Diverting the Flow Margreet Zwarteveen, Sara Ahmed, Suman Rimal Gautam, 2014-03-11 Across the South Asian region water determines livelihoods and in some cases even survival. However water also creates exclusions. Access to water and its social organisation are intimately tied up with power relations. This book provides an overview of gender equity and water issues relevant to South Asia. The essays empirically illustrate and theoretically argue how gender intersects with other axes of social difference such as class caste ethnicity age and religion to shape water access use and management practices. Divided into six thematic sections each of which starts with an introduction of relevant concepts debates and theories the book looks at laws and rights policies technologies and intervention strategies. In all the book clearly shows how understanding and changing the use distribution and management of water is conditional upon understanding and accommodating gender relations. Published by Zubaan.

I Know What Prayer Can Do Cordell May Thorpe, 2018-02-08 Believe Have you ever been caught between a rock and a hard place I have. How did you triumph I will tell you how I overcame I learned to pray. God does hear and answer prayers. This book focuses majorly on the power of prayer and taking God's words at face value.
