What Makes a Social Crisis? Jeffrey C. Alexander, 2019-11-01 In this book Jeffrey Alexander develops a new sociological theory of social crisis and applies it to a wide range of cases from the church paedophilia crisis to the MeToo movement He argues that crises are triggered not by objective social strains but by the discourse and institutions of the civil sphere When strains become subject to the utopian aspirations of the civil sphere there emerges widespread anguish about social justice and the future of democratic life Once admired institutional elites come to be represented as perpetrators and the civil sphere becomes legally and organizationally intrusive demanding repairs in the name of civil purification Resisting such repair institutional elites foment backlash and a war of the spheres ensues This major new work by one of the world's leading social theorists will be of great interest to students and scholars in sociology politics and the social sciences generally

Cranmer, Theologian G. W. Bromiley, 2023-04-27 In his important evaluation of the theological leader of the English Reformation G W Bromiley charts Cranmer's doctrinal views scriptural interpretation and liturgical composition His nuanced position on various controversial issues of the day not least baptism is articulated with clarity and care and his ecumenical sensitivity is foregrounded While arguably more adept as a scholar than as a creative theologian in his own right Cranmer's writing nevertheless formed the cornerstone of future Anglican theology Through his Articles of Religion 42 later reduced to

39 and the Book of Common Prayer he set the parameters within which the Church of England was to operate Perhaps most significantly as Bromiley shows his extensive citation of patristic sources established a precedent for his successors that continues today Written by one of the great ecclesiastical historians of the twentieth century Thomas Cranmer Theologian is the essential starting point for understanding Cranmer's influence and legacy in the Anglican church
