Politics Of Sorrow The Disintegration Of Yugoslavia:

A Politics of Sorrow Davorka Ljubisic, 2004 There is no greater sorrow on earth than the loss of one's native land Euripides The Yugoslav tragedy is a story about crimes committed with extraordinary boldness and deception propagated by the politicians and by the media from both inside and outside the former Yugoslavia This mixture at the heart of the conflict provoked the greatest humanitarian catastrophe in Europe since World War II Written in memory to a lost homeland to the people who died and to the people who survived especially the refugees displaced internally or dispersed throughout the world this book is a powerful commentary on war itself that provides insight into the roles that history ethnic nationalism and religious differences can play in modern conflict A finely crafted historical dialectics that refuses to give into dualist explanations about the crimes and eventually the death of the former Republic of Yugoslavia as resulting from either bad primordial ancient hatreds and ethnic nationalism or from the lack of some civic nationalism in the form of good but artificially constructed communities The author follows Hannah Arendt in charting the history of a long century of statelessness rightlessness and homelessness in the region brought on by externally imposed balkanization Every step of the way we are warned against those who preach the purity of ethnos over demos or conversely those who seek the bureaucratic disconnection of ethnos from demos as an ideal solution Greg M Nielsen Concordia University author of The Norms of Answerability Social Theory Between Bakhtin and Habermas The strength of Ljubisic's work is the seamless way it moves from one level to another first analyzing events in the former Yugoslavia at the level of state politics then shifting to a discussion of the international context and finally and most importantly describing the impacts of these events at the individual level In the process she provides a comprehensive analysis of these confusing events and a much needed contribution to the literature This is essential reading for anyone who wishes to understand the recent history of the Balkan region Neil Gerlach Carleton University author of The Genetic Imaginary DNA in the Canadian Criminal Justice System Table of Contents INTRODUCTION CHAPTER ONE Theories of the Nation and Nationalism Nationalism and Multiculturalism The Origins of the Nation Primordial Versus Imagined Community Summary CHAPTER TWO The National Question in Yugoslavia The Yugoslav Idea Viability of Yugoslavia and the Avoidable War Summary CHAPTER THREE Divide and Rule Politics of External Balkanization The Old World Orders in the Balkans Yugoslavia and the New World Order Summary CHAPTER FOUR Ethnic Cleansing in Multinational Yugoslavia Purification of Heterogeneous Territories Multiethnic Resistance to the War Summary CHAPTER FIVE Stateless Peoples Totalitarian Solutions Hundred Years of Statelessness Rebuilding Home in Multicultural Montreal Obstacles to Integration Summary CONCLUSION Bibliography Index DAVORKA LJUBISIC holds a BA from the University of Ljubljana in Slovenia and an MA from Concordia University in Montreal Canada She was born in Zagreb Croatia at the time one of six constitutive republics of Socialist Federal Republic of Yugoslavia Unable to live according to the agenda of newprimitivism and a politics of sorrow in 1995 she immigrated to Canada 224 pages 6x9 index

How do we understand international relations in a globalized world This clear and concise text takes as its starting point the theoretical frameworks that are the foundation of current IR Joyce P Kaufman explains and contextualizes the traditional theories highlighting both their strengths and weaknesses Her levels of analysis approach provides students with the basic tools for a more inclusive understanding of international politics by not forcing them to choose between competing theories Instead in a refreshing alternative to most of the current introductory level texts the book allows readers to view the globe as a complex place of multiple actors facing multiple issues It concludes with cases of current events that will help students apply theories to real world issues Inclusion in Post-Conflict Legislatures Michael Potter, 2019-09-10

An excellent analysis of the complex dynamics of inclusion in post conflict societies theoretically grounded empirically rich and with a well informed set of policy relevant insights and recommendations with implications far beyond the cases of Kosovo and Northern Ireland Stefan Wolff University of Birmingham UK Does the promotion of political accommodation between the contending parties in an ethno nationalist conflict disadvantage other groups in society This important question is at the heart of Michael Potter s nuanced study of post settlement parliaments in Kosovo and Northern Ireland in which he probes their record of representativeness focusing on gender and ethnicity His meticulous research drawing on extensive fieldwork shows that the domination of the parliaments by parties aligned to the conflict does indeed tend to marginalise other identities His findings provide plenty of food for thought for practitioners in the field of conflict resolution In particular they underline the need for care in the design of institutional arrangements for deeply divided societies so as to minimise potentially negative consequences that priority for accommodation and reconciliation may have for other issues and for the practice of inclusion Adrian Guelke Queen s University Belfast UK Identity is a central organising principle of politics in the 21st century In this impressive book Michael Potter shows that a focus on gender and minority ethnic identities in newly formed post conflict assemblies provides a unique litmus test of the robustness of democratic politics He analyses the cases of Kosovo and Northern Ireland with rigour and considerable insight This book makes a highly original and lasting contribution to theory and practice in post conflict settings world wide Yvonne Galligan Dublin Institute of Technology Ireland This book examines inclusion in post conflict legislatures using Northern Ireland and Kosovo as case studies and gender and minority ethnicity as indicators The analysis uses an adapted framework developed by Yvonne Galligan and Sara Clavero to measure inclusion across a range of factors associated with deliberative democratic principles The logic is that political systems designed to accommodate communities in conflict will prioritise certain identities over others The aim of the book is to investigate how identities not directly associated with a conflict fare in a political system designed to manage identities in conflict The book looks comparatively at the conflicts in Kosovo and Northern Ireland then discusses approaches to conflict management describing how political institutions were designed in those contexts The themes of women and minority identities in those conflicts are then explored with a view to examining the extent of inclusion in the Northern Ireland and Kosovo Assemblies Ghost Strasse Simon Burnett, 2007 The story of Eastern Germany and a people lost between two cultures Smokescreen Paul F. demise In Richard Mills hands the former Yugoslavia's stadiums become vehicles to explore the relationship between sport and the state society nationalism state building inter ethnic tensions and war The book is the first in depth study of the Yugoslav game and offers a revealing new way to approach the complex history of Yugoslavia "Can You Run Away from Sorrow?" Ivana Bajic-Hajdukovic, 2020-10-06 This intimate social history of family life in 1990s Serbia considers how emigration effects the elders left behind The fall of Yugoslavia in the 1990s led citizens to look for better more stable lives elsewhere For the older generations however this wasn't an option In this powerful work Ivana Bajic Hajdukovic reveals the impact that waves of emigration from Serbia had on family relationships and in particular on elderly mothers who stayed With nowhere to go and any savings given to their children to help establish new lives these seniors faced a crumbling economy waves of refugees entered from Croatia and Bosnia Herzegovina NATO bombings and the trial and ouster of Slobodan Milosevic Bajic Hajdukovic explores the transformations of family relationships and daily life practices in people's homes from foodways and childcare to gift exchanges Can You Run Away from Sorrow illustrates not only the tremendous sacrifice of parents but also their profound sense of loss of their families their country their stability and dignity and most importantly of their own identity and hope for what they thought their future would be New Perspectives on
