Second Long Walk:

The Second Long Walk Jerry Kammer, 1987 Long Walk Home Lilian Darcy, 2014-11-03 Everyone has baggage by the time they re into their thirties When single mom and Marietta High School teacher Gemma Clayton acquires a strong family oriented and very good looking new neighbor over her back fence she s not put off by his complicated past as the attraction flares between them Her own past is a very different matter however Nobody knows what she went through on the night of the 1996 Marietta High School senior prom between running after Judd and Garth Newell s car as it left River Bend Park and limping into her friend Neve Shepherd s street two hours later But Gemma s secrets have been rusted up inside her for so long that not even a gorgeous man like Dylan Saddler can help her to break them free A Long Walk South Sean Rothery, 2014-04-08 Patronising advice by a doctor at a retirement course to walk a couple of miles a day challenges architect Sean Rothery to take a proper walk and so at the age of sixty five he sets out to walk the GR5 the Grande Randon e Cinq From the steely grey North Sea to the intense blue Mediterranean Sean s 2 300km long route follows a network of old trails forest paths canal banks Alpine valleys and passes Along the way he recounts some of his youthful enterprises including cycling from Dieppe to Rome in the ruins of post war Europe and a climbing accident in 1967 that saw him challenge another doctor s prognosis Ghosts of the past are revisited most poignantly in the Alps where two friends died in climbing accidents but also alongside the ruins of First World War trenches Sketchbook in hand Sean savours the landscape history and culture as he passes from one country to another Every day he looks out for the distinctive red and white waymarks of the GR5 not an easy task especially when change in the name of progress has cleared swathes of trails This enthralling diary of a long walk south will have the reader urging the author on to the last step of the way The Longest Walk Kirk Marty, 2011-02 The Longest Walk takes the reader into every baseball fan s ultimate fantasy seeing the greatest players who ever lived play together when it really counts What if a Babe Ruth homerun could save a kid s life This question and others are answered when Don Ogilvie a fifty something boozy minor league hitting coach makes a deal with Death He bargains to trade his life for that of his best friend Roberto a terminally ill seven year old But first the alcoholic coach must win the really big one Ogilvie s challenge is to manage a team of dead Hall of Famers against a powerful squad fielded by Death Personified and captained by the bitter and bigoted Ty Cobb This other World ly Series takes place at a venue called Limbotown Baseball becomes a metaphor for the road of life with all its twists turns and unexpected pitfalls There s no game in the world that lends itself more to drama humor and magic than baseball The Longest Walk is Damn Yankees Field of Dreams and Rocky combined You will love it About the Author Kirk Marty is the pen name of Kirk Grossman an attorney and dedicated Dodger fan in Ventura California The way I see it I ve been a professional writer for over 33 years As a practicing attorney I ve cranked out literally hundreds of thousands of pages of mumbo jumbo Legal writing provides great instruction on the wrong way to create fiction although some attorneys often confuse the two Still it is the type of writing that requires great precision and focus qualities needed for good fiction as well He has already started his next novel Publisher s website <http://www.strategicpublishinggroup.com/title/TheLongestWalk.htm> Sufficiently Robust William Cathcart-Rake, 2010-09-13 William Cathcart Rake shares his memories of a half century of hiking in the Grand Canyon During that time he spent sixty days and walked five hundred miles below the rim As he recounts his thoughts and experiences of eighteen separate treks below the rim he includes many fascinating facts about the Canyons natural and human history As the years go by the author discovers that the Canyon has more to offer than just being a challenging place to hike it becomes a sanctuary for reflection and renewal His time in the canyon is more than days below the rim miles walked switchbacks negotiated stream crossings walking speed and pounds carried Conquering the canyon an impossible and foolish quest ceased to be a goal He returned to the canyon because of the effect it had on him not because of what he could do in it or to it The canyon allowed him to discover his ability to persevere despite discomfort afforded an opportunity to learn more about the natural world we live in and gave him a deeper appreciation of the need to seek the solace afforded by sauntering below the rim Gone Wolf Amber McBride, 2023-10-03 Award winning author Amber McBride lays bare the fears of being young and Black in America in this middle grade novel that has been compared to the work of Jordan Peele and praised as brilliantly inventive storytelling by Publishers Weekly In the future a Black girl known only as Inmate Eleven is kept confined to be used as a biological match for the president s son should he fall ill She is called a Blue the color of sadness She lives in a small small room with her dog who is going wolf more often he s pacing and imagining he s free Inmate Eleven wants to go wolf too she wants to know why she feels so Blue and what is beyond her small small room In the present Imogen lives outside of Washington DC The pandemic has distanced her from everyone but her mother and her therapist Imogen has intense phobias and nightmares of confinement Her two older brothers used to help her but now she