athanasius as well as modern theologians Turbi argues that existing African Christologies specifically ancestor Christologies are inadequate in expressing the person of Christ as Messiah and saviour the fulfilment of Old Testament prophecies Providing a new approach Turbi proposes an African Linguistic Affinity Christology that explicitly portrays Jesus as Christ in a contextually relevant way for Africans in everyday life This crucial study highlights the need for biblically rooted Christology and for sound theological understanding and naming of Jesus at every level This book also warns the church in Africa and elsewhere to avoid repeating the dangerous christological heresies of the ancient church by remaining faithful to a biblical interpretation and orthodox theology of Christ

The Story of Christian Spirituality Gordon Mursell, 2001 Beautifully illustrated throughout The Story of Christian Spirituality is a readable and vivid guide to the spiritual riches of one of the world's most influential religions
