Losing the Sacred David Torevell, 1998 The Trauma of Monastic Reform Alison I. Beach, 2017-11-02 This book opens a window on the lived experience of monastic reform in the twelfth century Drawing on a variety of textual and material sources from the south German monastery of Petershausen it begins with the local process of reform and moves out into intertwined regional social political and ecclesiastical landscapes Beach reveals how the shock of reform initiated decades of anxiety at Petershausen and raised doubts about the community's communal identity its shifting internal contours and boundaries and its place within the broader spiritual and social landscapes of Constance and Swabia The Trauma of Monastic Reform goes beyond reading monastic narratives of reform as retrospective expressions of support for the deeds and ideals of a past generation of reformers to explore the real human impact that the process could have both on the individuals who comprised the target community and on those who lived for generations in its aftermath Reforming the Liturgy John F. Baldovin, 2016-03-24 2009 Catholic Press Association Award Winner Perhaps no liturgical scholar of our time is better able than John Baldovin to write with clarity and accuracy about the meaning of the church's liturgy and the history of its development in the last half century In this summary volume on the reform of the liturgy since the Second Vatican Council Baldovin pinpoints and assesses both sympathetically and critically the objections to changes in the liturgy since the council focusing on philosophical historical critical and theological questions After addressing each criticism in turn in a final chapter he assesses the critique of post Vatican II liturgy as a whole affirming what is accurate and necessary rejecting what is backward looking and proposing a set of principles to guide future development No one who studies or participates in

New Catholic Feminism Tina Beattie,2006 It is hard to over

Religious Emotions Walter Van Herck, Willem Lemmens, 2009-05-05 In recent decades contemporary Anglo American philosophy has seen a boom in publications on the subject of the emotions Most publications focus on the cognitive value of emotions and on their moral significance The role which emotions play in religion however has so far received little attention In this volume a number of scholars present their research on religious emotions Is there a category of religious emotions What is so distinctive about them Was there really a Christian inspired repression of the emotions Or did Christianity also make use of the human emotional potential How is the relation between religion and emotions conditioned by the process of secularisation How and why did a shift from the concept of passion to that of emotion occur from the eighteenth century on This collection includes systematical treatments as well as historical approaches of these issues The last part gives some paradigmatical cases of religious emotions like emptiness and oceanic feeling In the study of what constitutes a human being neither religion nor emotion can be neglected The reader is invited to reflect on their interaction
