The Geography of the Third World Michael Pacione, 2012-08-06 First published in 1988 this reissue presents a comprehensive overview of contemporary developments and research into the geography of the Third World at a time when economies and societies there were changing at a much more rapid rate than their counterparts in the developing world It covers the topic both systematically and by region showing how the unique background of each region affects developments there

Muslim Laws, Politics and Society in Modern Nation States Ihsan Yilmaz, 2016-12-05 Drawing on theories of legal pluralism this book tests whether and to what extent claims of the modern nation state laws to exclusive dominance over other spheres are tenable and reassesses the operation of law in society Incorporating a combination of legal theory post modern critique and socio legal analysis of three current jurisdictions in which Muslims play an important role the volume identifies Muslims current socio legal situation and attitudes from different perspectives and reconciles them with modern legal systems in three key countries It analyzes the conflict between the assumptions of modern legal systems and plural legal realities and also examines attempts by modern legal systems to impose official laws in the face of resistance from unofficial Muslim laws and discusses possible responses to the challenge of dynamic Muslim legal pluralism A valuable resource for students researchers and academics with an interest in the areas of Islamic law and politics and the interplay between secular law and religious cultural traditions Understanding Comparative Politics Mehran Kamrava,2012-08-21

Comparative politics has undergone significant theoretical changes in recent decades Particularly since the 1980s a new generation of scholars have revamped and rejuvenated the study of the subject Mehran Kamrava examines current and past approaches to the study of comparative politics and proposes a new framework for analysis This is achieved through a comparative examination of state and social institutions the interactions that occur between them and the political cultures within which they operate The book also offers a concise and detailed synthesis of existing comparative frameworks that up to now at least have encountered analytical shortcomings on their own Although analytically different in its arguments and emphasis from the current Mainstream genre of literature on comparative politics the present study is a logical outgrowth of the scholarly works of the last decade or so It will be essential reading for all students of comparative politics Philippine

Politics and Society in the Twentieth Century Eva-Lotta Hedman,John Sidel,2005-11-29 The only book length study to cover the Philippines after Marcos's downfall this key title thematically explores issues affecting this fascinating country throughout the last century Appealing to both the academic and non academic reader topics covered include national level electoral politics economic growth the Philippine Chinese law and order opposition the Left local and ethnic politics

BOOK JACKET

Islam, Culture and Women in Asia Firdous Azim, 2013-10-18 An examination of the place of religion especially Islam in political and cultural life took on a special urgency after the events of 9 11 The essays in this volume concentrate on the way that Islam impacts on the everyday lives of people who reside in societies where Islam plays a large part The relationship between Islam and women has always been seen as problematic and by highlighting women s negotiations with this religion this volume seeks to understand the many and various strategies and connections that are made and their political and cultural ramifications By keeping an Asian focus the authors also seek to understand the wide panorama that Islamic societies inhabit and the manifold political and cultural expressions that ensue from this The effort is not only to break the image of a monolithic structure and set of beliefs but also to highlight on the ground negotiations and the ways that women in particular find spaces within Islamic structures and discourses This book was originally published as a special issue of Inter Asia Cultural Studies

Politics and Society in the Third World Mehran Kamrava, 1993-01-01 Examines developing countries from social cultural political and economic viewpoints exploring the factors contributing to the presence or absence of democratic institutions

The Politics of Neoliberal Democracy in Africa Usman A. Tar, 2008-10-30 Since the late 1980s the changing dynamic of global development has driven the tide of democratic expansion in the developing world In Africa western donors have sought to impose neo liberal visions of socio economic and political institution building spreading political reforms and economic liberalisation with far reaching consequences Associated with external interventions but also sometimes conflicting with them are internal protests against authoritarianism which have problematically reinforced and or undermined the donor agenda for democratic reform Here Usman Tar questions the assumption that Africa was lacking the essential components for a spontaneous transition to democracy He explores the dynamic but contradictory links between external and internal dimensions of neo liberal democratic expansion in Africa focusing on Nigeria Tar dissects the struggles for democracy and for democratic policy and practice in a country with rich economic potential but a troubled political dispensation
