Modernity in Colonial Punjab Michael Philipp Brunner,2020-11-23 This book explores the localisation of modernity in late colonial India As a case study it focuses on the hitherto untold colonial history of Khalsa College Amritsar a pioneering and highly influential educational institution founded in the British Indian province of Punjab in 1892 by the religious minority community of the Sikhs Addressing topics such as politics religion rural development militarism or physical education the study shows how Sikh educationalists and activists made use of and localised communal imperial national and transnational discourses and knowledge Their modernist visions and schemes transcended both imperialist and mainstream nationalist frameworks and networks In its quest to educate the modern Sikh scientific practical disciplined and physically fit the college
