Politics Of Writing In Iran:

The Politics of Writing in Iran Kamran Talattof, 2000-05-01 Emerging in the late nineteenth and twentieth centuries as a secular activity Persian literature acquired its own modernity by redefining past aesthetic practices of identity and history By analyzing selected work of major pre and post revolutionary literary figures Talattof shows how Persian literary history has not been an integrated continuum but a series of distinct episodic movements shaped by shifting ideologies Drawing on western concepts modern Persian literature has responded to changing social and political conditions through complex strategies of metaphorical and allegorical representations that both construct and denounce cultural continuities The book provides a unique contribution in that it draws on texts that demonstrate close affinity to such diverse ideologies as modernism Marxism feminism and Islam Each ideological standard has influenced the form characterization and figurative language of literary texts as well as setting the criteria for literary criticism and determining which issues are to be the focus of literary journals

Politics of Culture in Iran Nematollah Fazeli, 2006-08-21 This first full length study of the history of Iranian anthropology charts the formation and development of anthropology in Iran in the twentieth century The text examines how and why anthropology and culture became part of wider socio political discourses in Iran and how they were appropriated and rejected by the pre and post revolutionary regimes The author highlights the three main phases of Iranian anthropology corresponding broadly to three periods in the social and political development of Iran the period of nationalism lasting approximately from the constitutional revolution 1906 11 and the end of the Qajar dynasty until the end of Reza Shah s reign 1941 the period of Nativism from the 1950s until the Islamic revolution 1979 the post revolutionary period In addition the book places Iranian anthropology in an international context by demonstrating how Western anthropological concepts theories and methodologies affected epistemological and political discourses on Iranian anthropology

The Politics of English Second Language Writing Assessment in Global Contexts Todd Ruecker, Deborah Crusan, 2018-04-17 Reflecting the internationalization of the field of second language writing this book focuses on political aspects and pedagogical issues of writing instruction and testing in a global context High stakes assessment impacts the lives of second language L2 writers and their teachers around the world be it the College English Test in China Common Core aligned assessments in the U S English proficiency tests in Poland or the material conditions such as access to technology training and other resources affecting a classroom With contributions from authors working in ten different countries in a variety of institutional contexts the chapters examine the uses and abuses of various writing related assessments and the policies that determine their form and use Representing a diverse range of contexts methods and disciplines the authors jointly call for more equitable testing systems that consider the socioeconomic psychometric affective institutional and needs of all students who strive to gain access to education and employment opportunities related to English language proficiency

The Politics of Writing Islam Mahmut Mutman, 2013-11-21 The Politics of Writing Islam provides a much needed critique of existing forms of studying writing and representing Islam in the West Through critiquing ethnographic literary critical psychoanalytic and theological discourses the author reveals the problematic underlying cultural and theoretical presuppositions Mutman demonstrates how their approach reflects the socially politically and economically unequal relationship between the West and Islam While offering a critical insight into concepts such as writing power post colonialism difference and otherness on a theoretical level Mutman reveals a different perspective on Islam by emphasizing its living everyday and embodied aspects in dynamic relation with the outside world in contrast to the stereotyped authoritarian and backward religion characterized by an omnipotent God Throughout Mutman develops an approach to culture as an embodied everyday living and ever changing practice He argues that Islam should be perceived precisely in this way that is as an open heterogeneous interpretive multiple and worldly belief system within the Abrahamic tradition of ethical monotheism and as one that is contested within as well as outside its own culture

Religion, Culture and Politics in Iran Joanna de Groot, 2000-08-01 This book offers a new interpretation to the social history of religion in Iran from the 1870s to the 1970s It aims to situate the revolutionary upheavals of 1977-82 in an extensive narrative context of historical developments over the preceding century and to relate the religious elements in that history to other social and cultural issues In the author's analysis Iran's revolution was complex and contingent on a range of factors rather than a simple or inevitable outcome of the nature of the Iranian state or the nature of religion in Iran The focus of the argument is on the human responses of Iranians to their experiences and problems in all their diversity and on the rich variety and complexity of relationships between religion and other aspects of life thought and culture in the daily life of Iranians

