Second Poetry:

Second Bloom Anya Krugovoy Silver, 2017-09-06 In Second Bloom Silver looks unflinchingly and honestly at the suffering of cancer while at the same time celebrating the possibility of joy the persistence of beauty and love the simultaneous winnowing and comfort of faith These poems are contemplative and often personal but reach out to the world as a whole from IV poles to hula hoops from riding a roller coaster with one's son to comforting a dying friend at Christmas The poems glean their subject matter from ordinary life from art from the natural world Silver's poetry attempts to preserve the world's luminous moments and to hold grace and despair simultaneously in the human heart Second Language Lisel Mueller, 1986-06-01 Second Language is the fourth volume of work from the highly acclaimed poet Lisel Mueller The second language of the title English supplanted Mueller's native language when she came to the United States from Hitler's Germany at age fifteen But other second languages are at work here as well The poems in this collection have to do with memory and metaphor two forces that enable us to interpret our experience Each is in a sense a second language and in Mueller's employ each gains expression in an imaginative and humanistic voice In English as a Second Language the various meanings of Second Language come together lucidly and effectively

English Poetry from Blake to Browning William Macneile Dixon, 1894 Romanticism, Self-Canonization, and the Business of Poetry Michael Gamer, 2017-02-17 This is the first book to examine how Romantic writers transformed poetic collections to reach new audiences In a series of case studies Michael Gamer shows Romantic poets to be fundamentally social authors working closely with booksellers intimately involved in literary production and resolutely concerned with current readers even as they presented themselves as disinterested artists writing for posterity Exploding the myth of Romantic poets as naive unworldly or unconcerned with the practical aspects of literary production this study shows them instead to be engaged with intellectual property profit and loss and the power of reprinting to reshape literary reputation Gamer offers a fresh perspective on how we think about poetic revision placing it between aesthetic and economic registers and foregrounding the centrality of poetic collections rather than individual poems to the construction of literary careers

Poetry, edited by Ernest Hartley Coleridge George Gordon Byron Baron Byron, 1922

Poetry as Testimony Antony Rowland, 2014-03-26 This book analyzes Holocaust poetry war poetry working class poetry and 9 11 poetry as forms of testimony Rowland argues that testamentary poetry requires a different approach to traditional ways of dealing with poems due to the pressure of the metatext the original traumatic events the poems demands for the hyper attentiveness of the reader and a paradox of identification that often draws the reader towards identifying with the poet's experience but then reminds them of its sublimity He engages with the work of a diverse range of twentieth century authors and across the literature of several countries even uncovering new archival material The study ends with an analysis of the poetry of 9 11 engaging with the idea that it typifies a new era of testimony where global secondary witnesses react to a proliferation of media images This book ranges across the literature of several countries cultures and historical events in order to stress the large variety of contexts in which poetry has functioned productively as a form of testimony and to note the importance of the availability of translations to the formation of literary canons
