presenting a holistic approach to restoring post industrial cities Developed from the influential 2013 Remaking Cities Congress conference chair Donald K Carter brings together ten in depth case studies of cities across North America and Europe documenting their recovery from 1985 to 2015 Each chapter discusses the history of the city its transformation and prospects for the future The cases cross cut these themes with issues crucial to the resilience of post industrial cities including sustainability doing more with less public engagement and equity social economic and environmental the most important issue cities face today and for the foreseeable future This book provides essential lessons learned from the mistakes and successes of these cities and is an invaluable resource for practitioners and students of planning urban design urban redevelopment economic development and public and social policy

Decline, Renewal and the City in Popular Music Culture: Beyond the Beatles Sara Cohen, 2017-09-29 How is popular music culture connected with the life image and identity of a city How for example did the Beatles emerge in Liverpool how did they come to be categorized as part of Liverpool culture and identity and used to develop and promote the city and how have connections between the Beatles and Liverpool been forged and contested This book explores the relationship between popular music and the city using Liverpool as a case study Firstly it examines the impact of social and economic change within that city on its popular music culture focusing on de industrialization and economic restructuring during the 1980s and 1990s Secondly and in turn it considers the specificity of popular music culture and the many diverse ways in which it influences city life and informs the way that the city is thought about valued and experienced Cohen highlights popular music s unique role and significance in the making of cities and illustrates how de industrialization encouraged efforts to connect popular music to the city to categorize claim and promote it as local culture and harness and mobilize it as a local resource In doing so she adopts an approach that recognizes music as a social and symbolic practice encompassing a diversity of roles and characteristics music as a culture or way of life distinguished by social and ideological conventions music as sound speech and discourse about music and music as a commodity and industry

Music Cities Christina Ballico, Allan Watson, 2020-06-12 This book provides a critical academic evaluation of the music city as a form of urban cultural policy that has been keenly adopted in policy circles across the globe but which as yet has only been subject to limited empirical and conceptual interrogation With a particular focus on heritage planning tourism and regulatory measures this book explores how local geographical social and economic contexts and particularities shape the nature of music city policies or lack thereof in particular cities The book broadens academic interrogation of music cities to include cities as diverse as San Francisco Liverpool Chennai Havana San Juan Birmingham and Southampton Contributors include both academic and professional practitioners and consequently this book represents one of the most diverse attempts yet to critically engage with music cities as a global cultural policy concept

Cultural Mega-Events Zachary M. Jones, 2020-03-05 Mega events have long been used by cities as a strategy to secure global recognition and attract future economic investment However while cultural mega events like the European Capital of Culture have become increasingly popular cities have begun questioning the traditional model of other events such as the Olympic Games with many candidate cities cancelling bids in recent years This approach to planning and developing cities through mega events introduces a broad range of physical effects and nuanced institutional changes for cities particularly for the more sensitive heritage areas of cities This book explores these issues by first examining the dynamics of cities attempts to reduce overall costs and increase the sustainability of these large events by further embedding them within the existing fabric of the city and second by studying in depth the impact on the heritage of host cities This book investigates three World Heritage Cities Genoa Liverpool and Istanbul each of which have hosted the European Capital of Culture and introduced a variety of opportunities and risks for their heritage The book highlights the potential benefits and challenges of integrating event and heritage planning to provide lessons that can help future historic cities and heritage decision makers better prepare for such events

Enterprising Places Colette Henry, John Shutt, 2014-07-09 Global economic shocks rising demands for welfare services and public sector austerity measures are signifiers of the processes that have heightened public policy imperatives associated with enabling enterprise The book contributes to the messy leadership and networked governance efforts of performing entrepreneurial synergies in place

Urban Regeneration and Neoliberalism Clare Kinsella, 2020-10-29 This book explores the concept of home in Liverpool over phases of regeneration following the Second World War Using qualitative research in the oral history tradition it explores what the author conceptualises as forward facing regeneration in the period up to the 1980s and neoliberal regeneration interventions that prioritise the past from the 1980s to the present The author examines how the shift towards city centre focused redevelopment and event led initiatives has implications for the way residents make sense of their conceptualisations of home and demonstrates how the shift in regeneration focus discourse and practice away from Liverpool's neighbourhood districts and towards the city centre has produced changes in the ways that residents identify with neighbourhoods and the city centre with prominence being given to the latter Employing Pierre Bourdieu's concepts of habitus and field as mechanisms for understanding different senses of home and shifts from localised views to globalised views this book will appeal to those with interests in urban sociology regeneration geography sociology home cultures and cities

Tracing Your Liverpool Ancestors Mike Royden, 2010-03-10 Tracing Your Liverpool Ancestors gives a fascinating insight into everyday life in the Liverpool area over the past four centuries Aimed primarily at the family and social historian Mike Royden's highly readable guide introduces readers to the wealth of material available on the city's history and its people In a series of short information packed chapters he describes in vivid detail the rise of Liverpool through shipping manufacturing and trade from the original fishing village to the cosmopolitan metropolis of the present day Throughout he concentrates on the lives of the local people on their experience as Liverpool developed around them He looks at their living conditions at poverty and the laboring poor at health and the ravages of disease at the influence of religion and migration at education and the traumatic experience of war He shows how the lives of Liverpudlians changed over the centuries and how this is reflected in the records that have survived His useful book is a valuable tool for anyone researching the history of the city or the life of an individual ancestor

