Secret Lives, and Other Stories Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o, 1979 Secret Lives & Other Stories Ngugi wa Thiong'o, 2018-04-05 One of the greatest writers of our time Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie Ngugi wa Thiong'o is renowned for his political novels and plays yet he honed his craft as a short story writer First published in 1975 Secret Lives and Other Stories brings together a range of Ngugi's political short stories From tales of the meeting between magic and superstition to stories about the modernising forces of colonialism and the pervasive threat of nature this collection celebrates the storytelling might of one of Africa's best loved writers Chicorel Index to Short Stories in Anthologies and Collections, 1975 Short Story Index, 2004 The Oxford History of the Novel in English Simon Gikandi, 2016-10-03 Why did the novel take such a long time to emerge in the colonial world And what cultural work did it come to perform in societies where subjects were not free and modes of social organization diverged from the European cultural centers where the novel gained its form and audience Answering these questions and more Volume 11 The Novel in Africa and the Caribbean since 1950 explores the institutions of cultural production that exerted influence in late colonialism from missionary schools and metropolitan publishers to universities and small presses How these structures provoke and respond to the literary trends and social peculiarities of Africa and the Caribbean impacts not only the writing and reading of novels in those regions but also has a transformative effect on the novel as a global phenomenon Together the volume's 32 contributing experts tell a story about the close relationship between the novel and the project of decolonization and explore the multiple ways in which novels enable readers to imagine communities beyond their own and thus made this form of literature a compelling catalyst for cultural transformation The authors show that even as the novel grows in Africa and the Caribbean as a mark of the elites mastery of European form it becomes the essential instrument for critiquing colonialism and for articulating the new horizons of cultural nationalism Within this historical context the volume examines works by authors such as Chinua Achebe Nadine Gordimer George Lamming Jamaica Kincaid V S Naipaul Zoe Wicomb J M Coetzee and many others Ngũgĩ Wa Thiong'o Charles Cantalupo, 1995 In 1994 over 200 students from Universities world wide

gathered in celebration of the work of Ngugi wa Thiong'o. The best papers and discussions are collected here. Narrating the Self and Nation in Kenyan Autobiographical Writings Samuel Ndogo, 2016. Author Samuel Ndogo offers an understanding of the autobiographical genre in contemporary Kenyan literature. He draws attention to life writing as a form of cultural re-imagining in post-colonial Africa. Taking into consideration contradictions and paradoxes of referentiality in life writing, this book examines the autobiographies of Jaramogi Oginga Odinga, Ngugi wa Thiong'o, Wangari Maathai and Bethwell Ogot. The analysis dwells on self-representations in correlation with imaginations of the Kenyan nation in these works. Thus, the study gives a critical account into the modern memoir, the forms and styles it takes, the ways in which these authors tend to understand and present their lives. Series: Contributions to African Research, Beitrage zur Afrikaforschung, Vol. 63. Subject: African Studies, Literary Criticism. GYNOCENTRIC CONTOURS OF THE MALE IMAGINATION: A STUDY OF THE NOVELS OF CHINUA ACHEBE AND NGUGI WA THIONG'O Dr. Amna Shamim, 2017-03-23. The focus of this book is upon the changing perception of women in African society and their portrayal over different periods in the novels of Chinua Achebe and Ngugi wa Thiong'o, the writers who intriguingly wrote on the constant changing role of African women in Igbo and Kikuyu clans. The book discusses the image of African women entrapped in double jeopardy in both traditional and modern Africa. There has been a remarkable transformation in the representation of women from the early novels to the later novels of both the writers that has been studied in this book from close quarters. The approach and technique of the novelists in projecting their female characters has also been analyzed. The novels of both the writers marked a sea change in the thinking and perception of Westerners with reference to Africa and its people. This work is devoted to the exploration of the image of women in the East and West African societies through the selected novels of Chinua Achebe and Ngugi wa Thiong'o.

