Religion And Nationalism In Soviet And East European Politics:

Religion and Nationalism in Soviet and East European Politics Sabrina P. Ramet, 1989 Religious organizations in many countries of the communist world have served as agents for the preservation defense and reinforcement of nationalist feelings and in playing this role have frequently been a source of frustration to the Communist Party elites Although the relationship between governments and religious groups varies according to the particular country and group in question the mosaic of these relationships constitutes a revealing picture of the political reform shaping the lives of Soviet and East European citizens Ethnic Politics in Eastern Europe: A Guide to Nationality Policies, Organizations and Parties Janusz Bugajski, 2016-09-16 This guide charts national histories and policies relevant statistics and chronologies and the identities programmes and activities of the full spectrum of ethnically based parties and organizations in Central and Eastern Europe

The Independent State of Croatia 1941-45 Sabrina P. Ramet, 2020-07-24 This special issue provides important new scholarship from a variety of perspectives on the structure ideology and political history of the central fascist group in interwar and Second World War Yugoslavia the Croatian Ustasha It is the first volume in English to closely explore the Ustasha s Independent State of Croatia between 1941 and 1945 a period when it was an active collaborator with Nazi Germany and Fascist Italy and largely responsible for Yugoslavia suffering the highest proportion of national casualties in the Second World War By using the top scholars in the field to explore the nature of the NDH The Independent State of Croatia 1941 45 contributes to scholarly understandings of Croatian nationalism Balkan politics European fascism and genocide in the Second World War The formation of Croatian national identity Alex Bellamy, 2013-07-19 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license This book assesses the formation of Croatian national identity in the 1990s It develops a novel framework calling into question both primordial and modernist approaches to nationalism and national identity before applying that framework to Croatia In doing so the book provides a new way of thinking about how national identity is formed and why it is so important An explanation is given of how Croatian national identity was formed in the abstract via a historical narrative that traces centuries of yearning for a national state The book shows how the government opposition parties dissident intellectuals and diaspora groups offered alternative accounts of this narrative in order to legitimise contemporary political programmes based on different versions of national identity It then looks at how these debates were manifested in social activities as diverse as football religion economics and language This book attempts to make an important contribution to both the way we study nationalism and national identity and our understanding of post Yugoslav politics and society Problems of Communism , 1984 Church, State, and Democracy in Expanding Europe Lavinia Stan, Lucian Turcescu, 2011-09-22 Lavinia Stan and Lucian Turcescu examine the relationship between religion and politics in ten former communist Eastern European countries showing church state relations in the new EU member states through study of political representation for church leaders governmental subsidies registration of religions by the state and religious instruction in public schools Art, Religion and Resistance in (Post-)Communist Romania Maria Alina Asavei,2020-10-22 This book illuminates the interconnections between politics and religion through the lens of artistic production exploring how art inspired by religion functioned as a form of resistance directed against both Romanian national communism 1960 1989 and latterly consumerist society and its global market It investigates the critical tactical and subversive employments of religious motifs and themes in contemporary art pieces that confront the religious affair in post communist Romania In doing so it addresses a key gap in previous scholarship which has paid little attention to the relationship between religious art and political resistance in communist Central and South East Europe Historical Dictionary of Georgia Alexander Mikaberidze,2015-02-06 Situated in the breathtaking Caucasus Mountains between the Black and the Caspian Seas the country of Georgia sits at the crossroads between Europe and Asia it has gone through more turbulence and change in the last twenty five years the casting off of the Soviet regime a civil war two ethno territorial conflicts economic collapse corruption government inefficiency and massive emigration than most countries go through in 250 years This small nation s strategic location at the crossroads of different civilizations has been a curse as well as a blessing Once a battlefield between the ancient empires and the Christian and Islamic worlds today it is caught between its NATO aspirations and its location in Russia s backyard Yet despite all challenges and hardships this resilient and ancient country with thousands of years of winemaking three thousand years of statehood and almost two millennia of Christianity continues to survive and thrive Historical Dictionary of Georgia Second Edition through its chronology glossary introduction appendixes maps bibliography and over 900 hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on important persons places events and institutions and significant political economic social and cultural aspects traces Georgia s history and provides a compass for the direction the country is heading This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Georgia Governing Religious Diversity in Global Comparative Perspective Tariq Modood,Thomas Sealy,2023-09-06 This book presents comparative analyses of different modes of the governance of religious diversity and state religion connections and relations in twenty three countries in five world regions Western Europe Southern and South Eastern Europe Central and Eastern Europe the MENA region and South and Southeast Asia Debates and controversies around the governance of religious diversity have become important features of the social and political landscape in different regions and countries across the world The historical influences and legacies and the contemporary circumstances provoking these debates vary between contexts and there have been a range of state and scholarly responses to how and why particular understandings and arrangements of state religion relations should be preferred over others The analyses of country cases and regions presented in this volume are based on extensive reviews of secondary literature of legal and policy landscapes and in some cases on interviews This book will be a great resource for academics researchers and advanced students interested in in the sociology of religion religious studies politics and migration studies The contributions in this volume arise out of the Horizon2020 funded GREASE project It was originally published as a special issue of Religion State and Society

