Media Analysis Techniques Commtext Series:

Media Analysis Techniques Arthur Asa Berger, 1998-04-21 The Second Edition of the bestselling Media Analysis Techniques provides concise explanations of four perspectives to media analysis semiological Marxist psychoanalytical and sociological and then demonstrates how these various analyses might be applied to the various popular media such as literature advertisements and political propaganda While retaining the classic coverage presented in the first edition Berger has revised and expanded the volume to include a number of new features including a new chapter on advertising enhanced discussions on methodology a glossary of terms a study guide to help students focus on important concepts a number of learning games exercises and activities and new drawings and illustrations

Media Analysis Techniques Arthur Asa Berger, 1982-05 Berger reviews four approaches to media analysis semiological psychoanalytical Marxist and sociological He describes them in enough detail for students to conduct analyses of their own and shows their applications to analyses of a feature film American football advertisements and all news radio

Binary Oppositions in American Society and Culture Arthur Asa Berger, 2024-02-06 This book which explores the social psychological cultural and political significance of the concept of binarism is intertextual in nature and borrows from the ideas and writings of scholars whose ideas help us understand binarism and from some modified and updated versions of my previous writings The concept of intertextuality is derived from the writings of the Russian communications theorist M M Bakhtin and his theories about dialogism which are of central importance in this book Intertextuality is a concept that refers to the interconnectedness of texts where one text refers to quotes or incorporates elements from another text It is the idea that no text exists in isolation but it is influenced by and refers to other texts that came before it Binaries is also multi disciplinary and is a cultural studies analysis that uses semiotics psychoanalytic theory sociological theory and Marxist theory to investigate the role binary oppositions play in shaping American culture character and society

Furor Scribendi: A Passion for Writing Arthur Asa Berger, 2024-12-03 This book is about the creative process and also offers readers insights into what it is like to be a writer When I was young I never could have imagined the career I would have but it turns out I was afflicted by the Furor Scribendi and was to spend much of my life writing books and articles as well as writing 106 journals which I started writing in 1954 In this book I discuss my experiences with editors and publishers and also offer excerpts from the books I discuss so you can see what I write about and how I express myself Not all my books were well received My favorite review of my books was written about my book The TV Guided America published in the mid seventies The reviewer who did not like my psychoanalytic and semiotic perspectives wrote Berger is to the study of television what Idi Amin is to tourism in Uganda At that time Amin was killing thousands of people in Uganda who were against his regime Another book was reviewed by someone who wrote How do you review a book that never should have been published A colleague of mine at San Francisco State University once told me that my books were all unpublishable and that I only got them published because my editors were na ve When I asked him why he had never published a book he explained My books would be too good to be published Fortunately I found any number of naive editors who published my books My experiences as an author as reflected in my books are the subject of this book I don't deal with all my books but discuss enough of them for you to see what it is like dealing with editors and publishers After reading it you will have a better idea of what is like to write a book and be an author Gender and Academe Sara Munson Deats, Lagretta Tallent Lenker, 1994 This collection of new essays from 29 feminist scholars in a range of humanities and social science disciplines argues that pedagogical methods as well as curricula and textbooks should reflect feminist theories and emphases At the same time the scholars demonstrate that feminists can advocate both hierarchy and equality authority and freedom order and flexibility objectivity and subjectivity reason and feeling without being guilty of philosophical treason Contributors Evelyn Ashton Jones Meredith Butler John Clifford Blanche Radford Curry Sara Munson Deats Gloria DeSole Janet Mason Ellerby Mary Ann Gawelek Brenda Gross Judith M Green Suzan Harrison Kathleen Day Hulbert Carolyn Johnston Lagretta Tallent Lenker Linda E Lucas Carol Mattingly Colleen McNally Maggie Mulqueen Virginia Nees Hatlen Judith Ochshorn Gary A Olson Sharyl Bender Peterson Eleanor Roffman Fran Schattenberg Lisa S Starks Jill Mattuck Tarule Charlotte Templin Arnold S Wolfe Linda Woodbridge Judith Worell Social Research in Communication and Law Jeremy Cohen, Timothy Gleason, 1990 It is not unusual for communication and media researchers to study law or legal issues nor is it uncommon for legal scholars to study communication law But it is something of a departure for the two to come together as has been accomplished in this innovative volume Social Research in Communication and Law is a practical guide for conducting research involving both legal and communication questions Offering rich citations and examples from existing literature this engaging volume shows communication law scholars how to make more effective use of the methodologies employed in communication science Topics addressed include reconciling communication and law social research approaches to libel and theories pertaining to freedom of Primary Industries Facing Global Markets Frank Asche, 2006 Food producers and other producers of primary products such as forestry increasingly face international competition and the markets for their products increasingly become globalized This process can provide promising opportunities to reach new markets and to increase value added by marketing new products But there are challenges though as new competitors show up in the domestic markets and access to the retail outlets is denied Norway is a country with a successful export oriented aquaculture industry and more protected forestry and agricultural sectors This book explores some of the lessons learned from these sectors in coping with international competition and in exploiting the opportunities that are offered by more open markets The perspectives adopted come from marketing economics as well as multidisciplinary social sciences Each perspective is essential to paint a reliable picture of the opportunities and challenges facing primary industries Mass Media James B. Martin, 2002 Mass media has become an integral part of the human experience News travels around the world in a split second affecting people in other countries in untold ways Although being on top of the news may be good at least for news junkies mass media also transmits values or the lack thereof condenses complex events and thoughts to simplified sound bites and often ignores the essence of an event or story The selective bibliography gathers the books and magazine literature over the previous ten years while providing access through author title and subject indexes

Media Economics Robert G. Picard, 1989-10 The media of Western Europe and the US are for the most part capitalist ventures operated by private parties for the purpose of generating profit and are thus subject to the operational principles of the market system Even non profit orientated media such as public broadcasting are influenced
