War Supplies Purchases Commission, 1917 The Jersey Bulletin and Dairy World, 1922 Host Bibliographic Record for Boundwith Item Barcode 30112049683961 and Others, 1909 California. Court of Appeal (1st Appellate District). Records and Briefs California (State)., California. Court of Appeal (2nd Appellate District). Records and Briefs California (State)., Dear Regina Monica Carol Miller, 2022-07-15 Dear Regina offers a remarkable window into the early years of one of America s best known literary figures While at the University of Iowa Writer s Workshop from 1945 to 1948 Flannery O Connor wrote to her mother Regina Cline O Connor who she addressed by her first name nearly every day and sometimes more than once a day The complete correspondence of more than six hundred letters is housed at the Stuart A Rose Manuscript Archives and Rare Book Library at Emory University From that number Miller selects 486 letters to show us a young adult learning to adjust to life on her own for the first time In these letters O Connor shares details about living in a boardinghouse and subsisting on canned food and hot plate dinners and she asks for advice about a wide range of topics including how to assuage her relatives concerns about her well being and how to buy whiskey to use for cough medicine These letters which are being published for the first time with the unprecedented permission of the Mary Flannery O Connor Charitable Trust also offer readers important insights into O Connor's intellectually formative years when her ideas about writing race class and interpersonal relationships were developing and changing Her preoccupation with money employment and other practical matters reveals a side of O Connor that we do not often see in her previously published letters Most importantly the letters show us her relationship with her mother in a much more intimate positive light than we have seen before The importance of this aspect of the letters cannot be overstated given that so much literary analysis conflates her and Regina with the sour deformed daughters and self righteous mothers that critic Louise Westling sees so often in O Connor's work

The Cape Law Journal, 1889 South African Law Journal, 1889 "We Were the Salt of the Earth!" Victor Howard, 1985 The Regina Riot which erupted in that city's Market Square on July 1 1935 was the climax of a strike by relief camp workers which had begun in British Columbia on April 4 After lingering two months in Vancouver the participants struck out east by freight train on to Ottawa where they intended to tell the Government of Canada that the situation of the unemployed had become intolerable The origins of the Strike the Trek and the Riot the character of those events are what this book is all about It is a narrative composed from federal provincial and municipal records from news reports from interviews with participants from sworn testimony from photographs from maps from sawn off baseball bats It is the story of an event which figured prominently at the same instant in the history of the Canadian worker in the history of the Canadian radical in the histories of two Canadian cities and in the history of R B Bennet's Depression years government

Annual Report by the Deputy Keeper of the Public Records, 1870 Rescuing Regina Josephe Marie Flynn, Helen Prejean, 2011-07-01 What is it like to be a young mother threatened with deportation to the country whose government has imprisoned you and whose soldiers have raped and tortured you You don't want to leave your children behind but how can you take them with you knowing that your homeland ruled by chaos and violence is notorious for murdering failed asylum seekers Regina Bakala found herself in just this situation ten years after escaping the Congo and settling in the United States Upon arrival Regina had worked with an immigration lawyer then joyfully reunited with her husband also a Congolese torture survivor and had two children Life was challenging but full of hope until the night there was a knock at the door and immigration agents burst in They forced Regina from her home as her family watched then locked her in prison to await deportation to certain death In Rescuing Regina author Josephe Marie Flynn tells Regina's powerful story and how her husband a pit bull lawyer a group of volunteers and a feisty nun set aside political differences to galvanize a movement to save her Revealing what she uncovered about US immigration policies and the dangers faced by those escaping war crimes Flynn exposes an America most never see a vast underbelly of injustice a harsh detention and deportation system and a frighteningly arbitrary asylum process In their battle for justice Regina and Josephe not only confronted dangerous obstacles but also reawakened emotions and traumas from the past A compelling story of a quest for justice Rescuing Regina is also a tale of friendship faith hope and the transformative journey of two friends New York Court of Appeals.
