Regionalization And Security In Southern Africa:

Regionalization and Security in Southern Africa N. Poku, 2001-02-02 Once torn by ideological conflicts and the dominance of command economies Southern Africa is now moving towards economic liberalism and openness In general the ascendancy of market economics is acknowledged by its governments albeit with different degrees of enthusiasm Theoretically rich and empirically engaging this timely book offers a critical insight into the ensuing debate on regionalism and the process of regionalization in southern Africa

Regionalization of Security and the Reconstruction of a Region Gladys Mokhawa, Ian Taylor, University of St. Andrews. School of International Relations, 2011 This thesis central aim is to rethink regional security cooperation in southern Africa by transcending the geopolitics that has been characteristic to the region The constructivist inspired regional security complex theory is thus preferred as an analytic device through which a non statist understanding of security within the region could be conceived Furthermore to understand how the Southern African Development Community SADC is involved in the re construction of the region the region building approach is adopted although the thesis is mindful of the fact that this approach is relevant to regions that have high levels of regionality Comprehension of the regional security cooperation could not be possible without deconstructing the taken for granted understanding of regional security cooperation To this end post modern and post structuralists traditions become sites in which the altered and reformulations of regional security cooperation can be imagined with the hope of re imagining new interpretations of regional security politics Thus linguistically inspired methodology and methods are embraced in order to unmask the taken for granted understandings and transform them into objects of discussion and criticism Therefore SADC s critical and ironic security dynamics are considered within the post modern tradition without necessarily engaging in the aesthetics of this tradition Zimbabwe as a case illuminates the limits of modernistic understanding of regional security cooperation The thesis concludes by proposing regionalist understanding of security alternatives that are based on integrated analysis of security threats and preventative approach to responses

Civil Society Regionalization in Southern Africa Andréas Godsäter, 2016-05-12 This book investigates civil society regionalization in Southern Africa The point of departure is the study of new regionalism which refers to the wave of regional integration globally since the 1980s However whilst the current regionalism studies undoubtedly contributes to a deeper understanding of regional processes important gaps remain in particular the relatively scant emphasis given to civil society This particularly relates to regions in the global South including Southern Africa The overarching aim of this book is therefore to analyse the dynamics of civil society regionalization in Southern Africa both empirically and from a theoretical perspective through analysing the cases of trade and HIV AIDS The study finds that CSOs can be more active in regional governance than has previously been conceptualized and are also highly active in terms of constructing regionalization through framing issues and to a less extent making identities regional Furthermore the book enhances knowledge of the heterogeneous nature of civil society regionalization

Lastly it is demonstrated that going regional is only partly an autonomous process and also has to be understood as under the influence of the deeper statist and capitalist social structures marking the regional order in Southern Africa Security and Development in Southern Africa Nana Poku, 2001-04-30 With the end of white dominated South Africa many observers have argued for a positive transformation of the whole of Southern Africa based upon market integration and increased cooperation among the states of the region Poku and the contributors to this collection re examine this optimistic scenerio and they point to the problems of translating good intentions into actual policies In reality the economic imbalance between South Africa and its neighbors poses severe problems for the region Far from finding a stronger ally in regional reconstruction and development the countries in the region are finding that for many in South Africa they simply do not matter that much The analysis points to greater polarization which may imply greater marginalization of the poorer countries in the region Moreover a major widening of the gap between the richer South Africa and some or all of the weaker economies may lead to increased tensions and breakdown of regional relations even to a situation detrimental to economic development in the region A provocative analysis by some of the leading politico economic thinkers of the region the volume will be of great use to scholars researchers and policy makers involved with Southern African development Regional Security Rodrigo Tavares, 2009-12-16 This book is the first systematic study of the capacities of the most recognized intergovernmental organizations with a security mandate South Africa and the Logic of Regional Cooperation James J. Hentz, 2005 Examines South Africa s role in regional political economy since its transition to democracy The New Regionalism in Africa Fredrik Söderbaum, 2017-03-02 This edited volume transcends conventional state centric and formalistic notions of regionalism and theorizes conceptualizes and analyzes the complexities and contradictions of regionalization processes in contemporary Africa The collection not only unpacks and theorizes the African state society complex with regard to new regionalism but also explicitly integrates the often neglected discourse of human security and human development In so doing the book moves the discussion of new regionalism forward at the same time as it adds important insights to security and development It is organized into three parts Part I theorizes conceptualizes and analyzes the new regionalism in Africa from the point of view of the region e g West East Central and Southern Africa The national perspectives in Part II focus on the new regionalism in Africa from the point of view of particular countries or specific state society complexes such as Kenya the Democratic Republic of the Congo DRC the enclave of Cabinda Angola and Zambia Part III contains two concluding chapters that tie the main threads of the volume together theoretically and empirically and discuss the contribution of the analytical framework the new regionalism approach NRA to the larger study of regionalism The Political Economy of Regionalism F. Söderbaum, 2004-10-29 The Political Economy of Regionalism The Case of Southern Africa challenges prevailing wisdom showing how ruling political elites and big business join forces with certain external actors in order to promote market integration and economic globalization boost regimes and to satisfy group specific and even personal interests Only rarely do these forms of regionalism contribute to the poor and disadvantaged who instead opt out and survive through informal economic regionalisms or seek to create regionalisms rooted in civil society