Restaging the Future Louise Owen, 2023-12-15 An examination of neoliberal ideology's ascendancy in 1990s and 2000s British politics and society through its effect on state supported performance practices Post Thatcher British cultural politics were shaped by the government's use of the arts in service of its own social and economic agenda Restaging the Future Neoliberalization Theater and Performance in Britain interrogates how arts practices and cultural institutions were enmeshed with the particular processes of neoliberalization mobilized at the end of the twentieth century and into the twenty first Louise Owen traces the uneasy entanglement of performance with neoliberalism's marketization of social life Focusing on this political moment Owen guides readers through a wide range of performance works crossing multiple forms genres and spaces from European dance tours to Brazilian favelas to the streets of Liverpool attending to their distinct implications for the reenvisioned future in whose wake we now live Analyzing this array of participatory dance film music public art and theater projects Owen uncovers unexpected affinities between community based experimental and avant garde movements Restaging the Future provides key historical context for these performances their negotiations of their political moment and their themes of insecurity identity and inequality created in a period of profound ideological and socioeconomic change

Liverpool and the Unmaking of Britain Sam Wetherell, 2025-02-27 Few cities in the world are as famous as Liverpool the home of the modern world's most celebrated rock group and of a legendary football team The city is equally notorious for its poverty its ethnic and racial divides and above all its decline For Liverpool was once a major port growing rich on slavery on trade with the Americas and the British Empire's outposts in Africa and Asia In the 1980s it was described as obsolete Yet the city fights on This is the epic history of Liverpool since the Second World War It is a story of vast docklands shrinking and eventually vanishing when corporations discovered they could shift goods in containers and dispense with human workers of industries like car manufacturing mushrooming and disappearing of huge new suburbs being built and neglected It is a moving and horrifying narrative of casual racism Chinese sailors deported en masse in the aftermath of the war systematic discrimination against the city's Black population and of resistance culminating in the Toxteth riots in 1981 It is the story of a city fighting against a descent into obsolescence Liverpool also becomes a prism through which recent British history is brought into a new focus It is the fascinating history of a single iconic city But it is also a warning of what the future may hold for many more communities

Sport Policy and Politics in an Era of Austerity Dan Parnell, Peter Millward, Paul A. Widdop, Neil King, Anthony May, 2019-03-27 Austerity is perhaps the major challenge of our times given the speed at which it arrived and the consequences of its impact upon society The global financial crash and economic downturn was the catalyst for change and against a backdrop of advice from experts adverse to Keynesian economics the ideology of austerity grew and became the dominant thinking to steer economies out of recession This comprehensive volume draws upon both quantitative and qualitative research methodologies to provide a varied and contextually rich insight into sport policy and politics in an era of austerity The authors cover a wide range of issues in a variety of organisational contexts and geographies including sports participation across different socio demographic groups the impact of austerity on the provision of community sports disability sport public management of sport facilities the performance of public sport facilities with respect to access finance utilisation and customer satisfaction the potential impact of austerity on sport for development elite sport and social inclusion and poverty This book makes a significant contribution to the current academic debate while raising important considerations for policymakers and managers It was originally published as a special issue of The International Journal of Sport Policy and Politics

Football Supporters and the Commercialisation of Football Peter Kennedy, David Kennedy, 2014-07-16 As football clubs have become luxury investments their decisions increasingly mirror those of any other business organisation Football supporters have been encouraged to express their club loyalty by thinking business acting as consumers and generating money deemed necessary for their clubs to compete at the highest levels In critical studies supporters have been portrayed as passive or reluctant consumers who imprisoned by enduring club loyalties embody a fatalistic attitude to their own exploitation As this book aims to show however such expressions of loyalty are far from hegemonic and often interface haphazardly with traditional ideas about what constitutes the loyal fan While there is little doubt that professional football is experiencing commodification the reality is that football clubs are not simply businesses nor can they ever aspire to be organisations driven solely by expanding or protecting economic value Rather clubs hover uncertainly between being businesses and community assets Football Supporters and the Commercialisation of Football explores the implications of this uncertainty for understanding supporter resistance to and compromise with commodification Every club and its supporters exist in their own unique national and local contexts In this respect this book offers a Euro wide comparison of supporter reactions to commercialisation and provides unique insight into how football supporters actively mediate regional local and national contexts as they intersect with the universalistic presumptions of commerce This book was previously published as a special issue of Soccer and Society

Writing the Global City Anthony King, 2016-04-14 Over the last three decades our understanding of the city worldwide has been revolutionized by three innovative theoretical concepts globalisation postcolonialism and a radically contested notion of modernity The idea and even the reality of the city has been extended out of the state and nation and re positioned in the larger global world In this book Anthony King brings together key essays written over this period much of it dominated by debates about the world or global city Challenging assumptions and silences behind these debates King provides largely ignored historical and cultural dimensions to the understanding of world city formation as well as decline Interdisciplinary and comparative the essays address new ways of framing contemporary themes the imperial and colonial origin of contemporary world and global cities actually existing postcolonialisms claims about urban and cultural homogenisation and the role of architecture and built environment in that
