Secret Jungle:

Voyage to Himavat Navdeep Jethi, 2022-01-06 The one who is born has to die Is it applicable to human existence and the blue planet on which we live I am Shankar the ancient sailor Once upon a time when there were no Himalayas or the holy Ganga when even the humans were not the masters of the earth we had to escape towards a new destination in a vast ocean during the great war of nature and its creature to build the youngest mountain of the world But the voyage of life is not over yet as two new species are already evolving to replace humans after their extinction from the earth Vaidyanath a snow white physician of secret woods has declared me a peace warrior and a researcher of a secret to save the existence of the human race on this earth Will it be possible for me First of all I have no desire to be a saint or Baba and secondly I have little knowledge about pralaya If the world is proceeding to a destructive war what can a mortal human do about it Especially if he is not a politician baba or Superman Everything is unclear This voyage was not set in an ocean but in this new mortal body to search for the true meaning of being alive     The Phantom king, The Adventures of Phantom     Key to the Door Alan Sillitoe, 2016-04-19 An existential saga of working class life in a British factory town and military service in the torrid jungles of the Far East from award winning bestselling author Alan Sillitoe Key to the Door turns away from the boisterous pursuits of Arthur Seaton made infamous in Saturday Night and Sunday Morning and focuses instead on the quieter rebellions of his older brother Brian Brian s childhood and adolescence in the grimy streets of Nottingham are shaped by the Depression era struggles of his family the life and culture of the factory town and the love and bullying of his iron willed grandfather and erratic father When Brian reaches adulthood he frequents the local pubs works hard at a cardboard factory and runs into a sticky situation with a woman named Pauline that obliges him to marry her Soon though he is conscripted for the postwar occupation of Malaya and his true colors begin to show Brian declares that he only wears his uniform to collect his paycheck he shows contempt for the soldiers who obey the rules he pursues a relationship with an exotic Chinese dancer and he sends poetry into the jungle in Morse code At once a vivid family portrait and a study of the desolate companionless void of protest prevalent in postwar England Key to the Door establishes the Seaton Novels as a broad and sweeping saga of twentieth century British life set against the backdrop of Nottingham This ebook features an illustrated biography of Alan Sillitoe including rare images from the author s estate     The Phantom 18-28 (1966) King Comics Lee Falk, 2014-08-16 Probably the best known of all Phantom comics in the U S A this series of 73 colour comics was published between Nov 1962 and Jan 1977 under three different publishers The series began under the Gold Key label published by K K Publications as a quarterly 12c comic With issue 11 in 1965 the series changed to a bi monthly In 1966 the release schedule returned to a quarterly basis and only lasted two more issues before the first change of publisher occurred In total there were 17 Phantom comics with the Gold Key label All sported beautiful painted covers by George Wilson Three of these covers are reported to have been painted by another unknown artist 5 12 13 Most of the stories were adaptations of original Lee Falk newspaper strip stories with new

artwork by Bill Lignante King Features Syndicate became the new publisher of The Phantom comics releasing their first issue in September 1966 under the King Comics label They continued the numbering sequence from the Gold Key series labelling this issue 18 It was published as a 12c bi monthly until issue 23 in mid 1967 when it changed to a monthly schedule Issue 28 was the last to be published under the King Comics label cover price 15c only 6 issues into the monthly schedule Of the 11 Phantom comics published by King all but one of the stories were illustrated by Bill Lignante The first two issues contained adaptations of older Lee Falk stories and thereafter the stories were original Issue 25 contained a story entitled The Cold Fire Worshippers which was reprinted from the Italian comics series American Adventures published by Fratelli Spada and drawn by Senio Pratesi The cover artwork on the first three of these comics were by Bill Lignante while all others appear to have been lifted directly from panels of Sy Barry s newspaper strips The reigns of The Phantom comic were picked up again over a year later February 1969 by Charlton Press using the Charlton Comics label They continued with the same numbering sequence but skipped 29 and began with 30 This first issue featured uncredited artwork but the covers and all but two of the stories in the next year of bi monthly issues were by Jim Aparo Issue 33 was the first to contain a story by Pat Boyette and Bill Lignante was brought back to illustrate his last Phantom story which appeared in 35 From issue 39 onwards August 1970 the cover and story artwork was exclusively by Pat Boyette With only a handful of exceptions each issue then contained three 7 page stories The art and stories during this period can best be described as woeful Despite a considerable volume of negative feedback from readers Charlton persisted with Pat Boyette until 59 in December 1973 The declining sales must have struck a nerve with Charlton who d changed their name to Charlton Publications after 56 and the comic was revived six months later in 60 as The New Phantom In their search for new artists and writers Charlton first relied on stories from the Italian publisher Fratelli Spada before introducing us to the work of Don Sherwood and more notably Don Newton In total Don Newton contributed six beautifully illustrated 22 page stories 67 68 70 71 73 74 complete with painted cover artwork plus the cover for 69 Sales improved but not enough to save the flagging title The last issue of The Phantom comic was 74 in January 1977 A complete index of the individual stories in each issue of Charlton Comics is available HERE An analysis of the circulation data and the cover price builds an interesting picture of how this series eventually failed Cover price for the series commenced at 12c and was raised to 15c from 34 20c from 46 25c from 60 and finally 30c from 70 this was common for all American comics at the time At the same time the number of comics being printed was gradually falling but at a lesser rate than the number that were being sold This graph shows what happened By 1976 the paid circulation was less than 40% compared with a peak of 65% in 1965 Not even the brilliant efforts of Don Newton were enough to save the title the damage had already been done Simply put the editors at Charlton were too slow to make the necessary corrections The Phantom was subsequently absent from American newsstands at least in comic book form for the next 10 years