The Politics of Nationalism in Modern Iran 'Ali Mir'Anşari, 2012 The Politics of Iranian Cinema Saeed Zeydabadi-Nejad, 2009-12-04 Iran has undergone considerable social upheaval since the revolution and this has been reflected in its cinema Drawing on first hand interviews and detailed ethnographic research this book explores how cinema is engaged in the dynamics of social change in contemporary Iran The author not only discusses the practices of regulation and reception of films from major award winning directors but also important mainstream filmmakers such as Hatamikia and Tabizi Contributing to ethnographic accounts of Iranian governance in the field of culture the book reveals the complex behind the scenes negotiations between filmmakers and the authorities which constitute a major part of the workings of film censorship The author traces the relationship of Iranian cinema to recent social political movements in Iran namely reformism and women's movement and shows how international acclaim has been instrumental in filmmakers engagement with matters of political importance in Iran This book will be a valuable tool for courses on film and media studies and will provide a significant insight into Iranian cultural politics for students of cultural studies and anthropology Middle Eastern and Iranian studies

Marxism and Left-Wing Politics in Europe and Iran Yadullah Shahibzadeh, 2018-09-28 This book reveals aspects of the rise and fall of the European and Iranian Left their conceptualization of Marxism and ideological formations Questions regarding the Left and Marxism within two seemingly different economic political and intellectual and cultural contexts require comprehensive comparative histories of the two settings This project investigates the intellectual transformations which the European and Iranian Left have experienced after the Russian Revolution to the present It examines the impacts of these transformations on their conceptualizations of history and revolution domination and ideology emancipation and universality democracy and equality The monograph will appeal to researchers scholars and graduate students in the fields of political science Middle Eastern and European studies political history and comparative politics

Pahlavi Iran and the Politics of Occidentalism Zhand Shakibi, 2019-12-12 Zhand Shakibi presents a new interpretation of the political and social dynamics of the last decade of the Shah's rule that challenges the binary view of pro West Shah and anti West Ayatollah by drawing attention to the Pahlavi state's reaction to the intellectual and societal backlash against cultural and moral Occidentalism in its last decade Revising the dominant historiography of the Pahlavi ideological and discursive approach to the West this book draws attention to the changes in the attitude of the Shah the Empress and state intellectuals towards the position and imagery of the West in state conceptions of the authenticity of Iranian national culture and identity Drawing on a wide range of primary sources Shakibi presents the multi faceted relationship of the Pahlavi state to the West and the institutions that were created to manage this such as the Rastakhiz Party This study argues that the Pahlavi state having recognized this backlash attempted to limit the threat to its legitimacy by reformulating intellectual discourses of anti West Occidentalism and incorporating them into the ideology of the Rastakhiz Party In so doing it played a critical role in exacerbating societal sensitivities about the spread of Western influences

The Politics of Nationalism in Modern Iran Ali M. Ansari, 2012-09-24 The first full length study of Iranian nationalism in nearly five decades this sophisticated and challenging book by the distinguished historian Ali M Ansari explores the idea of nationalism in the creation of modern Iran It does so by considering the broader developments in national ideologies that took place following the emergence of the European Enlightenment and showing how these ideas were adopted by a non European state Ansari charts a course through twentieth century Iran analysing the growth of nationalistic ideas and their impact on the state and demonstrating the connections between historiographical and political developments In so doing he shows how Iran's different regimes manipulated ideologies of nationalism and collective historical memory to suit their own ends Drawing on hitherto untapped sources the book concludes that it was the revolutionary developments and changes that occurred during the first half of the twentieth century that paved the way for later radicalisation

The Practice of Politics in Safavid Iran Colin P. Mitchell, 2009-08-30 The Safavid dynasty originated as a fledgling apocalyptic mystical movement based in Iranian Azarbaijan and grew into a large cosmopolitan Irano Islamic empire stretching from Baghdad to Herat Here Colin P Mitchell examines how the Safavid state introduced and moulded a unique and vibrant political discourse reflecting the social and religious heterogeneity of sixteenth century Iran Beginning with the millenarian minded Shah Isma'il and concluding with the autocrat par excellence Shah Abbas Mitchell explores the phenomenon of state sponsored rhetoric A thorough investigation of the Safavid state and the significance of rhetoric power and religion in its functioning The Practice of Politics in Safavid Iran is indispensable for all those interested in Iranian history and politics and Middle East studies