Concert of Voices Victor J. Ramraj, 1994-12-30. Concert of Voices combines poetry, fiction, drama and essays in a wide-ranging anthology of world literature in English. The collection includes a number of established writers who, despite their great reputations, have often been perceived as standing apart from the main currents of English literature and have rarely found their way into English Department reading lists. Most selections, though, are by a remarkable range of much less established authors. In addition to the selections, the editor has provided a general introduction and a brief biographical note on each author. The intention in Concert of Voices is both to provide an alternative text to anthologies of traditional and established writings in which the new writings in English invariably are displaced and marginalized and to complement these anthologies. In this regard, the word 'other' which points up apartness and division was found wanting and dropped from the provisional main title. Its omission draws attention to a concept and conviction operative in the construction of the anthology: despite historical and cultural specificities, the focus of cross-cultural and multicultural studies, commonalities and affinities exist among these writings and between writing on both sides of the hegemonic divide. The anthology then is not intended simply as an offering of sociological or anthropological insights into these different peoples. The pieces in Concert of Voices also demonstrate that imaginative writings can evolve from a cocoon of particularities into what can be called modifying a catch phrase of certain other disciplines Literature Without Borders from the introduction

The Postcolonial Intellectual Oliver Lovesey, 2016-03-03 Addressing a neglected dimension in postcolonial scholarship Oliver Lovesey examines the figure of the postcolonial intellectual as repeatedly evoked by the fabled troika of Said Spivak and Bhabha and by members of the pan African diaspora such as Cabral Fanon and James Lovesey s primary focus is Ng g wa Thiong o one of the greatest writers of post independence Africa Ng g continues to be a vibrant cultural agitator and innovator who in contrast to many other public intellectuals has participated directly in grassroots cultural renewal enduring imprisonment and exile as a consequence of his engagement in political action Lovesey s comprehensive study concentrates on Ng g s non fictional prose writings including his largely overlooked early journalism and his most recent autobiographical and theoretical work He offers a postcolonial critique that acknowledges Ng g s complex position as a virtual spokesperson for the oppressed and global conscience who now speaks from a location of privilege Ng g s writings Lovesey shows display a seemingly paradoxical consistency in their concerns over nearly five decades at the same time that there have been enormous transformations in his ideology and a shift in his focus from Africa s holocaust to Africa s renaissance Lovesey argues that Ng g s view of the intellectual has shifted from an alienated nearly neocolonial stance to a position that allows him to celebrate intellectual activism and a return to the model of the oral vernacular intellectual even as he challenges other global intellectuals Tracing the development of this notion of the postcolonial intellectual Lovesey argues for Ng g s rightful position as a major postcolonial theorist who helped establish postcolonial studies

From Home and Exile Joanna Woods, 2014-12-03 This book is about home With Malawi as its focus it seeks to understand ideas about home as expressed through poetry written by Malawians in English Although African Literatures are studied those of Malawi have not received agreeable attention This book surveys poetry by five Malawian writers Felix Mnthali Frank Chipasula Jack Mapanje Lupenga Mphande and Steve Chimombo The discussion negotiates scribed experience of exile engendered by Dr Bandas regime and shows that the selected poets effectively converse with a sense of home reflecting on its transformations in their work Interrogating the strict definitions of home the argument highlights that far from home less exiles in fact clarify the sense of what home is The manoeuvre is one of thinking towards an unboundaried home This book will be of value not only to readers interested in the cultures of Africa but to all those with an interest in worldwide literary phenomena and ideas therein of home and exile

Ngugi wa Thiong'o, Gender, and the Ethics of Postcolonial Reading Brendon Nicholls, 2016-05-06 This is the first comprehensive book length study of gender politics in Ngugi wa Thiong o s fiction Brendon Nicholls argues that mechanisms of gender subordination are strategically crucial to Ngugi s ideological project from his first novel to his most recent one Nicholls describes the historical pressures that lead Ngugi to represent women as he does and shows that the novels themselves are symptomatic of the cultural conditions that they address Reading Ngugi's fiction in terms of its Gikuyu allusions and references a gendered narrative of history emerges that creates transgressive spaces for women Nicholls bases his discussion on moments during the Mau Mau rebellion when women's contributions to the anticolonial struggle could not be reduced to a patriarchal narrative of Kenyan history and this interpretive maneuver permits a reading of Ngugi's fiction that accommodates female political and sexual agency Nicholls contributes to postcolonial theory by proposing a methodology for reading cultural difference This methodology critiques cultural practices like clitoridectomy in an ethical manner that seeks to avoid both cultural imperialism and cultural relativism His strategy of performative reading that is making the conditions of one text such as folklore history or translation active in another for example fiction literary narrative or nationalism makes possible an ethical reading of gender and of the conditions of reading in translation
