Second Seduction:

Stripped Maggie M. Werner, 2020-10-14 Stripped examines the ways in which erotic bodies communicate in performance and as cultural figures Focusing on symbols independent of language Maggie M Werner explores the signs and signals of erotic dance audience responses to these codes and how this exchange creates embodied rhetoric Informed by her own ethnographic research conducted in strip clubs and theaters Werner analyzes the movement dress and cosmetic choices of topless dancers and neo burlesque performers Drawing on critical methods of analysis she develops approaches for interpreting embodied erotic rhetoric and the marginal cultural practices that construct women's public erotic bodies She follows these bodies out into the streets into the protest spaces where sex workers and anti rape activists challenge discourses about morality and victimhood and struggle to remake their own identities Throughout Werner showcases the voices of these performers and in the analyses shares her experiences as an audience member interviewer and paying customer The result is a uniquely personal and erudite study that advances conversations about women's agency and erotic performance moving beyond the binary that views the erotic body as either oppressed or empowered Theoretically sophisticated and delightfully intimate Stripped is an important contribution to the study of the rhetoric of the body and to rhetorical and performance studies more broadly

Self and Other Robert Rogers, 1991-10-01 In Self and Other Robert Rogers presents a powerful argument for the adoption of a theory of object relations combining the best features of traditional psychoanalytic theory with contemporary views on attachment behavior and intersubjectivity Rogers discusses theory in relation both to actual psychoanalytic case histories and imagined selves found in literature and provides a critical rereading of the case histories of Freud Winnicott Lichtenstein Sechehaye and Bettelheim At once scientific and humanistic Self and Other engagingly draws from theoretical clinical and literary traditions It will appeal to psychoanalysts as well as to literary scholars interested in the application of psychoanalysis to literature

Subjects and Simulations Anne O'Byrne, Hugh J. Silverman, 2014-11-05 Subjects and Simulations presents essays focused on suffering and sublimity representation and subjectivity and the relation of truth and appearance in the twenty first century Inspired by the work of Jean Baudrillard Philippe Lacoue Labarthe and JeanLuc Nancy sixteen authors study how the real reasserts itself in an age of every more fragmented media and how art and literature give us access to forms of truth that elude philosophy How does representation grant us access to the place once occupied by the subject Is political life possible Can plural thinking be retrieved Will metaphor and simulation give us ways of being in an evanescent world The volume engages discussions of French and Continental philosophy post structuralism deconstruction simulacra aesthetics existentialism and media theory

Analectic Magazine and Naval Chronicle ,1816 Opera and the City Andrea Goldman,2013-12-10 In late imperial China opera transmitted ideas across the social hierarchy about the self family society and politics Beijing attracted a diverse array of opera genres and audiences and by extension served as a hub for the diffusion of cultural values It is in this context that historian Andrea S Goldman harnesses opera as a lens through which to examine urban cultural history Her meticulous yet playful account takes up the multiplicity of opera types that proliferated at the time exploring them as contested sites through which the Qing court and commercial playhouses negotiated influence and control over the social and moral order Opera performance blurred lines between public and private life and offered a stage on which to act out gender and class transgressions This work illuminates how the state and various urban constituencies manipulated opera to their own ends and sheds light on empire wide transformations underway at the time The Territories Law Reports Northwest Territories.

Supreme Court,1910 Thinking in an Emergency (Norton Global Ethics Series) Elaine Scarry,2012-04-09 Award winning critic Elaine Scarry provides a vital new assessment of leadership during crisis that ensures the protection of democratic values In Thinking in an Emergency Elaine Scarry lays bare the realities of emergency politics and emphasizes what she sees as the ultimate ethical concern equality of survival She reveals how regular citizens can reclaim the power to protect one another and our democratic principles Government leaders sometimes argue that the need for swift national action means there is no time for the population to think deliberate or debate But Scarry shows that clear thinking and rapid action are not in opposition Examining regions as diverse as Japan Switzerland Ethiopia and Canada Scarry identifies forms of emergency assistance that represent thinking at its most rigorous and remarkable She draws on the work of philosophers scientists and artists to remind us of our ability to assist one another whether we are called upon to perform acts of rescue as individuals as members of a neighborhood or as citizens of a country Dominion Law Reports ,1921 The Sexual Abuse of Children

William T. O'Donohue,James H. different versions of Wagner's Parsifal that were performed one hundred years apart and in radically different contexts. This highly original work filled with imaginative readings and disquieting observations links trauma with the culture and history of modernity and German music deftly tying the experience of the body to the sounds it hears how it reaches us slowly penetrates the skin and resonates. David Schwarz is assistant professor of music at the University of North Texas. He is the author of Listening Subjects: Music, Psychoanalysis, Culture. Sex in an Old Regime City Julie Hardwick, 2020. Sex in an Old Regime City is a major reframing of the long history of young people's intimacy. It shows how long running problems like out of wedlock pregnancy were handled very differently in Old Regime France than in more recent centuries. Abortion, infanticide, broken hearts and conflict with parents and neighbors were key challenges of young people's lives then as now but young couples' efforts to deal with these challenges were supported in pragmatic, often sympathetic ways by their communities and institutions like local courts, clergy, legal officials and social welfare managers.
