Karim, Patricia Blessing, 2023-10-20 This collection seeks to explore alternative definitions of bounded identities facilitating new approaches to spatial and architectural forms Taking as its starting point the emergence of a new sense of boundary emerged from the post 19th century dissolution of large heterogeneous empires into a mosaic of nation states in the Islamic world This new sense of boundaries has not only determined the ways in which we imagine and construct the idea of modern citizenship but also redefines relationships between the nation citizenship cities and architecture It brings critical perspectives to our understanding of the interrelation between the accumulated flows and the evolving concepts of boundary in predominantly Muslim societies and within the global Muslim diaspora Essays in this book seeks to investigate how architecture mediates the creation and deployment of boundaries and boundedness that have been devised to define enable obstruct accumulate and or control flows able to disrupt bounded territories or identities More generally the book explores how architecture might be considered as a means to understand the relationship between flows and boundaries and its implication of defining modern self The essays in this volume collectively address how the construction of self is primarily a spatial event and operated within the crucial nexus of power knowledge space Contributors investigate how architecture mediates the creation and deployment of boundaries and boundedness how architecture might be considered as a means to understand the relationship between flows and boundaries and its implications for how we define the modern self Part of the Critical Studies in Architecture of the Middle East series A Brief History of the Crusades Geoffrey Hindley, 2013-02-07 Why did the medieval Church bless William of Normandy's invasion of Christian England in 1066 and authorise cultural genocide in Provence How could a Christian army sack Christian Constantinople in 1204 Why did thousands of ordinary men and women led by knights and ladies kings and queens embark on campaigns of fanatical conquest in the world of Islam The word Crusade came later but the concept of a war for the faith is an ancient one Geoffrey Hindley instructively unravels the story of the Christian military expeditions that have perturbed European history troubled Christian consciences and embittered Muslim attitudes towards the West He offers a lively record of the Crusades from the Middle East to the pagan Baltic and fascinating portraits of the major personalities from Godfrey of Bouillon the first Latin ruler of Jerusalem to Etienne the visionary French peasant boy who inspired the tragic Children's Crusade Addressing questions rarely considered Hindley sheds new light on pressing issues surrounding religious division and shows how the Crusades have helped to shape the modern world and relations between Christian and Muslim countries to this day The Complete Works of Walter Savage Landor Walter Savage Landor, 1927 The Muslim Diaspora (Volume 1, 570-1500) Everett Jenkins, Jr., 2015-05-07 This first volume covers the development of Islam in the period from the birth of
