Secret Of Saramount:

The Secret of Saramount Lillian Cheatham,1980-02      Paramount War God Shi HuangDi,2020-05-17 The War God Continent was vast and endless The nine forbidden lands were filled with a rain of blood and gore The Four Great Sacred Grounds had forged countless peerless experts The mysterious youth who had walked out from the forbidden area A man A saber He stepped on the geniuses and the strong becoming a supreme wargod And all of this from the moment Mu Tian arrived      Motion Picture Story Magazine ,1921      Mystery Movie Series of 1930s Hollywood Ron Backer,2012-08-15 This companion volume to Mystery Movie Series of 1940s Hollywood McFarland 2010 focuses on 22 series and 167 individual films primarily released during the 1930s It was a decade that featured some of the most famous cinema detectives of all time among them Charlie Chan Nick and Nora Charles Philo Vance Nancy Drew and such lesser known but equally entertaining figures as Hildegard Withers Torchy Blane Mr Moto Mr Wong and Brass Bancroft Each mystery movie series is placed within its historical context with emphasis on its source material and the changes or developments within the series over time Also included are reviews of all the series films analyzing the quality and cohesiveness of the mystery plotlines For titles based on literary sources a comparison between the film and the written work is provided      The Film Daily ... Year Book ,1929      Hollywood's Embassies Ross Melnick,2022-04-26 Winner 2024 Culbert Family Book Prize International Association for Media and History Winner 2022 Richard Wall Memorial Award Theatre Library Association Beginning in the 1920s audiences around the globe were seduced not only by Hollywood films but also by lavish movie theaters that were owned and operated by the major American film companies These theaters aimed to provide a quintessentially American experience Outfitted with American technology and accoutrements they allowed local audiences to watch American films in an American owned cinema in a distinctly American way In a history that stretches from Buenos Aires and Tokyo to Johannesburg and Cairo Ross Melnick considers these movie houses as cultural embassies He examines how the exhibition of Hollywood films became a constant flow of political and consumerist messaging selling American ideas products and power especially during fractious eras Melnick demonstrates that while Hollywood's marketing of luxury and consumption often struck a chord with local audiences it was also frequently tone deaf to new social cultural racial and political movements He argues that the story of Hollywood's global cinemas is not a simple narrative of cultural and industrial indoctrination and colonization Instead it is one of negotiation booms and busts successes and failures adoptions and rejections and a precursor to later conflicts over the spread of American consumer culture A truly global account Hollywood's Embassies shows how the entanglement of worldwide movie theaters with American empire offers a new way of understanding film history and the history of U S soft power      Heritage Auctions Vintage Movie Poster Auction Catalog #7008, Dallas, TX Grey Smith,2009-06

handful of classic Thirties and Forties movies she made for directors Frank Capra and George Stevens such as You Can't Take It With You Mr Smith Goes to Washington The More the Merrier and her last picture Shane released in 1953 But not many know that her 30 year film career dates from the early Twenties when she was an inexperienced contract player at Fox In fact Arthur appeared in more movies of the silent era mostly program Westerns and minor comedies than she made after the advent of sound Born with the name Gladys Greene in 1900 Jean Arthur renamed and reinvented herself when she arrived in Hollywood in 1922 fictionizing her background and subtracting eight years from her actual age Colleagues have recalled the eccentric personality and behind the scenes insecurities that negated her popularity with the press and inhibited her later career as a stage and TV star prompting her eventual retreat into seclusion All of these exploits and more are detailed in this comprehensive biofilmography by Jerry Vermilye a much published author who tells his story in a brisk non judgmental style that has drawn critical praise for his volumes on such legendary film personalities as Cary Grant Barbara Stanwyck Bette Davis Charles Bronson Audrey Hepburn Buster Crabbe Lawrence Olivier and Elizabeth Taylor This book includes casts production credits and critical commentary on Jean Arthur's many films as well as 100 scene stills portraits and candids many of them are photographs from the author's private collection Children's Films Ian

Signature Auction 2005 Catalog #617 Ivy Press,2005-06 The Rise and Fall of Paramount Records Scott Blackwood,2023-03 Founded in 1917 Paramount Records incongruously was one of several homegrown record labels of a Wisconsin chair making company The company pinned no outsized hopes on Paramount Its founders knew nothing of the music business and they had arrived at the scheme of producing records only to drive sales of the expensive phonograph cabinets they had recently begun manufacturing Lacking the resources and the interest to compete for top talent Paramount's earliest recordings gained little foothold with the listening public On the threshold of bankruptcy the label embarked on a new business plan selling the music of Black artists to Black audiences It was a wildly successful move with Paramount eventually garnering many of the biggest selling titles in the race records era Inadvertently the label accomplished what others could not making blues jazz and folk music performed by Black artists a popular and profitable genre Paramount featured a deep roster of legendary performers including Louis Armstrong Charley Patton Ethel Waters Son House Fletcher Henderson Skip James Alberta Hunter Blind Blake King Oliver Blind Lemon Jefferson Ma Rainey Johnny Dodds Papa Charlie Jackson and Jelly Roll Morton Scott Blackwood s The Rise and Fall of Paramount Records is the story of happenstance But it is also a tale about the sheer force of the Great Migration and the legacy of the music etched into the shellacked grooves of a 78 rpm record With Paramount Records Black America found its voice Through creative nonfiction Blackwood brings to life the gifted artists and record producers who used Paramount to revolutionize American music Felled by the Great Depression the label stopped recording in 1932 leaving a legacy of sound pressed into cheap 78s that is among the most treasured and influential in American history The Ladies' Home Journal ,1920 Motion Picture Series and Sequels Bernard A.
