Century Path , 1907 The Transcendence of Desire Tom James, David True, 2023-11-28 The secular age is not a smooth untroubled process of accumulation and advance but an uneven and unpredictable series of clashes of interest Charles Taylor's immanent frame cannot be construed merely as a phenomenon within religion and culture but urgently needs to be understood in political and economic terms i.e. as a class project The failure of the secular vividly displayed in the crumbling legitimacy of global institutions and in the spectacle of police violence both calls for and makes possible a renewal of political agency Tom James and David True argue that a theology of the cross has a distinctive potential today it can pierce the sacred aura of normalcy around the consensual anti politics of the neoliberal order so that a vision of a world beyond today's racialized capitalism can emerge But they contend that we don't need to forsake the emancipatory aims of modernity nor retreat to local communities As an alternative to these weak strategies they offer a constructive and cruciform account of political agency that includes both prophetic resistance and practical wisdom each embedded in contemporary struggles for freedom that they argue embody divine desire for a common world
