Identity Politics Nils Holtug, 2025-03-12 According to a common narrative identity politics derives from leftist postmodernism and is antithetical to both liberalism and Enlightenment universalism This narrative however is false Identity politics is propagated not only by the left but also by the right and it is not tied to postmodernism Various forms of identity politics are in fact quite compatible with liberalism and Enlightenment values Based on a liberal egalitarian framework Nils Holtug argues that some forms of identity politics are well worth pursuing while others should clearly be resisted Among other things identity politics can serve to increase the opportunities of worse off marginalized groups In this book Holtug considers and assesses specific identity policies including affirmative action for African Americans opposition to the n word and blackfacing and the backlash against cultural appropriation and out group representation in art Identity Politics surveys various forms of cancel culture such as no platforming and the pulling down of statues depicting morally compromised historical figures Holtug also scrutinizes instances that are more specific to the political right including white supremacy and ethnoplatism Finally he considers the suggestion that identity politics is divisive and drives down social solidarity arguing that while some forms of identity politics do indeed drive down solidarity this is less clear in the case of the minority accommodating policies

Bondage of Boundaries and Identity Politics in Postcolonial Africa Ndlovu-Gatsheni, Sabelo J.,Mhlanga, Brilliant,2013-10-20 What has confounded African efforts to create cohesive prosperous and just states in postcolonial Africa What has been the long term impact of the Berlin Conference of 1884 5 on African unity and African statehood Why is postcolonial Africa haunted by various ethno national conflicts Is secession and irredentism the solution Can we talk of ethno futures for Africa These are the kinds of fundamental questions that this important book addresses Sabelo J Ndlovu Gatsheni and Brilliant Mhlanga s book introduces the metaphor of the northern problem to dramatise the fact that there is no major African postcolonial state that does not enclose within its borders a disgruntled minority that is complaining of marginalization domination and suppression The irony is that in 1963 at the formation of the OAU postcolonial African leaders embraced the boundaries arbitrarily drawn by European colonialists and institutionalised the principle of inviolability of bondage of boundaries thereby contributing to the problem of ethno national conflicts The successful struggle for independence of the Eritrean people and the secession of South Sudan in 2011 have encouraged other dominated and marginalised groups throughout Africa to view secession as an option Ndlovu Gatsheni and Mhlanga successfully assembled competent African scholars to deal exhaustively with various empirical cases of ethno national conflicts throughout the African continent as well as engaging with such pertinent issues as Pan Africanism as a panacea to these problems This important book delves deeper into complex issues of space languages conflict security nation building war on terror secession migration citizenship militias liberation violence and Pan Africanism

Cultural Identity and Archaeology Paul Graves-Brown,Siân Jones,Clive Gamble,1996 Cultural identity is a key area of debate in contemporary Europe Despite widespread use of the past in the construction of ethnic national and European identity theories of cultural identity have been neglected in archaeology Focusing on the interrelationships between concepts of cultural identity today and the interpretation of past cultural groups Cultural Identity and Archaeology offers proactive archaeological perspectives in the debate surrounding European identities This fascinating and thought provoking book covers three key areas It considers how material remains are used in the interpretation of cultural identities for example pan Celtic culture and Bronze Age Europe Finally it looks at archaeological evidence for the construction of cultural identities in the European past The authors are critical of monolithic constructions of Europe and also of the ethnic and national groups within it in place of such exclusive cultural political and territorial entities the book argues for a consideration of the diverse hybrid and multiple nature of European cultural identities

Political Identity and Social Change Jamie Frueh, 2012-02-01 Political Identity and Social Change builds upon the constructivist theory of political identity to explore the social changes that accompanied the end of apartheid in South Africa To gain a better understanding of how structures of identity changed along with the rest of South Africa s institutions Frueh analyzes three social and political conflicts the Soweto uprisings of 1976 the reformist constitutional debates of 1983 1984 and post apartheid crime Analyzing these conflicts demonstrates how identity labels function as structures of social discourse how social activity is organized through these structures and how both the labels and their power have changed during the course of South Africa s transition In this way the book contributes not only to the study of South African society but also provides lessons about the relationship between identity and social change
