depicting the strength and foibles of legal aesthetics Iconoclastic Sex Henry Walter Spaulding III, 2024-03-13 Christian sexual ethics operates from a place of privilege when it does not consider those impacted by its moral prescriptions A large majority of publications on Christian sexual ethics consider choices and images abstracted from lived conditions of the people called to make these decisions As such it leaves out many for whom sex is neither welcome nor a choice As such these same texts present images of sexual subjects that marginalize those that do not fit As the book presents sexuality both Christian and otherwise prioritizes a language of purity that strangles the life of those imaged impure The present book remedies this emphasis through the language of iconoclasm that blasphemes these images and opens theological reflection beyond the boundary of image based approaches Utilizing a qualitative study of survivors of trafficking and those who grew up under evangelical purity teachings Spaulding narrates sexual ethics in light of their testimonies and the theological resources of iconoclasm to articulate a more just and loving sexuality The new emphasis on sexual ethics not only resists the prescriptions that create the conditions of sex trafficking but the creation of new communities capable of solidarity and mutuality with those caught in the web of trafficking Anamnesis and the Eucharist Revd Dr Julie Gittoes, 2013-05-28 Engaging with contemporary Anglican theology of the Eucharist through the concept of anamnesis this book seeks to enrich the Church's understanding of transformation and mission Eucharistic theology finds its place in the midst of much contemporary Anglican theology but little attention has been given to the interrelationship between mission and the Eucharist Julie Gittoes engages with the work of David Ford Rowan Williams and Catherine Pickstock who share a common concern to engage with the way in which the Eucharist shapes the life of the worshipping community as the body of Christ Focusing on the concept of anamnesis remembrance or memorial Gittoes highlights a language of connection in the way in which anamnesis describes the integration of historical sacramental and ecclesial embodiments of Christ The Eucharist looks back to the saving events of Christ's life death and resurrection through it the Church is nourished with the body of Christ participating in it anticipates the eschatological fulfilment of the Kingdom This book explores the connection between the source event of the Church's life and the transformative encounter with Christ in the Eucharist the effects of which are seen in social ethical political action and the Church's mission Recovering the Icon Patrick Doolan, 2008 Leonid Ouspensky 1902-1987 settled in France following the Russian Revolution and worked as a talented but struggling commercial painter prior to discovering the icon which became his life's work Orthodox iconography had been in full decline since the seventeenth century and Ouspensky set out to recover the genuine sources of Eastern Christian art and to recover the Tradition that had spawned them In this work Schemamonk Patrick Doolan a pupil of Ouspensky has chosen and commented on more than 100 of Ouspensky's representative works Icons and sculptures and wood and stone as well as pressed metal are included giving us a broad range of the talent of this masterful teacher BOOK JACKET Compassionate Christ, Compassionate People Bob Hurd, 2019-02-11 2020 Association of Catholic Publishers first place award resources for liturgy 2020 Catholic Press

Association first place award liturgy soft cover Spirituality is a motion a responsive movement of heart mind and spirit to the life of God moving within us Starting from his Roman Catholic roots but working ecumenically Bob Hurd explores this notion of spirituality in two parts Part 1 places it in the theological framework of Creation Grace Incarnation concluding that its specific form is participation in Christ s self emptying love of God humankind and creation Part 2 investigates this kenotic spirituality liturgically exploring how it comes to expression in the ritual stages of Gathering Word Eucharistic Prayer Communion and Sending Comparing and contrasting each stage with corresponding patterns in various Protestant traditions Hurd lays out the possibility of a spirituality common to Christians of various confessions The Meaning of Icons Léonide Ouspensky, Vladimir Lossky, 1982 The nature of the icon cannot be grasped by means of pure art criticism nor by the adoption of a sentimental point of view Its forms are based on the wisdom contained in the theological and liturgical writings of the Eastern Orthodox Church and are intimately bound up with the experience of the contemplative life The present work is the first of its kind to give a reliable introduction to the spiritual background of this art The introduction into the meaning and language of the icons by Ouspensky imparts to us in an admirable way the spiritual conceptions of the Eastern