Taticchi, 2010-01-22 Measuring and managing the performance of a business is one of the most genuine desires of management. Balanced scorecard, the performance prism and activity based management are the most popular frameworks in this setting. Based on the findings of R. G. Eccles' acclaimed Performance Measurement Manifesto 1991, this book introduces new contexts and themes of application and presents emerging research areas related to business performance measurement and management, e.g. SMEs and sustainability. As a result of the 1st International Summer School Piero Lunghi on Perspectives of Business Performance Management, this book is written both for students and academics as well as for practitioners looking for new yet proven ways to measure and manage business performance Business Performance Measurement in the Metal Finishing Industry Mike Dietrich, 2016 Criticism has indicated that inadequate academic observance has been spent on the adaption and implementation of generic Business Performance Measurement (BPM) models to specific industry and company contexts, leading to a suboptimal practical feasibility. In reflecting these concerns, an approach to improve BPM feasibility is developed based on an industry's specific characteristics. These characteristics are then linked to corresponding generic BPM models. In this vein, practitioners shall be assisted in designing and implementing a sustainable BPM system. This approach gets empirically validated for the Metal Finishing Industry in Germany and the United Kingdom. Subject: Business
