Applications, and Interventions for Children and Adolescents Carmel Proctor,P. Alex Linley,2013-05-13 This book presents recent positive psychological research applications and interventions being used among adolescents and children Currently there is a wave of change occurring whereby educators and others working with children and adolescents are beginning to recognize the benefits of looking at well being from a positive perspective specifically the integration of positive psychological theory into the school curriculum in order to improve student well being Moreover although the positive psychological field has grown tremendously since its inception there remains an imbalance in the publication of research findings applications and interventions among children and adolescents in comparison to adults This book fills the need for a reference to this valuable information and benefits a wide range of professionals including educators clinicians psychologists students and many other working with children and adolescents

Navigating the Transnational in Modern American Literature and Culture Tara Stubbs,Doug Haynes,2017-03-16 This study develops the important work carried out on American literature through the frameworks of transnational transatlantic and trans local studies to ask what happens when these same aspects become intrinsic to the critical narrative Much cultural criticism since the 1990s has sought to displace perceptions of American exceptionalism with broader notions of Atlanticism transnationalism world system and trans localism as each has redefined the US and the world more generally This collection shows how the remapping of America in terms of global networks and as a set of particular localities or even glocalities now plays out in Americanist scholarship reflecting on the critical consequences of the spatial turn in American literary and cultural studies Spanning twentieth and twenty first century American poetry fiction memoir visual art publishing and television and locating the US in Caribbean African Asian European and other contexts this volume argues for a re modelling of American ness with the transnational as part of its innate rhetoric It includes discussions of travel migration disease media globalization and countless other examples of inflowing Essays focus on subjects tracing the contemporary contours of the transnational such as the role of the US in the rise of the global novel the impact of Caribbean history on American thought and vice versa transatlantic cultural and philosophical genealogies and correspondences and the exchanges between the poetics of American space and those of other world spaces Asking questions about the way the American eye has traversed and consumed the objects and cultures of the world but how that world is resistant this volume will make an important contribution to American and Transatlantic literary studies