Orthodox Church which are often so foreign to us but without the knowledge of which we cannot possibly understand the world of the icon Back cover Encyclopedia of Contemporary Russian Culture Tatiana Smorodinskaya, Karen kinds of graphic communications from advertisements to assembly instructions Heavenly Bodies Sigurdson,2016 Deep and wide study of 2 000 years of Christian thought on the human body Does Christianity scorn our bodies Friedrich Nietzsche thought so and many others since him have thought the same Ola Sigurdson contends to the contrary that Christianity understood properly in fact affirms human embodiment Presenting his constructive contributions to theology in relation to both historical and contemporary conceptions of the body Sigurdson begins by investigating the anthropological implications of the doctrine of the incarnation He then delves into the concept of the gaze and discusses a specifically Christian gaze of faith that focuses on God embodied in Jesus Finally he weaves these strands into a contemporary Christian theology of embodiment Sigurdson s profound engagement with the whole history of Christian life and thought not only elucidates the spectrum of Christian perspectives on the body but also models a way of thinking historically and systematically that other theologians will find stimulating and challenging Five Albanian Villages Antonio Lauria,Valbona Flora,Kamela Guza,2020-12-27 This book is the result of a research project designed and carried out at the Department of Architecture University of Florence This research was based on the transfer of knowledge from members of the Albanian Diaspora in Italy university students young architects and researchers to their home country This unique process blazed a trail in the Albania related studies by creating a methodology which could be replicated not only in Albanian rural contexts but also elsewhere The book constitutes a structured tool for generating sustainable and socially inclusive territorial development processes in five lesser known Albanian cultural sites Their tangible and intangible cultural heritage was seen as a driving factor for triggering development processes aimed at improving the inhabitants quality of life and strengthening local identity and social networks Through concrete proposals and strategies the book offers scenarios and solutions capable of enhancing the potential of each village and at the same time counteracting the effects of land abandonment that so often characterise them Festival Icons for the Christian Year John Baggley,2000-01-01 This text provides the general reader with an insight into the most important icons of the Church s year in their setting It discusses the season of the year and the festival in which they figure and provides the words of prayer and liturgy which are used with them Rowan's Rule Rupert Shortt,2009-02-24 A fascinating fair minded depiction of Archbishop Rowan Williams Rowan Williams is a complex and controversial figure Widely revered for his personal qualities he is also an intellectual giant who towers over almost all his predecessors as Archbishop of Canterbury Among other achievements he has trounced the atheist Richard Dawkins and published over twenty well regarded books including several volumes of poetry and a major study of Dostoevsky Yet he is also one of the most reviled church leaders in modern history Long before facing calls to step down after his lecture on sharia law in early 2008 he had been accused of heresy on account of his pro gay views He has disappointed many of his own supporters as well So how has high office changed Rowan Williams Has he been bullied and manipulated Or is he perhaps playing a long game obliged to rate church unity above the pursuit of his own vision at a time when the Anglican Communion has never looked more unstable Rupert Shortt already the author of an acclaimed introduction to the Archbishop's thought offers answers to these and other questions in this authoritative biography He explores how the events of the Archbishop's remarkable life have shaped his beliefs and practices today Of particular interest is the riveting account of Williams's experience near the World Trade Center towers on the morning of September 11 201 Written with Williams's cooperation Rowan's Rule not only elucidates his ideas but gives a compelling portrait of a private and in some ways surprisingly vulnerable man

Making See C. M. A. van Ekris, 2018-06-20 What is theologically and homiletically happening in prophetic sermons This empirical theological study offers an analysis of the prophetic dimension in contemporary practices of preaching including sermons from Bonhoeffer King and Tutu and from Dutch local contexts After a phenomenological opening five theological concepts are extracted from the studied sermons exposing destructiva interrupting dominant discourses recognising the Word overcoming destructiva and edifying the congregation In this study prophetic speech is reconstructed as an illuminative interplay between epiphanic and inductive aspects
