Women of the Mafia Felia Allum, 2024-07-15 Women of the Mafia dives into the Neapolitan criminal underworld of the Camorra as seen and lived by the women who inhabit it It tells their life stories and unpacks the gender dynamics by examining their participation as active agents in the organization as leaders managers foot soldiers and enablers Felia Allum shows that these women are true partners in crime The author offers an innovative interdisciplinary analysis that demystifies the notion that the Camorra is a sexist male centric organization She links her analysis of Camorra culture within the wider Neapolitan context to show how mothers and women act and are treated in the private sphere of the household and how the family helps explain the power women have found in the Neapolitan Camorra It is civil society and law enforcement agencies that continue to see the Camorra using traditional gender assumptions which render women irrelevant and lacking independent agency in the criminal underworld In Women of the Mafia Allum debunks these assumptions by revealing the power and influence of women in the Camorra

Knowing and Not Knowing Claudia Lapping,Tamara Bibby,2018-02-02 The social world is saturated with powerful formations of knowledge that colonise individual and institutional identities Some knowledge emerges as legitimised and authoritative other knowledge is resisted or repressed Psychosocial approaches highlight the unstable basis of knowledge learning and research of knowing and not knowing How do we come to formulate knowledge in the ways that we do Are there other possible ways of knowing that are too difficult or unsettling for us to begin to explore Do we need the authority of legitimised institutions and regularized methods to build secure knowledge What might it mean to build insecure edifices of knowledge How might we trouble notions of knowledge in processes of teaching learning and research This collection addresses these questions drawing on a range of psychoanalytic and social theory from Bion Freud and Lacan to Derrida Kristeva and Zizek Showcasing work from North America Europe and Japan contributors explore writing as a practice that can stabilise or unsettle subjectivities the unconscious relations between school practices subjectivities educational spaces and ideologies implications of the productive energies and the deadening inwardness associated with mourning and melancholia for formal and informal learning and the authority we invest in apparently rigid or ephemeral institutional spaces Strongly empirical as well as theoretical in approach this collection will be of interest to students and academics seeking ways to resist normative orders of legitimacy and coherence in education and research This book was originally published as a special issue of Pedagogy Culture Society Delirious Naples Pellegrino D'Acerno,Stanislao G. Pugliese,2018-12-11 This book is addressed to lovers of paradoxes and we have done our utmost to assemble a stellar cast of Neapolitan and American scholars intellectuals and artists writers who are strong and open minded enough to wrestle with and illuminate the paradoxes through which Naples presents itself Naples is a mysterious metropolis Difficult to understand it is an enigma to outsiders and also to the Neapolitans themselves Its very impenetrableness is what makes it so deliriously and irresistibly attractive The essays attempt to give some hints to the answer of the enigma without parsing it into neat scholastic formulas In doing this the book will be an important means of opening Naples to students scholars and members of the community at large who are engaged in identity work A primary goal has been to establish a dialogue with leading Neapolitan intellectuals and artists and ultimately ensure that the deliriously Neapolitan dance continues The Big, Bad Book of Mike , Defining and Defying Organised Crime Felia Allum,Francesca Longo,Daniela Irrera,Panos Kostakos,2010-02-25 Organized crime is now a major threat to all industrial and non industrial countries Using an inter disciplinary and comparative approach this book examines the nature of this threat By analysing the existing official institutional discourse on organized crime it examines whether or not it has an impact on perceptions of the threat and on the reality of organized crime The book first part of the book explores both the paradigm and the rationale of policy output in the fight against organized crime and also exposes the often hidden internal assumptions embedded in policy making The second part examines the perceptions of organized crime as expressed by various actors for example the general public in the Balkans and in Japan the criminal justice system in USA and circles within the international scientific community Finally the third part provides an overall investigation into the realities of organized crime with chapters that survey its empirical manifestations in various parts of the world This book will be of interest to students and scholars of international relations criminology security studies and practitioners
