

Philosophical Skepticism (Dialogues Part I)

The Dialogues begin precisely where the Enquiry ends: with a discussion of skepticism.

Unless “total” or “absolute” skepticism is dismissed from the start, the discussion cannot even get underway.

None of the participants (not even Philo) wish to embrace total skepticism.

So the discussion of the power of human reason and experience to know the nature of God can proceed.

Power And Value Of Philosophical Skepticism:

The Power and Value of Philosophical Skepticism Jeffrey P. Whitman, 1996 How should we react to philosophical skepticism Jeffrey P Whitman answers this question in The Power and Value of Philosophical Skepticism by examining analytic and post analytic responses to the problem of skepticism concerning our knowledge of the external world Whitman analyzes skeptical arguments that call into question our ability to obtain empirical knowledge He tests analytical theories of knowledge foundationalism coherentism and reliabilism and the post analytical responses of Donald Davidson and Richard Rorty against skeptical arguments Whitman explores the failure of analytic and post analytic theories and concludes that embracing a theoretical version of philosophical skepticism has advantages over post analytic responses both in the realm of philosophical inquiry and in everyday life The Power and Value of Philosophical Skepticism Jeffrey Paul Whitman, 1991

Nietzsche and Adorno on Philosophical Praxis, Language, and Reconciliation Paolo A. Bolaños, 2021-01-12 Nietzsche and Adorno on Philosophical Praxis Language and Reconciliation Towards an Ethics of Thinking offers a philosophical notion of an ethics of thinking a kind of thinking that is receptive to the non identical character of the world of human and non human objects Paolo A Bola os experiments with the ideas of Friedrich Nietzsche and Theodor W Adorno who are presented as contemporary proponents of the Fr hromantik tradition Bola os offers a reconstruction of the respective philosophies of language of Nietzsche and Adorno as well as a rehearsal of their critique of metaphysics and identity thinking in order to develop a notion of philosophical praxis that is grounded in the ethical dimension of thinking Via Nietzsche and Adorno Bola os argues that thinking s performative participation in uncertainty broadens the domain of reason thereby also broadening our conceptual capacities and our receptivity to new possibilities of thinking As an ethical praxis thinking guards itself from the error of solidification thereby opening philosophy to a reconciliatory as opposed to domineering reception of the world

G. Murphy, 2018-05-04 In this revised edition two distinguished philosophers have extended and strengthened the most authoritative text available on the philosophy of law and jurisprudence While retaining their comprehensive coverage of classical and modern theory Murphy and Coleman have added new discussions of the Critical Legal Studies movement and feminist jurisprudence and they have strengthened their treatment of natural law theory criminalization and the law of torts The chapter on law and economics remains the best short introduction to that difficult controversial and influential topic Students will appreciate the careful organization and clear presentation of complicated issues as well as the emphasis on the relevance of both law and legal theory to contemporary society      Law Without Values Albert W.
