The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Asian American Literature Guiyou Huang, 2008-12-30 Asian American literature dates back to the close of the 19th century and during the years following World War II it significantly expanded in volume and diversity Monumental in scope this encyclopedia surveys Asian American literature from its origins through 2007 Included are more than 270 alphabetically arranged entries on writers major works significant historical events and important terms and concepts Thus the encyclopedia gives special attention to the historical social cultural and legal contexts surrounding Asian American literature and central to the Asian American experience Each entry is written by an expert contributor and cites works for further reading and the encyclopedia closes with a selected general bibliography of essential print and electronic resources While literature students will value this encyclopedia as a guide to writings by Asian Americans the encyclopedia also supports the social studies curriculum by helping students use literature to learn about Asian American history and culture as it pertains to writers from a host of Asian ethnic and cultural backgrounds including Afghans Chinese Japanese Koreans Filipinos Iranians Indians Vietnamese Hawaiians and other Asian Pacific Islanders The encyclopedia supports the literature curriculum by helping students learn more about Asian American literature In addition it supports the social studies curriculum by helping students learn about the Asian American historical and cultural experience

Interpreting Homes in South Asian Literature Malashri Lal, Sukrita Paul Kumar, 2007 Contributed articles Ethnic American Literature Emmanuel S. Nelson, 2015-02-17 Unlike any other book of its kind this volume celebrates published works from a broad range of American ethnic groups not often featured in the typical canon of literature This culturally rich encyclopedia contains 160 alphabetically arranged entries on African American Asian American Latino a and Native American literary traditions among others The book introduces the uniquely American mosaic of multicultural literature by chronicling the achievements of American writers of non European descent and highlighting the ethnic diversity of works from the colonial era to the present The work features engaging topics like the civil rights movement bilingualism assimilation and border narratives Entries provide historical overviews of literary periods along with profiles of major authors and great works including Toni Morrison Maxine Hong Kingston Maya Angelou Sherman Alexie A Raisin in the Sun American Born Chinese and The House on Mango Street The book also provides concise overviews of genres not often featured in textbooks like the Chinese American novel African American young adult literature Mexican American autobiography and Cuban American poetry Encyclopedic Dictionary of Diasporic Indian English Writing Manju Jaidka, Tej N. Dhar, Natasha Vashisht, 2025-05-15 The Handbook of Diasporic Indian Writing in English is an essential reference to Indian literature. It features alphabetical entries of Indian writers who have bridged the gap between cultures and redefined language boundaries. As the field of diasporic writing continues to expand and intersect with various branches of English and Cultural studies, it anticipates a growing market. It offers a unique and compelling perspective on the global tapestry of literature. It draws on various interdisciplinary approaches including postcolonial theory, cultural studies, and digital humanities to offer fresh and innovative perspectives on the literature. It is an indispensable resource for research scholars of literary studies and related disciplines like cultural studies and postcolonial studies Transnational, National, and Personal Voices Elisabetta Marino, 2004 The growing heterogeneity of Asian American and Asian diasporic voices has also given rise to variegated theoretical approaches to these literatures. This book attempts to encompass both the increasing awareness of diasporic and transnational issues and more traditional analyses of Asian American culture and literature. Thus the articles in this collection range from investigations into the politics of literary and cinematic representation to digging into the past through literary archeology or analyzing how consequential bodies can be in recent literature by Asian American and Asian diasporic women writers. The book closes with an interview with critic and writer Shirley Lim where she insightfully deals with these transnational national and personal issues. Elisabetta Marino is Assistant Professor of English literature at the University of Rome Tor Vergata. Her main fields of interest are Asian American and Asian British literature, children's literature, Italian American literature. Bego a Simal is Assistant Professor of English literature at the Universidade da Coruña, Spain. She has published critical work on both Asian American literature and comparative cross ethnic studies Proper Name & Other Stories Bernadette Mayer, 1996 Stories by an experimental writer. In A Non Unified Field Theory of Love and Landlords one reads: Tiny space dust and space grains of sand rain Down on the earth by the millions each minute. And interplanetary and interstellar comets, asteroids and meteoroids are more numerous than all the fish in all the seas of the world and you might discover a comet and become famous The Wise Woman and Other Stories: The Best of Mannu Bhandari Mannu Bhandari, 2021-06-07 Mannu Bhandari's genius lies not in elevating women to heroines or superior beings; rather, she forces us to acknowledge that flawed, confused, and self-centered women are as worthy of agency and respect. She wrote among literary giants who were mostly men but carved a singular space for herself with her unflinching gaze at the hypocrisy of a society that claims to venerate women yet balks at giving them the keys to their shackles. These 18 stories are representative of her wonderful insights into the inner life of women; her characters span the spectrum from rural to urban, illiterate to educated, homemakers to career professionals. Through all the stories runs a vein of gentle mockery, the inimitable Mannu Bhandari style Indian English Stories Murli Das Melwani, 2007 Journal of the short story in English, 2009 A Rainy June and Other Stories Louise de la

Writers on Writing Maurice A. Lee, 2005-06-30 Short stories have enjoyed a long and popular history with many famous writers attempting the craft at some point or another Here Lee assembles a variety of writers who comment on the form itself and its many meanings and manifestations Concentrating on the features and challenges of the short story contributors from Amiri Baraka to Richard Ford and Jayne Anne Phillips to Janette Turner Hospital discuss their own writing the writing of others the short story form gender politics and other issues concerning the writing of short fiction Readers will come away with a fuller understanding and appreciation of the craft of the short story writer Taking a populist approach to the subject Writers on Writing focuses on relaying to readers the truth about short story writing Writers from around the globe reveal the secrets of the form and their own approaches to it as well as criticism of other writers and their output Challenging some of the traditional views of past and current critics about short fiction they present a new outlook on the short story that speaks to both the short story writer and the short story reader

The Fourth Monkey Sushil Kumar Gupta, 2006 Madan Swaroop a professor of English literature in his fifties recalls 25 years of his married life on his flight to Kanglung Bhutan on a teaching tenure His beautiful wife is an ardent Krishna devotee a la Mira Bai She restricts marital sex to once a week which leads to conflict and comedy A vivid description of the college campus and the Bhutanese way of life follows He gets involved with two of his students There are parallel dialogues between the wife and her god and between the husband and his organ Shades of Calvin and Hobbes The imagery of cricket for sex creates its own humour In the midst of human characters a god's shadowy presence looms over the happenings A Joycean epiphany at the end caps it all

The Carrot Purple and Other Curious Stories of the Food We Eat Joel S. Denker, 2015-10-01 How many otherwise well educated readers know that the familiar orange carrot was once a novelty It is a little more than 400 years old Domesticated in Afghanistan in 900 AD the purple carrot in fact was the dominant variety until Dutch gardeners bred the young upstart in the seventeenth century After surveying paintings from this era in the Louvre and other museums Dutch agronomist Otto Banga discovered this stunning transformation The story of the carrot is just one of the hidden tales this book recounts Through portraits of a wide range of foods we eat and love from artichokes to strawberries The Carrot Purple traces the path of foods from obscurity to familiarity Joel Denker explores how these edible plants were in diverse settings invested with new meaning They acquired not only culinary significance but also ceremonial medicinal and economic importance Foods were variously savored revered and reviled This entertaining history will enhance the reader's appreciation of a wide array of foods we take for granted From the carrot to the cabbage from cinnamon to coffee from the peanut to the pistachio the plants beans nuts and spices we eat have little known stories that are unearthed and served here with relish
