A range of international scholars highlight the thematic and formal coherence of James Benning's practice whilst providing readers with an artistic and historical context to understand his experimental film work Breaching Borders Juliet Steyn, 2014-06-25

As migration is described as a problem mobility is seen as a goal In a Europe without Borders a place that prides itself on multiculturalism while struggling with racism two opposing paradigms characterise contemporary discussions surrounding migrants Breaching Borders Art Migrants and the Metaphor of Waste aims to interrogate the familiar debates evolving new textual and interdisciplinary approaches to European cultural policies and unmasking the assumptions of the essentialist identity politics that go undeclared at the borders of cultural discourse Twelve leading figures in post colonial and translation studies political philosophy art radical aesthetics policy making and sociology reflect on the political and cultural meanings of migration their arguments framed by artworks that provide glimpses of cross cultural encounters Essays including a meditation on wasted lives by internationally renowned academic Zygmunt Bauman explore the challenges of migration history and integration and attempt to develop radical new figurations of migrant identity underlining the necessity of an imaginative reach towards The Other This book brings together the roles of translation and of art in the central metaphor of waste the trail of rubbish left behind by mechanisms of mobility the excised narratives of wasted identities and people

Cities Beyond Borders Nicolas Kenny, Rebecca Madgin, 2016-05-23 Drawing on a body of research covering primarily Europe and the Americas but stretching also to Asia and Africa from the mid eighteenth century to the present this book explores the methodological and heuristic implications of studying cities in relation to one another Moving fluidly between comparative and transnational methods as well as across regional and national lines the contributors to this volume demonstrate the necessity of this broader view in assessing not just the fundamentals of urban life the way cities are occupied and organised on a daily basis but also the urban mindscape the way cities are imagined and represented In doing so the volume provides valuable insights into the advantages and limitations of using multiple cities to form historical inquiries The Spatial Politics of the Sculptural Euyoung Hong, 2016-10-04 Space is a formative factor in the production of sculpture Phenomenological thought interprets sculptural work in relation to the immersive experience of the viewer situating it within its environment But what possibilities lie beyond this unitary position What is the political potential of a sculptural object How can its spatial relations and movements be reconfigured beyond its immediate environment Spatial Politics of the Sculptural investigates the concept of space and its role in the production of the sculptural form from a multidimensional perspective Engaging with the work of Krauss Fried Merleau-Ponty Deleuze and Guattari and using case studies of urban development in Paris New York and Seoul it reinterprets and dislocates the sculptural form in terms of the political dynamism of space proposing a new methodology for reading producing and expanding sculptural practice Drawing on David Harvey's theory of capital it scrutinizes the idea of the spatial in the process of urbanization It examines the interrelationship between capital flow and accumulation and explores the production and destruction of space in relation to the creation of three dimensional works of art In doing so it expands the idea of the sculptural object in relation to the urban environment
