Constitutions, Religion and Politics in Asia Dian A. H. Shah, 2017-10-26 As religious polarisation in society deepens political actors and policy makers have begun to struggle with questions on the role of the dominant religion and how religion influences constitutional commitments and development By focusing on Indonesia Malaysia and Sri Lanka Constitutions Religion and Politics in Asia demonstrates how constitution making and the operation of constitutional arrangements involving religion cannot be separated from the broader political dynamics of society Although constitutions establish legal and political structures of government institutions and provide tools for rights protection they do not operate in a vacuum divorced from the games of power and the political realities surrounding them Here Shah sets out how constitutions operate and evolve and demonstrates how constitutional provisions can produce unintended consequences over time A vital new source of scholarship for students and scholars of law and religion and comparative constitutional law and those interested in issues of constitutionalism and legal and political history in Asia

Tolerance, Secularization and Democratic Politics in South Asia Humeira Iqtidar, Tanika Sarkar, 2018-07-19 What is the relationship between secularization and tolerance Critically analyzing the empirical and theoretical foundations of a putatively linear relationship between the two this volume argues for moving past both romanticised readings of pre modern tolerance and the unthinking belief that secularization will inevitably lead to tolerance The essays collected in this volume include contributions from across South Asia that suggest that democratic politics have added a layer of complexity to questions of peaceful co existence Modern transformations in religious thought and practice have had contradictory implications for tolerance which offer rich insights into contemporary debates in the region This multi disciplinary volume which spans history sociology anthropology and political theory questions the uncritical acceptance of tolerance as the best framework for engaging with difference and probes the complications created by and through democratic politics

Varieties of Secularism in Asia Nils Ole Bubandt, Martijn Van Beek, 2012-03-12 Varieties of Secularism is an ethnographically rich theoretically well informed and intellectually coherent volume which builds off the work of Talal Asad Charles Taylor and others who have engaged the issue of secularism s and in socio political life The volume seeks to examine theories of secularism secularity and examine concrete ethnographic cases in order to further the theoretical discussion Whereas Taylor s magisterial work draws up the conditions and problems of a belief in God in Western modernity it leaves unexplored the challenges posed by the spiritual in modernity outside of the North Atlantic rim This anthology seeks to begin that task It does so by suggesting that the kind of secularity described by Taylor is only one amongst others By attending to the shifting relationship between proper religion and bad faiths between politically valorised and embarrassing spiritual phenomena between the new visibilities and silences of magic ancestors and religion in democratic politics this book seeks to outline the particular formations of secularism that have become possible in Asia from China to Indonesia and from Bahrain to Timor Leste This book will appeal to students and scholars of Asian religion politics and anthropology Asia, 1929 Political Communication in Asia Lars Willnat, Annette Aw, 2009-03-23 This edited volume provides a critical review of political communication research conducted in Asia over the past twenty years Each chapter focuses on studies published in a specific Asian country selected according to the level of contribution made to the field of political communication in Asia Covering China Hong Kong Taiwan South Korea Japan Singapore Malaysia Indonesia and India the book's primary objective is to review the unique theoretical accomplishments made by Asian communication scholars thus contributing to a better awareness and understanding of political communication research in Asia The contributors are well respected Asian media scholars writing on political communication in their countries of origin Each author reviews studies conducted and published in his/her native country and language s This book provides a first review of these studies most of which have never been published in English and makes them available to international scholars The contributors discuss each country's political background and address the findings and conclusions of the political communication studies conducted in their respective countries during the past two decades The chapters focus on insights that have been made by adapting Western media theories to the unique social cultural or political contexts that exist in each country The authors also point out possible gaps in the current research within their respective countries and to make recommendations for future studies The Body in Asia Bryan S. Turner, Zheng Yangwen, 2009-11-01 The past few decades have seen growing interest in the study of the body However the increasing number of exciting and influential publications has primarily if not exclusively focused on the body in Western cultures The various works produced by Asian scholars remain largely unknown to Western academic debates even though Asia is home to a host of rich body cultures and religions The peoples of Asia have experienced colonization decolonization and now globalization all of which make the body in Asia a rewarding field of research This unique volume brings together a number of scholars who work on East Southeast and South Asia and presents original and cutting edge research on the body in various Asian cultures Politics and Cultures of Islamization in Southeast Asia Georg Stauth, 2015-07-15 This book is about cultural and political figures institutions and ideas in a period of transition in two Muslim countries in Southeast Asia Malaysia and Indonesia It also addresses some of the permutations of civilizing processes in Singapore and the city state's image moving across its borders into the region and representing a miracle of modernity beyond ideas The central theme is the way in which Islam was re-constructed as an intellectual and socio-political tradition in Southeast Asia in the nineteen nineties Scholars who approach Islam both as a textual and local tradition students who take the heartlands of Islam as imaginative landscapes for cultural transformation and politicians and institutions which have been concerned with transmitting the idea of Islamization are the subjects of this inquiry into different patterns of modernity in a tropical region still bearing the signature of a colonial past Exploring Religious Diversity and Covenantal Pluralism in Asia Dennis

R. Hoover,2022-12-26 This book examines the growing diversity of religions and worldviews across East Southeast Asia and the factors affecting prospects for covenantal pluralism in these regions According to the Pew Religious Diversity Index half of the world s most religiously diverse countries are in Asia The presence of deep religious worldview difference is often seen as a potential threat to socio political cohesion or even as a source of violent conflict Yet in Asia as elsewhere the degree of this diversity is not consistently associated with socio political problems Indeed while religious difference is implicated in some social challenges there are also many instances of respectful multi faith engagement practical collaboration and peaceful debate Whether or not religious worldview difference is part of a positive pluralism depends on a complex array of legal and cultural conditions This book explores these dynamics and contingencies in Asia structuring the inquiry according to the theory of covenantal pluralism Covenantal pluralist theory calls for a a constitutional order characterized by freedom of religion conscience and equality of rights and responsibilities combined with b a culture of practical religious literacy and virtues of mutual respect and protection Volume I offers a pioneering exploration of the prospects for this robust and non relativistic type of pluralism in East Southeast Asia Volume II examines South Central Asia The chapters in these volumes originally appeared as research articles in a series on covenantal pluralism published by The Review of Faith International Affairs