s on her own until a college student helps her see the difference between being Blue and sad and Black and empowered In this symphony of a novel award winning author Amber McBride lays bare the fears of being young and Black in America and empowers readers to remember their voices and stories are important especially when they feel the need to go wolf The Baruntse Adventure Mark Horrell, 2015-09-16 Sherpa legend told of an enchanted valley with an invisible village Shangri La that was said to be a place of great beauty The valley became the nemesis of legendary mountaineer Edmund Hillary who travelled there to climb 7 129m Baruntse but succumbed to the irresistible draw of Makalu the great black mountain which towered over the valley Makalu vanquished him and he was never the same climber again Fifty years later Mark Horrell embarked on a trek up the Barun Valley to follow in Hillary s footsteps at least some of the way He hoped to climb Baruntse but when he arrived he learned of a terrible accident that had shaken the climbing community and would threaten his plans Yet one of the virtues of climbing in the Himalayas is that just reaching a mountain can be a great adventure Join Mark on an entertaining journey across jungle moorland hill and valley to the frozen heights of the Barun Plateau The Traveling Adventures of the Buttonville Flying Club Mark Brooks, 2008 follows the money and tells us the true story of wealth and water mendacity and corruption at the highest levels of business and government Amid the backdrop of the breathtaking desert landscape Unreal City shows five cultures colliding Hopi Navajo global energy corporations Mormons and US government agencies resulting in a battle over resources and the future of the West Las Vegas may attract 39 million visitors a year but the tourists mesmerized by the dancing water fountains at the Bellagio don't ask where the water comes from They don't see a city with the nation's highest rates of foreclosure unemployment and suicide They don't see the astonishing drop in the water level of Lake Mead where Sin City gets 90 percent of its water supply Nies shows how the struggle over Black Mesa lands is an example of a global phenomenon in which giant transnational corporations have the power to separate indigenous people from their energy rich lands with the help of host governments Unreal City explores how and why resources have been taken from native lands what it means in an era of climate change and why in this city divorced from nature the only thing more powerful than money is water I'll Go and Do More Carolyn Niethammer,2004-01-01 She conducted a weekly radio show in Navajo and drove thousands of miles across back roads to visit hospitals and remote hogans she button holed members of Congress to make sure they understood the issues surrounding Indian health care and she worked to improve educational opportunities and reduce alcoholism on the reservation Her efforts earned her not only the respect of Navajos but also national recognition as a vital force in the field of Indian health care Wauneka received the Medal of Freedom from President Lyndon Johnson and was awarded honorary doctorate degrees from the University of New Mexico the University of Arizona and the College of Ganado The Last Great Walk Wayne Curtis,2014-09-09 In 1909 Edward Payson Weston walked from New York to San Francisco covering around 40 miles a day and greeted by wildly cheering audiences in every city The New York Times called it the first bona fide walk across the American continent and eagerly chronicled a journey in which Weston was beset by fatigue mosquitos vicious headwinds and brutal heat He was 70 years old In The Last Great Walk journalist Wayne Curtis uses the framework of Weston's fascinating and surprising story and investigates exactly what we lost when we turned away from foot travel and what we could potentially regain with America's new embrace of pedestrianism From how our brains and legs evolved to accommodate our ancient traveling needs to the way that American cities have been designed to cater to cars and discourage pedestrians Curtis guides readers through an engaging intelligent exploration of how something as simple as the way we get from one place to another continues to shape our health our environment and even our national identity Not walking he argues may be one of the most radical things humans have ever done The Longest Walk George Meegan,2018-05-31 In 2000 he brought out Democracy Reaches the Kids This garnered the only Extraordinary US Visa ever issued in education He found that western education itself was responsible for the loss of first nation languages culture worldwide one every day His discovery could instead guarantee them all To preserve these treasures has become the central mission of George's outgoing years Ecolitan Prime L. Black Literature and Literary Theory Henry Louis Gates, Jr, 2016-08-19 The imaginative literature of African and Afro American authors writing in Western languages has long been seen as standing outside the Western literary canon In fact however black literature not only has a complex formal relation to that canon but tends to revise and reflect Western rhetorical strategies even more than it echoes black vernacular literary forms This book first published in 1984 is divided into two sections thus clarifying the nature of black literary theory on the one hand and the features of black literary practice on the other Rather than merely applying contemporary Western theory to black literature these critics instead challenge and redefine the theory in order to make fresh stimulating comments not only on black criticism and literature but also on the general state of criticism today