Geopolitical Orientations, Regionalism and Security in the Indian Ocean Dennis Rumley, Sanjay

Chaturvedi, 2015-07-24 First published in 2004 this book is the inaugural volume of the Indian Ocean Research Group IORG and is based on a selection of papers presented at the IORG launch in Chandigarh in November 2002 The volume emphasizes the complexity and historical and contemporary geopolitical significance of the Indian Ocean Region IOR It also propagates the necessity for increased intra regional cooperation especially in terms of economic and environmental security maritime boundaries sea lane security and ocean management in the spirit of open regionalism in order to ensure a more secure IOR In addition the volume initiates an agenda for future social science policy orientated research The book should be of particular interest to policy makers business people and academics as well as citizens of the IOR The New Regionalism and the Future of Security and Development B. Hettne, 2016-04-30 This book is dedicated to the implications of the new regionalism for global security and development The fourth in the five volume New Regionalism Series it features contributions from the UNU WIDER project on new regionalism Region-Building in Southern Africa Chris

Saunders, Gwinyayi Albert Dzinesa, Dawn Nagar, 2013-07-04 How successful have Southern African states been in dealing with the major issues that have faced the region in recent years What could be done to produce more cohesive and effective region building in Southern Africa In this original and wide ranging volume which draws on an interdisciplinary team of mainly African and African based specialists the key political socio economic and security challenges facing Southern Africa today are addressed These include the various issues confronting the Southern African Development Community SADC and its institutions such as HIV AIDS migration and xenophobia land grabbing and climate change and the role of the main external actors involved with the region including the United Nations the European Union the United States and China The book also looks at the Southern African Customs Union and Southern African Development Finance Institutions including the Development Bank of Southern Africa and Industrial Development Corporation and issues of gender and peacebuilding In doing so the book goes to the heart of analyzing the effectiveness of SADC and other regional organisation suggesting how region building in Southern Africa may be compared with similar attempts elsewhere in Africa and other parts of the world

Globalising the Regional, Regionalising the Global: Volume 35, Review of International Studies Rick

Fawn, 2009-04-30 A collection of leading international scholars examine the concept of regions from a range of perspectives and assess leading contemporary examples New Architecture of Regional Security in Africa Usman A. Tar, Bashir

Bala, 2019-11-11 This book critically explores the emerging architecture of regional security in Africa with particular reference to counterterrorism and counterinsurgency in the Lake Chad Basin Region In New Architecture of Regional Security in Africa the contributors scholars policy makers and defense security practitioners from both within and outside

Africa examine the evolution dynamics and working mechanisms for peace and security or emerging regional security architecture for regional security in the region The volume will be essential reading for all academics scholars and researchers in academia and NGOs with interests in counterinsurgency and counterterrorism related issues in the Lake Chad Basin region Additionally the volume will also be useful for students of counterinsurgency counterterrorism small wars terrorism and strategic studies and defense and security studies It will also provide invaluable reference material for policy practitioners working on the activities in the contemporary operating environment within the Lake Chad Basin region This book offers innovative perspectives on the emerging architecture for regional security in Africa with a focus on how member states of the Lake Chad Basin Commission are coping with the challenges of terrorism and insurgency Edited by Usman A Tar and Bashir Bala the volume is the first to critically document regional security in the Lake Chad Basin Neoliberalism, Civil Society and Security in Africa P. Carmody, 2007-10-17 Free market policies have been in operation across Africa for the past 25 years yet they have failed to reverse deepening poverty This book explores with case studies why such policies continue to be implemented and the ways in which they have been reinvented by socialization depoliticization regionalization and securitization Routledge Handbook of African Security James Hentz, 2013-08-22 This new Handbook examines the issues challenges and debates surrounding the problem of security in Africa Africa is home to most of the world's current conflicts and security is a key issue However African security can only be understood by employing different levels of analysis the individual human security the state national state security and the region regional international security Each of these levels provides analytical tools for understanding what could be called the African security predicament and these debates are animated by the new security issues immigration small arms transfers gangs and domestic crime HIV AIDS transnational crime poverty and environmental degradation African security therefore not only presents concrete challenges for international security but provides a real world context for challenging conventional conceptions of security Drawing together contributions from a wide range of key thinkers in the field the Routledge Handbook of African Security engages with these debates and is organized into four parts Part I The African security predicament in the twenty first century Part II Understanding conflict in Africa Part III Regionalism and Africa Part IV External influences This Handbook will be of great interest to students of African politics human security global security war and conflict studies peacebuilding and IR in general Integration in the Southern African Development Community Region Korwa Gombe Adar, Kebapetse Lotshwao, Thekiso Molokwane, Dorothy Mpabanga, Norbert Musekiwa, 2023-01-17 Integration in the Southern African Development Community Region Peoples Agency Popular Participation and Democratization edited by Korwa Gombe Adar Dorothy Mpabanga Kebapetse Lotshwao Thekiso Molokwane and Norbert Musekiwa engages in the debate associated with the people of Southern Africa people of the Region democratization and integration nexus envisaged in the 1980 treaty which established the Southern African Development Community SADC Using political and public administration perspectives the editors argue that for democratization and integration to be tangibly consolidated and institutionalized direct involvement of the people of Southern Africa the peoples agency is paramount and would lead to what is dubbed in this book as sadcness and sadcnization More specifically democratization and integration are about people citizens the sovereigns and not merely the abstract actors called nation states Using the case studies of Angola Botswana Madagascar Mozambique South Africa and Zimbabwe the contributors have from political and public administration dimensions engaged in this epistemology assessing among other things the peoples of Southern Africa the Southern Africa Development Community integration nexus

