Index of Court-martial Orders United States. Navy. Office of the Judge Advocate General, 1949 Court-martial Order United States. Navy Department, 1948 The Fate of the Apostles Sean McDowell, 2024-12-17 The Book of Martyrs by John Foxe written in the sixteenth century has long been the go to source for studying the lives and martyrdom of the apostles While other scholars have written individual treatments on the more prominent apostles such as Peter Paul John and James there is little published information on the other apostles In The Fate of the Apostles Sean McDowell offers a comprehensive reasoned historical analysis of the fate of the Twelve disciples of Jesus along with the apostles Paul and James the brother of Jesus McDowell assesses the evidence for each apostle's martyrdom as well as determining its significance to the reliability of their testimony The question of the fate of the apostles also gets to the heart of the reliability of the kerygma Did the apostles really believe Jesus appeared to them after his death or did they fabricate the entire story How reliable are the resurrection accounts The willingness of the apostles to die for their faith is a popular argument in resurrection studies In this thoroughly updated new edition McDowell offers insightful scholarly analysis of this argument to break new ground within the spheres of New Testament studies Church History and apologetics The JAG Journal, 1951 Reports of Cases Argued and Decided in the Supreme Court of the United States United States. Supreme Court, 1946 Complete with headnotes summaries of decisions statements of cases points and authorities of counsel annotations tables and parallel references Fiction and the Ways of Knowing Avrom Fleishman, 2014-07-03 In this highly individual study Avrom Fleishman explores a wide range of literary references to human culture the culture of ideas facts and images Each critical essay in Fiction and the Ways of Knowing takes up for sustained analysis a major British novel of the nineteenth or the twentieth century The novels are analyzed in the light of social historical philosophical and other perspectives that can be grouped under the human sciences The diversity of critical contexts in these thirteen essays is organized by Avrom Fleishman's governing belief in the interrelations of literature and other ways of interpreting the world The underlying assumptions of this approach as explained in his introductory essay are that fiction is capable of encompassing even the most recondite facts and recalcitrant ideas that fiction though never a mirror of reality is linked to realities and takes part in the real and that a critical reading may be informed by scientific knowledge without reducing the literary work to a schematic formula Fleishman investigates the matters of fact and belief that make up the designated meanings the intellectual contexts and the speculative parallels in three types of novel Some of the novels discussed make it clear that their authors are informed on matters beyond the nonspecialist's range these essays help bridge this information gap Other fictional works are only to be grasped in an awareness of the cultural lore tacitly distributed in their own time a modern reader must make the effort to fathom their anachronisms And other novels can be found to open passageways that their authors can only have glimpsed intuitively these must be pursued with great caution but equal diligence The novels discussed include Little Dorrit

The Way We Live Now Daniel Deronda the Return of the Native and The Magus Also examined are Wuthering Heights Vanity Fair Northanger Abbey To the Lighthouse Under Western Eyes Ulysses and A Passage to India Nelson's Encyclopaedia, 1907 Thurgood Marshall Mark V.