Ebrahimi,2016-03-17 Based on British and Iranian sources this book investigates the background and goals of the coup in Iran examining how British foreign and domestic agents interfered with Iran's internal affairs between the nationalization of Iran's oil in 1951 until its failure in 1953 with the overthrow of Prime Minister Mossadegh How and why was Iran's democratically elected government ousted in 1953 Most studies refer to a CIA led operation This study analyses how British agents used the Shah the ancient Persian Durbar Majlis deputies Islamic clergy and Iranian military officers in the overthrow of the first democratically elected Prime Minister and highlights how Britain used the Communist menace as a pretext for protecting its oil interests and persuaded the Americans to orchestrate the coup This close interaction between British colonial interests American Cold War goals and Iranian politics ultimately defeated the democratic aspirations of Iran's people The Global Politics of Contemporary Travel Writing Debbie Lisle,2006-11-02 To what extent do best selling travel books such as those by Paul Theroux Bill Bryson Bruce Chatwin and Michael Palin tell us as much about world politics as newspaper articles policy documents and press releases Debbie Lisle argues that the formulations of genre identity geopolitics and history at work in contemporary travel writing are increasingly at odds with a cosmopolitan and multicultural world in which everybody travels Despite the forces of globalization common stereotypes about foreignness continue to shape the experience of modern travel The Global Politics of Contemporary Travel Writing is concerned with the way contemporary travelogues engage with and try to resolve familiar struggles about global politics such as the protection of human rights the promotion of democracy the management of equality within multiculturalism and the reduction of inequality This is a thoroughly interdisciplinary book that draws from international relations literary theory political theory geography anthropology and history      Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing Kelly Boyd, 2019-10-09 The Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing contains over 800 entries ranging from Lord Acton and Anna Comnena to Howard Zinn and from Herodotus to Simon Schama Over 300 contributors from around the world have composed critical assessments of historians from the beginning of historical writing to the present day including individuals from related disciplines like Jürgen Habermas and Clifford Geertz whose theoretical contributions have informed historical debate Additionally the Encyclopedia includes some 200 essays treating the development of national regional and topical historiographies from the Ancient Near East to the history of sexuality In addition to the Western tradition it includes substantial assessments of African Asian and Latin American historians and debates on gender and subaltern studies

Politics of Urban Knowledge Bert De Munck, Jens Lachmund, 2023-03-23 This book uses politics of urban knowledge as a lens to understand how professionals administrations scholars and social movements have surveyed evaluated and theorized the city identified problems and shaped and legitimized practical interventions in planning and administration Urbanization has been accompanied and partly shaped by the formation of the city as a distinct domain of knowledge This volume uses politics of urban knowledge as a lens to develop a new perspective on urban history and urban planning history Through case studies of mainly 19th and 20th century examples the book demonstrates that urban knowledge is not simply a neutral means to represent cities as pre-existing entities but rather the outcome of historically contingent processes and practices of urban actors addressing urban issues and the power relations in which they are embedded It shows how urban knowledge making has reshaped the categories rationales and techniques through which urban spaces were produced governed and contested and how the knowledge concerned became performative of newly emerging urban orders The volume will be of interest to scholars and students in the field of urban history and urban studies as well as the history of technology science and knowledge and of science studies      Boundary Politics and International Boundaries of Iran Pirouz Mojtahed-Zadeh, 2007 This book is about Iranian boundaries at a time when crisis of various nature are occurring around Iran especially in Iraq and Afghanistan with immediate effect on the Iranian borderlands and substantial effect of Iran's relations with her neighbours Furthermore issues like the legal regime of the Caspian Sea and the UAE claims on the Iranian owned and Iranian held islands of Tunbs and Abu Musa in the Persian Gulf create a situation in Iran's neighbourhood which influence her foreign relations and engage the country in matters of international importance Occurrence of all these issues on and around the boundaries of Iran and a thorough study of the unexplored foundation and evolution of these issues within the framework of the study of the Iranian boundaries make this book timely special original and important     The Politics of Nuclear Weapons

Andrew Futter,2020-11-23 This comprehensively updated second edition provides an introduction to the political normative technological and strategic aspects of nuclear weaponry It offers an accessible overview of the concept of nuclear weapons outlines how thinking about these weapons has developed and considers how nuclear threats can continue to be managed in the future This book will help you to understand what nuclear weapons are the science behind their creation and operation why states build them in the first place and whether it will be possible for the world to banish these weapons entirely