Regional Organizations in African Security Fredrik Soderbaum,Rodrigo Tavares,2013-09-13 The African continent is plagued by some of the most brutal and violent conflicts in the world At the same time that warfare is changing so has the state s capacity to provide security and political stability to its citizens This book deals with the role of regional organizations in Africa s security It focuses on three basic yet often overlooked questions 1 the advantages and disadvantages of African regional and sub regional organizations vis vis other security mechanisms 2 the official and unofficial reasons to intervene and 3 whether security is actually protected by the peace activities carried out by the regional organizations The contributors to the book all leading researchers in the field systematically assess and compare the role of the African Union AU the Economic Community of West African States ECOWAS the Intergovernmental Authority on Development IGAD the Economic Community of Central African States ECCAS and the Southern African Development Community SADC This book was based on a special issue of African Security

Critical Security Studies Keith Krause,Michael C. Williams,2002-09-11 This text takes issue with arguments that security studies is a discipline of limited use in making sense of the post Cold War world It argues that many of the most interesting theoretical issues in international relations can most usefully be studied through a prism labelled security studies The book combines chapters which provide a variety of critical perspectives on the discipline and address a diverse range of theoretical concerns with chapters that examine such substantive issues as weapons proliferation and the changing meaning of security for actors in the erstwhile conflict between East and West

Region-building Ludger Kühnhardt,2010-07-01 After two centuries of nation building the world has entered an era of region building in search of political stability cultural cohesion and socio economic development Nations involved in the regional structures and integration schemes that are emerging in most regions of the world are deepening their ambitions with Europe s integration experience often used as an experimental template or theoretical model Volume I provides a political analytical framework for recognizing the central role of the European Union not only as a conceptual model but also a normative engine in the global proliferation of regional integration It also gives a comprehensive treatment of the focus motives and objectives of non European integration efforts Volume II offers a unique collection of documents that give the best available overview of the legal and political evolution of region building based on official documents and stated objectives of the relevant regional groupings across all continents Together these volumes are important contributions for understanding the evolution of global affairs in an age when power shifts provide new challenges and opportunities for transatlantic partners and the world community      Regionalism, Security and Development in Africa Ernest Tooche Aniche, Ikenna Mike Alumona, Innocent Moyo, 2021 This book charts the history and contemporary landscape of African regionalism investigating how regional cooperation can be used to help to tackle security and development challenges in Africa Africa has a long tradition of regional cooperation with the oldest trade and monetary integration schemes in the developing world but its colonial period and partition of have caused lasting damage that still be seen in today s African economies Contemporary post colonial African regionalism deeply rooted in notions of pan Africanism has served as a means of collective self reliance and economic transformation and development This book starts with the history and theory behind African regionalism before discussing and comparing regional organisations such as the Economic Community of Central African States ECCAS the Economic Community of West African States ECOWAS the Community of Sahel Saharan States CEN SAD Southern African Development Community SADC the Common Market for Eastern and Southern Africa COMESA and the East African Community EAC Finally the book considers how regional integration and cooperation can help to address security and development challenges This ambitious and broad ranging book will be a valuable resource for researchers working on African regionalism security African integration and development and comparative regionalism Policymakers should also consider it a useful guide to the background and contemporary landscape of African regionalism
