English, 1999 Presents twelve literature based units for studying geography providing general information about the location topography climate flora and fauna and unique features of each region and including a selection of children s books that may be used to further understanding of the focus area

Outdoor Learning Environments Helen Little, 2020-07-25 Educators have a key pedagogical role in promoting early years outdoor play in natural environments Active outdoor play involving risk taking has been linked to positive effects on social health and behaviour and encourages physical activity and motor skill development At the same time it has been recognised that opportunities for children to experience outdoor learning have been reduced in recent decades due to the impacts of technology urbanisation and social change This book brings together renowned authors with research and professional experience in a range of disciplines to provide a comprehensive guide to developing positive and engaging outdoor learning environments in the early years Part 1 looks at pedagogy and outdoor environments and considers the value of risk taking and developing a young child s appreciation of the natural world Part 2 examines the key principles involved in the design and planning of these spaces such as applying the relevant equipment standards and regulations Part 3 explores how educators can develop an understanding of children s own perspectives on outdoor spaces including promoting agency and recognising the importance of private playspaces Part 4 examines different cultural perspectives on outdoor play including Indigenous approaches while Part 5 considers the range of experiences possible beyond purposefully designed spaces from visiting nature reserves to exploring urban environments A much needed and comprehensive resource for pre service teachers and educators of young children that encompasses philosophies theories pedagogy and practice for purposeful engagement of children in all kinds of outdoor spaces in Australia Dr Kumara Ward Director of Academic Program Early Childhood Education Western Sydney University This seminal work will provide a shared language and framework for educators policy developers community builders and researchers in exploring the justifications for engaging children in well considered outdoor learning places and spaces Leanne Grogan School of Education Outdoor and Environmental Studies La Trobe University Tales Told Sometimes in Earnest 2nd Edition David J. Pilling,2011-08 What is the human mind What is its template The mind reveals itself in what it does Do not to ask what the mind is but ask what it does and be not preoccupied how it does it A piece of wood with metal attach to one end does not tell us the nature of the hammer But driving a nail with such a metal wood object reveals the nature of the hammer So it is with the mind Its nature is revealed in what it does But who is the human mind Is it your being or your features Three hundred an fifty stories bring us closer to the answer The mind is put to work because we are drawn inexorably into the future and always with a degree of uncertainty sometimes watchful other times unaware of what will happen next and many times not wanting to know The purpose of the mind is to know what will happen next The angel of the iceberg, and other stories and parables John Todd,1859 450 More Story Stretchers for the Primary Grades Shirley C. Exploring Time and Place Through Play Hilary Cooper,2012-09-10 This book is packed with fun and exciting activities that enable the child to make sense of the world that they live in and relate it to their own experiences in order to enhance their personal and social development The regional travel guide for Olt (Romania) ,2025-09-24 Religion, Culture, and the Monstrous Joseph P. Laycock,Natasha L. Mikles,2021-02-15 Religion Culture and the Monstrous Of Gods and Monsters explores the intersection of the emerging field of monster theory within religious studies With case studies from ancient Mesopotamia to contemporary valleys of the Himalayas to ghost tours in Savannah Georgia the volume examines the variegated nature of the monstrous as well as the cultural functions of monsters in shaping how we see the world and ourselves In this the authors constructively assess the state of the two fields of monster theory and religious studies and propose new directions in how these fields can inform each other The case studies included illuminate the ways in which monsters reinforce the categories through which a given culture sees the world At the same time the volume points to how monsters appear to question disrupt or challenge those categories creating an unsettling or surplus of meaning *Stories by American Authors: Chaplin, H.
