last decades a broad range of publications has contributed to highlight the significance of images and visual media in general for understanding religious traditions communities and discourses in both historical and contemporary perspective In more recent research streams focussing on visual media in religious traditions and symbol systems various avenues have opened up and been explored focussing on the status of images and of the gaze of the viewer as central aspects Furthermore there are illuminating contributions dealing with the theoretical premises and settings with which to approach the visual as a central component of religion on the one hand giving an overview of essential definitions and implications on the other hand concentrating on specific techniques and or media
