Landscape, Memory and History Pamela J. Stewart, Andrew Strathern, 2003-05-20 How do people perceive the land around them and how is that perception changed by history This book explores this question from an anthropological angle assessing the connections between place space identity nationalism history and memory in a variety of different settings around the world Taking historical change and memory as key themes it is a broad study that will appeal to a readership across the social sciences Contributors from North America Australia New Zealand Taiwan and Europe explore a wide variety of case studies that includes seascapes in Jamaica the Solomon Islands the forests of Madagascar Aboriginal and European notions of landscape in Australia place and identity in 19th century maps and the bogs of Ireland contemporary concerns over changing landscapes in Papua New Guinea and representations of landscape and history in the poetry of the Scottish Borders

The Secret Life of the Adder Nicholas Milton, 2022-08-09 In 2019 the most comprehensive survey ever of adders was published According to Make the Adder Count the species will disappear from most of Britain in the next 15 20 years unless we take action now to save it But despite being a priority conservation species under the Biodiversity Action Plan not a single nature reserve in Britain has been specifically designated to protect it Throughout our history we have systematically persecuted the adder over generations because it is Britain s only venomous snake Now the adder population is in dire straits its rapidly declining numbers occurring on increasingly small isolated and fragmented sites According to Make the Adder Count 90% of the sites where it still occurs have 10 or less adult snakes and are now considered to be very vulnerable to local extinction Despite the adder population being in dire straits it is still not too late to save it if we act now This book contains a 10 point adder action plan which if implemented could help to restore the adder to its former range across Britain Using many unique photographs of the species published for the first time it also contains a history of the adder and reveals its secret life which has made it the most successful snake in the world With a foreword by Iolo Williams the BBC Springwatch presenter this book is a story of our times one which typifies the age of extinction through which we are all living and are all responsible

Landscape Aesthetics Alberto L. Siani, 2024-07-16 The notion of landscape typically seems innocuous associated with leisure and contemplation Likewise aesthetics is often seen as apolitical a matter of subjective tastes and preferences This book challenges the common understanding of these categories as disengaged and demonstrates how uniting landscape studies and philosophical aesthetics opens new ways of addressing both the environmental crisis and the crisis of the humanities Alberto L Siani argues that the concept of landscape helps us overcome deeply ingrained oppositions such as nature and culture spirit and flesh or the environment and the human Landscape represents the intersection of these categories and therefore provides a helpful vantage point on contemporary predicaments that cannot be understood within dualistic frameworks An engaged aesthetics shows that landscapes are not simply ways of seeing the world but ways of being in the world offering practical guidance for inhabiting places ethically Landscape Aesthetics sheds new light on issues spanning art and its interpretation environmentalism temporality lived spaces justice education and interdisciplinarity Bringing together a wide range of sources across philosophy and other disciplines as well as personal experience Siani reveals the key role of landscape and aesthetics in responding to the pressing crises we face today Nature and Other Essays Ralph Waldo Emerson, 2012-03-12 A soul satisfying collection of 12 essays by the noted philosopher and poet who embraced independence rejected conformity and loved nature Includes the title essay plus Character Intellect Spiritual Laws Circles and others Haunted Spaces in Twenty-First Century British Nature

Writing Anneke Lubkowitz, 2020-06-08 This study investigates the figure of haunting in the New Nature Writing It begins with a historical survey of nature writing and traces how it came to represent an ideal of natural space as empty of human history and social conflict Building on a theoretical framework which combines insights from ecocriticism and spatial theory the author explores the spatial dimensions of haunting and hauntology and shows how 21st century writers draw on a Gothic repertoire of seemingly supernatural occurrences and spectral imagery to portray natural space as disturbed uncanny and socially contested Iain Sinclair and Robert Macfarlane are revealed to apply psychogeography's interest in hidden histories and haunted places to spaces associated with wilderness and the countryside Kathleen Jamie's allusions to the Gothic are put in relation to her feminist re-writing of the outdoors and John Burnside's use of haunting is shown to dismantle fictions of the far north This book provides not only a discussion of a wide range of factual and fictional narratives of the present but also an analysis of the intertextual dialogue with the Romantic tradition which enfolds in these texts Modern British Nature Writing, 1789-2020 Will Abberley, Christina Alt, David Higgins, Graham Huggan, Pippa Marland, 2022-03-17 This first full length study of modern British nature writing is timely and invaluable for literary scholarship in the environmental crisis

Routledge Handbook of Human-Animal Studies Garry Marvin, Susan McHugh, 2014-04-16 Human animal studies is an academic field that has grown exponentially over the past decade It explores the whys hows and whats of human animal relations why animals are represented and configured in different ways in human cultures and societies around the world how they are imagined experienced and given significance what these relationships might signify about being human and what about these relationships might be improved for the sake of the individuals as well as the communities concerned The Routledge Handbook of Human Animal Studies presents a collection of original essays from artists and scholars who have established themselves internationally on the basis of specific and significant new contributions to human animal studies This international interdisciplinary handbook will be of interest to students and scholars of human animal studies sociology

Wolschke-Bulmahn, Ronald Clark, 2021-04-26 Originally the area of responsibility for landscape architecture was based on the premise that the planning and creating of open spaces such as parks and gardens was the business of garden artists Today the training of landscape architects and future challenges of the profession include the protection of natural resources and the environment urban planning or tourism to name but a few The international symposium From Garden Art to Landscape Architecture Traditions Re Evaluations and Future Perspectives addressed questions which based on the idea of garden art should help to reconstruct its historical development but also discussed the notion and the relevance of art in everyday work The contributions critically reflect on the professional self image of landscape architects at the beginning of the 21st century The symposium in September 2018 was co organized by the City and State Capital of Hannover s Herrenhausen Gardens Division the Deutsche Gesellschaft f r Gartenkunst und Landschaftsarchitektur DGGL the Volkswagen Foundation and the Centre of Garden Art and Landscape Architectur
