Buenas Noches, American Culture María DeGuzmán,2012-07-09 Often treated like night itself both visible and invisible feared and romanticized Latina os make up the largest minority group in the US In her newest work Mar a DeGuzm n explores representations of night in art and literature from the Caribbean Colombia Central and South America and the US calling into question night s effect on the formation of identity for Latina os in and outside of the US She takes as her subject novels short stories poetry essays non fiction photo fictions photography and film and examines these texts through the lenses of nationhood sexuality human rights exoticism among others Psychomagic Alejandro Jodorowsky,2010-06-18 A healing path using the power of dreams theater poetry and shamanism Shows how psychological realizations can cause true transformation when manifested by concrete poetic acts Includes many examples of the surreal but successful actions Jodorowsky has prescribed to those seeking his help While living in Mexico Alejandro Jodorowsky became familiar with the colorful and effective cures provided by folk healers He realized that it is easier for the unconscious to understand the language of dreams than that of rationality Illness can even be seen as a physical dream that reveals unresolved emotional and psychological problems Psychomagic presents the shamanic and genealogical principles Jodorowsky discovered to create a healing therapy that could use the powers of dreams art and theater to empower individuals to heal wounds that in some cases had traveled through generations The concrete and often surreal poetic actions Jodorowsky employs are part of an elaborate strategy intended to break apart the dysfunctional persona with whom the patient identifies in order to connect with a deeper self That is when true transformation can manifest For a young man who complained that he lived only in his head and was unable to grab hold of reality and advance toward the financial autonomy he desired Jodorowsky gave the prescription to paste two gold coins to the soles of his shoes so that all day he would be walking on gold A judge whose vanity was ruling his every move was given the task of dressing like a tramp and begging outside one of the fashionable restaurants he loved to frequent while pulling glass doll eyes out of his pockets The lesson for him was that if a tramp can fill his pockets with eyeballs then they must be of no value and thus the eyes of others should have no bearing on who you are and what you do Taking his patients directly at their words Jodorowsky takes the same elements associated with a negative emotional charge and recasts them in an action that will make them positive and enable them to pay the psychological debts hindering their lives Revising Herself Ruthellen Josselson,1998-04-23 In 1972 Ruthellen Josselson was a young psychologist fascinated by the riddle of how a woman creates an identity and chooses one path over another in life particularly in the face of the nascent feminist movement which challenged as never before the traditional role models of earlier generations Selecting at random thirty young women in their last year of college Josselson undertook a ground breaking study that would follow these women s personal odysseys over the next twenty two years from graduation to midlife What she learned about the ways women reinvent themselves in an ever changing world is the subject of Revising Herself a myth shattering look at both a unique generation of American women on the front lines of wrenching social change and at the conflicts and compromises facing women today With stunning candor and hard won insight the ordinary and anonymous women in Josselson s study reveal how much more complex and interesting real women s lives are than the one dimensional stereotypes often portrayed in the media Dismissing a traditional stage theory of development as overly simplistic Josselson identifies four trajectories that women take from adolescence to adulthood Guardians are the good girls high achieving and committed to fulfilling their family's expectations but rigid in outlook and resistant to change Pathmakers are not afraid of risk or commitment striving to balance their own needs with others The often idealistic Searchers are overwhelmed by choice and unable to make commitments while Drifters live only for the moment avoiding choice and an exploration of identity Reflecting the degree to which women take risks make choices and form commitments these paths form a foundation for adulthood but they also lead to surprises at midlife Guardians seem strikingly able to cut loose from earlier traditional patterns while many Drifters have found themselves sometimes in quite traditional ways And coming of age just as the feminist movement gathered momentum the women in Josselson's study were the first to confront many contemporary issues not faced by their mothers or their mothers' mothers How does an Irish Catholic contemplate an abortion How does a woman whose parents believe education is wasted on a daughter find the will to apply to medical school In examining these questions and others Josselson shows that the forging of a woman's identity whatever her path is ongoing a balancing of the need for self assertion against the equally compelling need for relationships Women create their identities along the seams of both competence and connection and continually revise what they have made Allowing women to define themselves in their own terms Revising Herself holds up a provocative mirror in which readers can reflect upon their own life choices Whether a Guardian Pathmaker Searcher or Drifter readers will recognize themselves in these women's experiences and gain new insight into how we construct our identities over a lifetime Paths to Fulfillment Ruthellen Josselson, 2017

Women and identity The pathmakers A pathmaker and her daughter and a pathmaker who lost her way The guardians The searchers The drifters A drifter who created a path Paths to fulfillment reflections on adult growth and development in women Afterword Medium Rare: For Deader or Worse Michelle Witvliet, 2025-02-26 As a medium Jennifer Flagg has dealt with the dead for many years Having died herself a few weeks earlier made her birthday celebration this year that much sweeter because she shared the day with her family and friends like her death never happened Since her birthday Jennifer's parabilities have expanded to a point where she doesn't know what will manifest next When the place where she works burns down she's enlisted to help her detective fiancé search for the missing business owner She uses those newly emerging abilities to apprehend the perpetrators and solve the case Being a paranormal does have its perks Women's

Studies in the 1990s Joanna de Groot, Mary Maynard, 2016-07-27 This interdisciplinary collection is concerned with important theoretical and methodological issues facing women's studies Drawing on feminist theory and politics it addresses a range of questions raised for women's studies by work conducted in history literature politics and sociology The editors provide a context for these debates in their introductory essay which gives an overview of the development of women's studies and reflects on its current position In their concluding chapter they also suggest a framework from which women's studies might move forward The Erotic Screen Thomas Wolman, 2020-02-29 The Erotic Screen takes as its starting point that Hollywood movies were steeped in eroticism from the beginning but censorship forced filmmakers to devise hidden sexual subtexts to preserve a film's subliminal eroticism. In this way Hollywood films seed our collective psyches with unconscious subtexts. Science fiction films are particularly effective using horror to induce sexual excitement as studied in Part I. The nature of desire in a trio of science fiction thrillers. Another device was to display unrestricted consumption of alcohol and tobacco and gratuitous spending. Today this is a cliché of mainstream cinema but some filmmakers expose the dark underbelly. The five films scrutinized in Part II. Portraits of addiction in Hollywood melodrama make explicit the connections between greed, addictions and sexuality. Finally in Part III. Perverse desire in mainstream cinema, the nuanced position toward the psychosexual obsessions on view in the films is investigated by posing the provocative question of whether S/M practice can work as a cure for psychic suffering by raising the alarm over sexuality run amok in a suburban community and by offering a devastating critique of voyeurism's fatal attraction to viewers. The Erotic Screen is an investigation of the nature of human sexuality through the medium of film. It stirs up discussion and debate and helps these movies live on in our minds.
