Religion, Globalization and Political Culture in the Third World Jeff Haynes, 2016-07-27 A unique focus on the relationship between religion and political culture in the Third World using a comparative and thematic approach Specific issues of religion politics interaction in the Third World in recent times include the rise of Islamic fundamentalist groups throughout the Middle East and other parts of the Muslim world the political effects of the decline of Catholicism and the rapid growth of Protestant evangelical sects in Latin America communal conflict between Hindu nationalist groups and the politicisation of Buddhism in South East Asia The common effect of such developments is to challenge existing forms of relationship between states and societies with religion used as a political resource

Media and the Politics of Culture Nickesia S. Gordon, 2008 There is a great deal of discussion about media globalization particularly television especially as it is being driven by the spread of satellite technology and cable While certain schools of thought view this trend as promoting cultural heterogeneity and the diversification of programme content this book argues otherwise It discusses the influence of globalization on Jamaica s television industry Specifically it looks at how market liberalization globalization s twin force has lead to government divestment of the television sector and increased private ownership and consolidation within this sector It revisits the cultural imperialism debate within the context of media globalization and locates Jamaica s position within this milieu It suggests that old concerns relating to cultural imperialism are still relevant in new ideas such as cultural proximity and programme modeling The book also discusses the implications that increased private ownership of television media in Jamaica have for public broadcasting services especially in an age of consolidation Finally the book examines current media policies and discusses whether or not they are adequate to address the present media environment within which the market model of media management encourages anti competitive behaviour among media firms

Fourth International Handbook of Globalisation, Education and Policy Research Joseph Zajda,2024-12-04 This handbook provides a global synthesis of on going research in education and policy change during the last decade It examines discourses of globalisation from the perspectives of the global North and global South Major theories of globalisation and education policy reforms employed in the handbook are classified into two broad categories structuralist and post structuralist The handbook while examining the impact of global trends in different societies cultures and educational settings attempts to synthesise different meta theories of globalisation and their impact on societies and educational systems It discusses the continued interaction of global national and local forces and influences especially the importance of standards and quality driven education reforms the need to overcome inequality of access to quality schools and aims at providing quality education for all students In addition the impact of neo liberal ideology on education is examined in terms of its impact on ongoing standards driven education reforms globally The handbook analyses neo liberalism in education and its focus on increasing global competitiveness accountability efficiency quality standards driven policy reforms and educational stratification The impact of globalisation on education policy and reforms is a strategically significant issue for us all The unifying conceptual framework used in the handbook to critique strategic significance of globalisation is grounded in discourse CDA and critical theory The work offers the latest findings concerning major issues in education and policy directions such as global social and economic inequality neo liberal standard driven education and policy reforms performing schools in the performing culture education for human rights and social justice new perspectives on education for sustainability dominant and effective models of values education in schools and the ubiquitous impact of ICTs on education systems

Globalization Lui Hebron,John F. Stack Jr.,2016-09-22 Now in a fully revised and updated edition this balanced and clearly written text explores globalization and its impact from economic political social environmental and cultural perspectives Providing a framework and platform for student learning the book gives readers the tools to unravel the complexities of globalization in all its facets Lui Hebron and John Stack note that as a hot button term globalization is used to describe any number of changes within among and between societies and states Their goal isto reduce the noise engulfing debates and interpretations of one of the most dynamic contested applauded and disparaged phenomena of the twenty first century Arguing that current assessments both positive and negative of globalization are overblown the authors treat the dramatically changing landscapes of world politics as less a revolution than an evolution of already established structures and patterns of transnational relations They trace how globalization has affected individuals societies states and intergovernmental and supranational organizations Making sense of a world seemingly smaller and incomprehensibly larger simultaneously centralizing and fragmenting Globalization Debunking the Myths offers both an indispensable introduction for undergraduates and a concise review for more advanced students The Systemic Dimension of Globalization Piotr Pachura, 2011-08-01 Today science is moving in the direction of synthesis of the achievements of various academic disciplines The idea to prepare and present to the international academic milieu a multidimensional approach to globalization phenomenon is an ambitious undertaking The book The Systemic Dimension of Globalization consists of 14 chapters divided into three sections Globalization and Complex Systems Globalization and Social Systems Globalization and Natural Systems The Authors of respective chapters represent a great diversity of disciplines and methodological approaches as well as a variety of academic culture This is the value of this book and this merit will be appreciated by a global community of scholars Globalization and Urban Culture in Dhaka Kazi Abusaleh, M. Migration and the Globalisation of Health Care John Connell, 2010-01-01 The international migration of health workers has been described by Nelson Mandela as the poaching of desperately needed skills from under privileged regions This book examines the controversial recent history of skilled migration and explores the economic and cultural rationale behind this rise of a complex global market in qualified migrants and its multifaceted outcomes John Connell pays particular attention to the increase in demand for migrants in more developed countries due to the complex ramifications of aging and new opportunities and expectations He illustrates how globalization has linked sub Saharan Africa to Europe and North America and created new demand in Japan for international migrants from China and isolated island states The long established skill drain with its impact on household relations and negative consequences for health care is carefully balanced against new flows of remittances the return of skills and complex regional changes Wide ranging policy interventions and greater social justice have been challenged by the rise of the competition state and limitations to economic growth in the global south This comprehensive and definitive analysis of the global migration of health workers will prove an essential resource for academics and research students in health and social policy and in the various disciplines that relate to migration including sociology economics and geography

The Globalisation of Charismatic Christianity Simon Coleman, 2000-10-02 This 2000 book analyses the revival of charismatic Protestant Christianity as an example of globalization Simon Coleman shows that along with many social movements these religious conservatives are negotiating their own interpretations of global and postmodern processes They are constructing an evangelical arena of action and meaning within the liminal chaotic space of the global The book examines globalization not only as a social process but also as an embodied practice involving forms of language and ritualized movement Charismatic Christianity is presented through its material culture art architecture and consumer products as well as its rhetoric and theology The book provides an account of the incorporation of electronic media such as television videos and the Internet into Christian worship Issues relating to the conduct of fieldwork in contexts of globalization are raised in an account which is also a major ethnography of a Faith ministry Bangladesh Political Science Review ,2004
