The Uses of Photography Jill Dawsey, Pamela M. Lee, Benjamin Young, Judith Rodenbeck, David Antin, 2016-09-21 The Uses of Photography examines a network of artists who were active in Southern California between the late 1960s and early 1980s and whose experiments with photography opened the medium to a profusion of new strategies and subjects These artists introduced urgent social issues and themes of everyday life into the seemingly neutral territory of conceptual art through photographic works that took on hybrid forms from books and postcards to video and text and image installations Tracing a crucial history of photoconceptual practice The Uses of Photography focuses on an artistic community that formed in and around the young University of California San Diego founded in 1960 and its visual arts department founded in 1967 Artists such as Eleanor Antin Allan Kaprow Fred Lonidier Martha Rosler Allan Sekula and Carrie Mae Weems employed photography and its expanded forms as a means to dismantle modernist autonomy to contest notions of photographic truth and to engage in political critique The work of these artists shaped emergent accounts of postmodernism in the visual arts and their influence is felt throughout the global contemporary art world today Contributors include David Antin Pamela M Lee Judith Rodenbeck and Benjamin J Young Published in association with the Museum of Contemporary Art San Diego Exhibition dates Museum of Contemporary Art San Diego September 24 2016 January 2 2017

The Sovereignty of Quiet Kevin Quashie, 2012-07-25 African American culture is often considered expressive dramatic and even defiant In The Sovereignty of Quiet Kevin Quashie explores quiet as a different kind of expressiveness one which characterizes a person's desires ambitions hungers vulnerabilities and fears Quiet is a metaphor for the inner life and as such enables a more nuanced understanding of black culture The book revisits such iconic moments as Tommie Smith and John Carlos's protest at the 1968 Mexico City Olympics and Elizabeth Alexander's reading at the 2009 inauguration of Barack Obama Quashie also examines such landmark texts as Gwendolyn Brooks's Maud Martha James Baldwin's The Fire Next Time and Toni Morrison's Sula to move beyond the emphasis on resistance and to suggest that concepts like surrender dreaming and waiting can remind us of the wealth of black humanity Why is that Art? Terry Barrett, 2017 Why is that art Why is it in an art museum Who says it's art Why is it good Why Is That Art Third Edition introduces students to theories of art through the presentation of contemporary works that include abstract and representational painting animated film monumental sculpture performance art photographs relational art and video installations Ideal for courses in aesthetics art theory art criticism and the philosophy of art this unique book provides students with a newfound appreciation for contemporary art scholarship and reasoned argumentation Seeing America University of Rochester. Memorial Art Gallery, 2006 A stunning full color volume that examines 82 pieces in the University of Rochester Memorial Art Gallery's American collection and their connections to American history culture literature and politics Seeing America is the first ever catalog of the University of Rochester Memorial Art Gallery's American collection Founded in 1913 the Memorial Art Gallery was created in conjunction with the University of Rochester so that it would function within a scholarly milieu yet at the same time perform service as a community museum From its conception it has been an ardent advocate for American art which so many counterpart institutions snubbed until at least the 1930s and more often until well after World War II in favor of European and Asian art The 336 page full color volume examines 82 objects and their connections to American history culture literature and politics The 73 articles present a running commentary on each piece by knowledgeable and thoughtful contemporary scholars and artists writing with expertise and insight ultimately presenting a new and deeper understanding that enhances the reader viewer's appreciation of the work The tour ranges from Colonial times to the twenty first century from Maine to Florida to the far West from mighty historical subjects to intimate byways from august figures and events to the humblest and most anonymous The diversity of American experience on display here reminds us that the best American art is inextricably bound up with the essential truths of American experience A to Z of American Women in the Visual Arts Carol Kort, Liz Sonneborn, 2014-05-14 Presents biographical profiles of American women of achievement in the field of visual arts including birth and death dates major accomplishments and historical influence The Black Female Body in American Literature and Art Caroline Brown, 2013-02-28 This book examines how African American writers and visual artists interweave icon and inscription in order to represent the black female body traditionally rendered alien and inarticulate within Western discursive and visual systems Brown considers how the writings of Toni Morrison Gayl Jones Paule Marshall Edwidge Danticat Jamaica Kincaid Andrea Lee Gloria Naylor and Martha Southgate are bound to such contemporary postmodern visual artists as Lorna Simpson Carrie Mae Weems Kara Walker Betye Saar and Faith Ringgold While the artists and authors rely on radically different media photos collage video and assembled objects as opposed to words and rhythm both sets of intellectual activists insist on the primacy of the black aesthetic Both assert artistic agency and cultural continuity in the face of the oppression social transformation and cultural multiplicity of the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries This book examines how African American performative practices mediate the tension between the ostensibly de racialized body politic and the hyper racialized black female body reimagining the cultural and political ground that guides various articulations of American national belonging Brown shows how and why black women writers and artists matter as agents of change how and why the form and content of their works must be recognized and reconsidered in the increasingly frenzied arena of cultural production and political debate

Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Photography, 3-Volume Set Lynne Warren, 2005-11-15 The Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Photography explores the vast international scope of twentieth century photography and explains that history with a wide ranging interdisciplinary manner This unique approach covers the aesthetic history of photography as an evolving art and documentary form while also recognizing it as a developing technology and cultural force This Encyclopedia presents the important developments movements photographers photographic institutions and theoretical aspects of the field along with information about equipment techniques and practical applications of photography To bring this history alive for the reader the set is illustrated in black and white throughout and each volume contains a color plate section A useful glossary of terms is also included The Gender Politics of HIV/AIDS in Women Nancy Goldstein, Jennifer L Manlowe, 1997-06 From their posts at the center of the pandemic in the laboratory the academy clinics and community based organizations experts such as Evelyn Hammonds Risa Denenberg Michelle Murrain and Paul Farmer criticize blind spots in the recognition and treatment of HIV in women and articulate accessible and practical solutions to specific areas of difficulty
