R. Owens,1998 This unique student resource is specifically designed for those beginning an MA in Literature providing an introduction to research techniques methodologies and information sources relevant to the study of literature at postgraduate level    The Politics of Liberal Education Darryl Gless,Barbara

Herrnstein Smith, 1992 Controversy over what role the great books should play in college curricula and questions about who defines the literary canon are at the forefront of debates in higher education. The Politics of Liberal Education enters this discussion with a sophisticated defense of educational reform in response to attacks by academic traditionalists. The authors here themselves distinguished scholars and educators share the belief that American schools, colleges and universities can do a far better job of educating the nation's increasingly diverse population and that the liberal arts must play a central role in providing students with the resources they need to meet the challenges of a rapidly changing world. Within this area of consensus however the contributors display a wide range of approaches illuminating the issues from the perspectives of their particular disciplines classics, education, English history and philosophy among others and their individual experiences as teachers. Among the topics they discuss are canon formation in the ancient world, the idea of a common culture and the educational implications of such social movements as feminism, technological changes including computers and television and intellectual developments such as theory. Readers interested in the controversies over American education will find this volume an informed alternative to sensationalized treatments of these issues. Contributors: Stanley Fish, Phyllis Franklin, Henry Louis Gates Jr, Henry A. Giroux, Darryl J. Gless, Gerald Graff, Barbara Herrnstein Smith, George A. Kennedy, Bruce Kuklick, Richard A. Lanham, Elizabeth Kamarck, Minnich, Alexander Nehamas, Mary Louise Pratt, Richard Rorty, Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick.

The Politics of the Electronic Text Warren L. Chernaik, Caroline Davis (Research Officer.), Marilyn Deegan, 1993 The Politics of Ephemeral Digital Media Sara Pesce, Paolo Noto, 2016-05-26 In the age of complex TV, social networking and massive consumption of transmedia narratives, a myriad short lived phenomena surround films and TV programs raising questions about the endurance of a fictional world and other mediatized discourse over a long arc of time. The life of media products can change direction depending on the variability of paratextual materials and activities such as online commentaries and forums, promos and trailers, disposable merchandise and gadgets, grassroots video production archives and gaming. This book examines the tension between permanence and obsolescence in the production and experience of media byproducts analysing the affections and meanings they convey and uncovering the machineries of their persistence or disposal Paratexts which have long been considered only ancillary to a central text interfere instead with textual politics by influencing the viewers fidelity or infidelity to a product and affecting a fictional world's life expectancy Scholars in the fields of film studies media studies memory and cultural studies are here called to observe these byproducts temporalities their short form and or long temporal extention their nostalgic politics or future projections and assess their increasing influence on our use of the past and present on our temporal experience and consequently on our social and political self positioning through the media

The Politics of Language Rebecca Stephenson, 2015-10-06 Old English literature thrived in late tenth century

England Its success was the result of a concerted effort by the leaders of the Benedictine Reform movement to encourage both widespread literacy and a simple literary style The manuscripts written in this era are the source for the majority of the Old English literature that survives today including literary classics such as Beowulf Yet the same monks who copied and compiled these important Old English texts themselves wrote in a rarified Latin full of esoteric vocabulary and convoluted syntax and almost incomprehensible even to the well educated Comparing works by the two most prolific authors of the era

Byrhtferth of Ramsey and Ifric of Eynsham Rebecca Stephenson explains the politics that encouraged the simultaneous development of a simple English style and an esoteric Latin style By examining developments in Old English and Anglo Latin side by side The Politics of Language opens up a valuable new perspective on the Benedictine Reform and literacy in the late

Scott,2013 James C Scott has researched and written on subaltern groups and in particular peasants rebellion resistance and agriculture for over 35 years Yet much of Scott s most interesting work on the peasantry and the state both conceptually and empirically has never been published in book form For the first time Decoding Subaltern Politics Ideology Disguise and Resistance in Agrarian Politics brings together some of his most important work in one volume The book covers three distinct yet interlinked bodies of work The first lays out a framework for understanding peasant politics and rebellion much of which is applicable to rural areas of the contemporary global south Scott then goes on to develop his arguments regarding everyday forms of peasant resistance using the comparative example of the religious tithe in France and Malaysia and tracing the forms of resistance that cover their own tracks and avoid direct clashes with authorities For much of the world s population and for most of its history this sort of politics was far more common than the violent clashes that dominate the history books and in this book one can examine the anatomy of such resistance in rich comparative detail Finally Scott explores how the state s increasing grip on its population its identity land holding income and movements is a precondition for political hegemony Crucially in examining the invention of state mandated legal identities especially the permanent patronym and the vagaries of its imposition on vernacular life Scott lays bare the micro processes of state formation and resistance Written by one of the leading social theorists of our age Decoding Subaltern Politics Ideology Disguise and Resistance in Agrarian Politics is an indispensable guide to the study of subaltern culture and politics and is essential reading for political scientists anthropologists sociologists and historians alike    The Revolutionary Guards in Iranian Politics Bayram Sinkaya,2015-06-19 The Islamic debates surrounding the potential militarization of the Iranian regime and giving rise to paradoxical understandings of the IRGC whether as a military institution entering politics or a political institution with a military history Revolutionary Guards in Iranian Politics offers a way out of this paradox by showing that the IRGC is not a recently politicized institution but has instead been highly politicized since its inception It identifies the ways in which the IRGC relates to national political dynamics examines the factors contributing to this relationship and its implications on Iranian politics from the revolution up to the present day The book examines the three decades following the revolution uncovering the reasons behind the rise of the Revolutionary Guards and tracking the organization's evolving relationship with politics Establishing a theoretical framework from revolution and civil military relations theories this book provides new perspectives on the relationship between the IRGC and Iranian politics This book would be of interest to students and scholars of Middle East Studies and Iranian Studies in particular Iranian Politics    New Media and the Politics of Online Communities ,2020-09-25 This interdisciplinary collection of papers explores the question of identity and its interaction with digital technologies online platforms and primarily new media    Politics and Technology in the Post-Truth Era Anna Visvizi,Miltiadis D.
