Baldwin, 2019-10-04 At the beginning of the twelfth century the region around Paris had a reputation for being the land of unruly aristocrats Entrenched within their castles the nobles were viewed as quarrelling among themselves terrorizing the countryside harassing churchmen and peasants pillaging and committing unspeakable atrocities By the end of the century during the reign of Philip Augustus the situation was dramatically different The king had created the principal governmental organs of the Capetian monarchy and replaced the feudal magnates at the royal court with loyal men of lesser rank The major castles had been subdued and peace reigned throughout the countryside The aristocratic families remain the same but no longer brigands they had now been recruited for royal service In his final book the distinguished historian John Baldwin turned to church charters royal inventories of fiefs and vassals aristocratic seals and documents vernacular texts and archaeological evidence to create a detailed picture of the transformation of aristocratic life in the areas around Paris during the four decades of Philip Augustus s reign Working outward from the reconstructed biographies of seventy five individuals from thirty three noble families Baldwin offers a rich description of their domestic lives their horses and war gear their tourneys and crusades their romantic fantasies and their penances and apprehensions about final judgment Knights Lords and Ladies argues that the aristocrats who inhabited the region of Paris over the turn of the twelfth century were important not only because they contributed to Philip Augustus s increase of royal power and to the wealth of churches and monasteries but also for their own establishment as an elite and powerful social class Four Sides to the Core Tiiija Rinta, 2011 Four Sides to the Core brings you stories from far away fascinating countries The book is a semi autobiographical novel that consists of small self contained stories from Nepal Kenya Jordan and Pakistan These stories form a bigger narrative that touch human rights universal values and daily realities in these different cultures It is a book based on the author s travels in different countries as a development aid worker and researcher The book is divided into four parts Each part consists of small stories from a specific country i e Nepal Kenya Pakistan and Jordan in the form of the author s firsthand experiences followed by fictitious stories that are based on real life The firsthand experiences are based on the author s diary that she kept while working abroad whilst the fictitious part is based on stories that she heard and people that she met during her travels Appendix to the Journals of the Senate and Assembly ... of the Legislature of the State of California ... , 1874 Annual Report Ohio State Board of Agriculture, 1861 The Farmer's Magazine , 1854 The Country Gentleman , 1853 The Regulation of Monopoly Roger Sherman, 1989-03-31 Competition may not function well where technology calls for large and complex investments as in the electricity industry where public utilities often provide service This book presents economic welfare foundations for the purpose of evaluating how well from a social point of view an enterprise performs when competition is unable to function
