Good Sean Cubitt, 2025-04-01 What is the good life for me for us for the cosmos Good is an ecocritical enquiry into ethical and political dimensions of aesthetics Following Aristotle's lead it starts with ethics as the question concerning what is the good life for me moving on to politics as the good life for us Like Aristotle between ethics and politics it inserts the question of the good life for you and me the question of love In the end which is where we all live today it goes beyond Aristotle's human centred approach insisting that the good life cannot be thought or lived without including technologies and ecologies A truly cosmopolitan politics is a politics of the cosmos Learning from indigenous cultures it speaks from and with nature and machines in the form of gods and ancestors Packed with examples from banking apps to cave art economic manifestos to cookery passing through music painting poetry and film the book evokes critical traditions from across the world to present a lucid and accessible case for decolonial and ecocritical aesthetics