Transnational Catholicism in Post-Communist Europe Timothy A. Byrnes,2001-08-27 Through the use of three case studies Poland Croatia and the Slovak Republic Timothy Byrnes argues that the Catholic Church remains deeply involved in the central politics of this vital region over both governmental structure and public policy deeply implicated for better or worse in the ethnic divisions that characterize the post communist era and profoundly part of the social fabric of virtually every state in East Central Europe Eastern Christianity and Politics in the Twenty-First Century Lucian N.

Leustean,2014-05-30 This book provides an up to date comprehensive overview of Eastern Christian churches in Europe the Middle East America Africa Asia and Australia Written by leading international scholars in the field it examines both Orthodox and Oriental churches from the end of the Cold War up to the present day The book offers a unique insight into the myriad church state relations in Eastern Christianity and tackles contemporary concerns opportunities and challenges such as religious revival after the fall of communism churches and democracy relations between Orthodox Catholic and Greek Catholic churches religious education and monastic life the size and structure of congregations and the impact of migration secularisation and globalisation on Eastern Christianity in the twenty first century Moscow's Lost Empire Michael

Rywwin,2016-09-16 This volume gives an overview of the regional ethnic and political structure of the Soviet empire from its establishment through its ultimate disintegration It provides a corrective to the Russocentrism and Great Power bias that has marked most studies of the Soviet Union Censorship Derek Jones,2001-12-01 First published in 2002 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company The Catholic Church in Polish History Sabrina P. Ramet,2017-06-22 The book chronicles the evolution of the church s political power throughout Poland s unique history Beginning in the tenth century the study first details how Catholicism overcame early challenges in Poland from converting the early polytheists to pushing back the Protestant Reformation half a millennium later It continues into the dawn of the modern age including the division of Poland between Prussia Russia and Austria between 1772 and 1795 the interwar years the National Socialist occupation of World War Two and the communist and post war communist eras during which The Church only half correctly presented itself as a steadfast protector of Poles with clergy members who either stood up to foreign authorities or collaborated with those same Nazi and Communist leaders This study ends with a consideration of how the Church has taken advantage of the fall of communism to push its own social agenda at times against the wishes of most Poles The Receding Shadow of the Prophet Ray Takeyh,Nikolas K. Gvosdev,2004-06-30 The tragic events of September 11 2001 in the United States renewed fears of an Islamist wave destabilizing the countries of the Muslim world Yet the alarm raised over a previous wave of Islamism in the early 1990s which threatened to overwhelm Egypt and Algeria and spill into the Balkans and Central Asia proved to be unfounded Takeyh and Gvosdev assert that while Islamism has been successful as an oppositional ideology of wrath it has failed to provide Islamic societies with any feasible alternative to undertaking fundamental political and economic reforms By detailing the defeat of Islamist movements in the Middle East the Balkans and Central Asia over the last decade this book encourages us not to overestimate the Islamist threat in the current climate and the years to come Radical Islamists have been successful in mobilizing opposition to corrupt regimes yet they have failed to translate their utopian vision into reality Furthermore their emphasis on violence alienates and frightens the middle class and other potential allies Iran s revolution failed to create a model Islamic republic and its government is increasingly losing legitimacy to demands for genuine democracy Islamist governments in Afghanistan and Sudan relied upon violence to remain in power and ultimately collapsed Islamist movements proved unable to dislodge the existing regimes in Egypt and Algeria In the Balkans and Central Asia Islamism has had little attraction for Western oriented populations Indeed throughout the entire Islamic world former radicals are seeking a new accommodation between Islamic values and liberal democracy Takeyh and Gvosdev succinctly and accessibly explore the rise of radical Islam as well as its ultimate demise in various nations The Eclipse of Liberal

Protestantism in the Netherlands Tom-Eric Krijger,2019-09-16 In The Eclipse of Liberal Protestantism in the Netherlands Tom Eric Krijger is the first to offer a synthesis of the development of the Protestant modernist movement in Dutch religious social cultural and political life between 1870 and 1940 In historiography the liberal Protestant community is said to have lost appeal and influence in these decades due to a lack of theological clarity inner harmony and organisation Analysing liberal Protestants self perception vis vis Christian orthodoxy self understanding as a faith community attitude towards other alternatives to orthodoxy class consciousness literary criticism political commitment and involvement with foreign mission Krijger challenges this view Making an international comparison he argues that the Dutch modernist movement failed to make headway primarily due to liberal Protestant expectations and discourse
